Staunton Vindicator

VOL. XVIII. STAUNTON, VA., FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1863. NO. 6.

The Vindicator

W. R. S. ...ith, Editor & Proprietor.

TERMS.

The VINDICATOR is published weekly, at Two Dollars a year, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

Advertisements of one inch (twelve lines) or less, One Dollar and Fifty Cents for the first insertion, and Fifty Cents for each subsequent insertion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

Job Printing of every kind, such as Pamphlets, Blanks, Cards, Handbills, &c., &c., executed with neatness and dispatch, and on reasonable terms.

Office on Second Street, one door East of the Court House.

Subscribers can have their papers changed as often as they desire, by giving notice thereof.

Persons taking papers from the office for others than their own, are considered responsible for the pay.

Persons taking papers from the office of others than their own, are considered responsible for the pay.

Persons who remove from one place to another within the limits of this county, and have papers directed to their former place of residence, are considered responsible for the pay.

Persons who take papers from the office of others than their own, and have them changed to other places, are considered responsible for the pay in all such cases

W. S. LEAR, Publisher and Proprietor.

Staunton, Va.

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 27, 1863.

TO OUR PEOPLE.

When we are about to meet in armed conflict with the Yankees, it is but meet that we should inquire what is the cause which has induced us to do so. We answer, it is because our country has been invaded by a hostile army, and we are called upon to drive them back. We are asked why we do not let our country go, and why we do not let our property go, and why we do not let our wives and our children go, and why we do not let our lives go, and why we do not let our honor go, and why we do not let our liberty go, and why we do not let our all go, and why we do not let our all go, and why we do not let our all