Gov. Curtin's Proclamations.

Gov. Curtin has issued an earnest and eloquent Proclamation against Pennsylvania soldiers enlisted in other States. He truthfully and patriotically says:

By enlisting in regiments of other States they deprive their country of the services of their own soldiers. They are thus engaged in a course of desertion. They are thus engaged in a course of desertion. They are thus engaged in a course of desertion. They are thus engaged in a course of desertion. They are thus engaged in a course of desertion.

I therefore appeal to our noble volunteers not to abandon the Commonwealth. She has been a good mother to them. She has been a good mother to them. She has been a good mother to them. She has been a good mother to them. She has been a good mother to them.

CATHOLICISM AND SLAVERY.

A recent issue of the Philadelphia Univer., the Catholic organ of this diocese, had an earnest and candid editorial recognizing the inevitable doom of Slavery as hastened by the invasion of the South.

"In a recent edition of the Univer. the fact by which Slavery is at present surrounded, was examined. The article was fairly shown to illustrate that the institution is virtually destroyed by the war; the inevitable result is a just punishment on the South for the crime of rebellion.
