WE present the REPOSITORY to-day in a new suit of beautiful type, by which we can furnish much more reading matter than heretofore, and still find room for our liberal advertising patronage.

OUR Washington correspondent refers to the generally received opinion in well informed circles, that Major General D. N. COUCH, now Commander of the Department of the Susquehanna, will be called to take an important command in the Army of the Potomac this spring. If so, Gen. Couch, will leave us as widely regretted as he is either personally or officially known; but his conceded abilities as a field commander would make all recognise the fitness of such a change, now as a field commander would make all rec-ognize the fitness of such a change, now that the final struggle for the overthrow of Treason is nigh at hand. With no sim-but to be faithful to his Country's cause, he has won greatness by that fidelity that is a stranger to self, and the unobtrusive exercise of that high measure of shilty that stamps him as one of our first field officers.

We carnestly appeal to the Union members of the legislature to give the bill providing for the adjulication and payment of military damages, a candid, dispassionnate consideration, unprejudired by any political complications which may have been thrown around it by violent partiana. The test eath reported in the bill, and which was unanimously accepted by the committee, is a fair one—just to the State and just to the loyal people; and to acck to impose needless and humiliating tests. stiking at the mere political belief of the citizens on the one hand, or striving to exampt all from giving evidence of loyalty, so that Robel and Union men could claim alike, on the other hand, make the enforcing of a despolied people a mere political foot-ball for the annuament of analytical singulative orators.

The measure is free from all political bearings. It applies to men of all parties: for all have suffered give a despolied people a mere political foot-ball for the annuament of analytical singularity or other prople during rebel rule in twasion; and if there be exceptions to the fidelity of our people during rebel rule in our midst, no fears need be apprehended, under Mr. Sharpe's restrictions, that such men can profit by it. The bill is urged with uncommon exmestaces by the entire press and members of both parties, of York, Adams, Franklin, Cumberland, Fulton and Bedford; and they are not seeking charity from the State, nor are they desiring that the highest just standard of loyalty shall be lowered. They have given their fathers, sons and brothers to preserve our. Nationality; they have grouply borne their full share of the burdens of the government, and they feel that they can justly demand that the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall not be unmindful of her highest duty to her citizens, and forgotful of her first precegative as a novereign State.

There are still thousands who are blind: who would follow Slavery upon the altar of satickies, and wreek political fevtane with it and share its dishonored grave. But the world moves; and Democracy moves with it. It is slow to surrender its early and constant love: it is sluggish in appreciating manifest truth, and reluctantly admit that there is a present whose new duties have been created by the chequered and erimsoned past; but it is coming; it is seeing; it is acting, and it will soon thamplon Emancipation with all the arder of a modern convert. It loves Slavery none the less; but it loves Power more, and it will not war against destiny. It has tried it, and lost; it will now unfurface to the state of the will be the state of the bemocracy of every Free State but Iowa delayed for the Wilmot Proviso; but its master re-asserted its power, and with relatives vengeance Slavery bid Democracy of steep Free State but Iowa declared for the Wilmot Proviso; but its master re-asserted its power, and with relatives vengeance Slavery bid Democracy of steep Free State but Iowa declared for the Wilmot Proviso; but its master re-asserted its power, and with relatives vengeance Slavery bid Democracy of affection. But now Slavery has passed the boundarits of hope—the decree is incorrelate that it must die, and again Democracy, after fruitless efforts to preserve its life, prenounces it dead and entomist tunder the epitaph of reributive justice!

He who supposes that the Democracy for the declared for the world have been craciped for the will be schooled in time, and will follow the new path with that confidence in masters that has ever made Democracy formidable. The World declares that Slavery's "downfall is, the natural result of the war and the Democratic party cannon interpose to aver it. Its destruction is a risk which the South voluntarily incurred when they resorted to arms, and it would be great inconsistent for surrection." The Chicago Fpirit, the losding of the providence Vallambiemam.

Vallandigham has come to grief agnin. He entered Congress and betrayed his people in his efforts to betray his Country, and they repudiated him by the election of a loyal representative to his place. He then undertook to avenge himself for his defeat by denouncing the government and its laws in most unmeasured terms. A draft was soon to be made; reverses had befallen the National arms; the loyal hearts were bowed in sorrow; and he commenced a series of harranges designed to stir the people up to revolution for the benefit of his treasonable friends in the South. Gen. Burnaide was called to command in the Department of Ohio, and his honest devotion to his country could not tolerate open, unblushing, it active treason. MILLARD FILLMORE has made a desperate bid for the Democratic nomination for the Democratic nomination for the Dresidency. At a recent Sanitary Fir. st which he presided, he made a speech, in which he aurpassed even Fernando Wood in convession and compromise. He said that when the war is over we must show our christian forgivenessly extending to the robota "every act totelements and without the robota "every act totelements and without the robota "every and by restoring them to all their rights under he Constitution." This would make Davis, Toombs, Stephens, Wigfall, Mason, Slidell, Brown and half a score of others full fleeged United States Senators; make Lee a Colonel in the regular army, with Beauregard, Buckner, Statat, Hill, Long-street and many others who have wantonly del g d the land in fraternal blood, regular army others who have wantonly del g d the land in fraternal blood, regular army others and we presume that Mosoby and other guerilla leaders would have to come in too. It was lardly worth while for Fillmore to degrade himself in hast style after many others had tried it and lost at it. However, it's his own affar and his folly will not so much as create a ripple on the sea of politics, He has isong associated in the state of the past.

This Age Baseyen but if sees not, carre but it hears not. It won't see or believe that Slavery is soad, and it will have a Slavery President or none. It mourns over the way warhoes of its party leaders or defined, and schares that it such the even doctrine prevails, the election of a Democratic President would not be a "course of pleasure to it.
