THE WAY TO PEACE.

The heart of the nation longs for peace. The masses of the people are tired of fruitless war. The thirst for peace has been appeased, and the cry of anguish wounds and broken hearts, is heard more and more repulsive to each big lobb to the number of the unfortunate victims of this civil strife. Everywhere there is an earnest yearning for the return of the happy days when prosperity, peace and peace were rife. Again and again the exclamation is heard, Oh! that this unhappy civil war were ended! Men reason in this way: Our money has been given without stint; our most stalwart and athletic young men have been sent to the battle-field in response to the call of our Chief Magistrate; our soil has ceased to yield its accustomed quantity of the necessaries of life for want of laborers; the blood of our bravest and best has been poured out like water; the wail of sorrow is heard in our family circles, for the Angel of Death has darkened our homes, and our once happy land has become the theatre on which armed men are enacting the bloodiest tragedy which this world has ever witnessed. Is there no way to staunch this purple tide of human gore? Is there no power to stay the arm of carnage? Is there no wisdom given to man to bring order out of confusion, peace out of war, and to form a union between States "disunited, disordaat, belligerant?"

Three years and more of bloody war have but served to intensify the hatred between the people of the North and South because the present administration, instead of keeping in view the maintenance of the Constitution and the preservation of the Union, has used the armed power of the country for the purpose of destroying the domestic institutions of the Southern States.

The written law of the land has been violated in ways and times without number, the most sacred rights of the citizen have been disregarded; the restoration of the Union as it was" has been denounced as an once impracticable, and all for the purpose of making the fanatical idea of a party the ruling principle of the Government.

Our victories upon the land and upon the sea have been rendered useless by the failure of the party in power to turn them to proper account.

Instead of rendering the administration more magnanimous and inclining it to measures of reconciliation and peace, our triumphs have but served to make it the more blood-thirsty and prescriptive. Each success of our arms emboldens it with no higher purpose than to strike a more deadly blow at the institution of negro slavery. Indeed so far has it advanced in this ruthless course to the nation, that Mr. Lincoln now boldly declares that there can be no reconstruction of the Union unless slavery is abandoned.

Parents, husbands and laborers, is it for this that you have sent your brothers, sons and fathers to the battle-field? Must this war go on until every slave is set free, although the Union might be restored and peace attained immediately, long before that end can be accomplished? Are you willing to give hundreds of millions more of your money and thousands of your sons to swelle hundreds of thousands of graves, even in the odds effort to get the Union, but with place him upon a footing with the white men? If you are willing vote to the Republican party in preference to the Democratic party, in the hope that this war may be prolonged long enough to accomplish the negro philanthropy of that party, which is the only object for which the war is now being prosecuted, then vote the Republican ticket.

But if you are for the party whose standard-bearer declares that "the Union is the only condition of peace—we ask no more," then is the issue no longer one of negro slavery, but of peace just as soon as the Union can be restored. Can you hesitate which side will choose?

By the unanimity of the great party who formed the Constitution which has been the palladium of our liberties and under which our Union grew from the weakness of infancy to the strength, vigor and glory of the proud manhood by the memory of the brave heroes who have fought, bled and died on the battle-fields of this civil war for the maintenance of that Constitution and the preservation of our grand nationality by the widows and orphans whose hearts have been made sad and desolate by the terrible bereavements of this civil strife, by the precious lives of the young men of the country, which are even now demanded, as so many sacrifices on the altar of fanaticism; by the ruined fields, closed workshops, burned towns and desolated hearthstones of our once happy land let no fanatical idea bar the way to the speedy return of peace. Let sophistry nor any amount of new denunciation nor free the indulgence of abusive epithets, nor double dilated falsehood, nor intimidation, nor bayonets deter you from the expression of your condemnation of the party in power and your earnest unswerving devotion to the Constitution of your fathers and the Union of the States—and then you may with confidence look forward to the dawning of a speedy, happy, honorable peace.

HOW THEY TALK.

Democrats are attempted to insult the intelligence of the people by pretendingly and [illegible] that the leaders of the Republican party are in earnest when they promise to do some good thing for the people still [illegible] the people will [illegible] on their vote and be [illegible] disappointed. By this sort of humbugging the managers to make dupes of uncertain [illegible] weak-headed, who never think to the contrary, and simple-minded as cooked all to [illegible] the unprincipled plotters. Those unprincipled party liars are never [illegible] they mean. To hear them talk you would think the millennium must shortly dawn upon the people. They promise everything and everything with an air and manner that is quite fascinating to behold one, which shows them to be adept in the business, but unfortunately for their dupes, these promises of the great time coming are somehow or other never realized. This however, seems to make no little difference with the timid and lily-livered rises intended to be called. They are just as ready and willing to receive a new batch of promises knowing that they will be again deceived as if they really found a sure in undertaking the operation of having the "wool pulled over their eyes on all convenient occasions." Their party leaders well understand this weakness exhibited in the party and have in consequence contributed—that is their trade—to serve them in the past and will in no answer to the present and the future. Vote for a hero or a patriot and you will be not a Republican party hero or editor choking out a lie their mouths are too capacious for that. Here is a couple of their lines to-wit made just after the re-nomination of CURTIN for Governor. Their dupes read it with entire confidence when first published, they can read it again reflect over it and contrast it with the same sort of promises now came made by their orators and editors, with the view of again deluding the people. The italics were in the original:

"With CURTIN as Governor, the rebellion can be effectually quelled in six months. If WOODWARD should slip into the Gubernatorial chair, the civil war may be prolonged for six years. Let CURTIN triumph and there will be no other draft. If WOODWARD succeeds, in each and every one a fresh draft will be needed.

Now, more than this, With WOODWARD as Governor, there will be imminent danger that the seat of war will be transferred to Pennsylvania, and our town, villages and cities would be ravaged."

This served its day and pulled many into voting for CURTIN. He was re-elected and how let us inquire, have these promises been kept? Twice six months have rolled around and the rebellion is not yet EFFECTUALLY QUELLED! In place of "no other draft" been "needed" two have actually been made since his re-election, and how many others will take place, before his term of office expires, time can only tell. The "seat of war" was to be kept out of Pennsylvania by CURTIN's re-election. Look around and the evidence of the war may be seen on every side in Pennsylvania—our farms, villages and towns "transversed" and CHAMBERSBURG IN ASHES! Nothing of this kind was to happen if CURTIN was re-elected. The people know it has all happened and it will happen again if the Abolition party are continued in power. The same sort of promises are now being made in behalf of the re-nomination of Old Abe, will the people allow themselves to be again deceived? Has he not been tried four years and has ever a country suffered as much from the miserable administration as this country has in that time from the wicked and stupid policy of Abraham Lincoln? The wicked men in power under him will do everything, no matter how vile, to deceive the people and retain their places. The most extensive promises will be made—the most incredible stories told—the most shameful reports circulated and the most wonderful victories achieved just on the eve of the election.—Let the people be on their guard and not again be deceived by Abolition promises and Abolition falsehoods.

THE Spirit says the Union legislature "refused to compensate the Hundred Thousand Men Pennsylvania furnished to suppress the rebellion." Republican.

Not a true bill neighbor! we never called that sort of drunks, who barbored in the capital at Harrisburg last winter a "Union Legislature." We said "Republican," or possibly "Abolition legislature.

We certainly never designed bringing reproach on honest Union men by calling the majority of that body, a "Union legislature."

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

We desire to direct the attention of the citizens of Franklin county and particularly of Chambersburg to a few facts and figures which we append below. You have been prodigal and reckless of your property through the negligence and imbecility of the Abolitionists whose duty it was to attend to your interests. Many of your fellow citizens and all your property is destroyed in the north of the invasion, and homeless and penniless you were compelled to depend on public charity and the generosity of your neighbors to find subsistence and shelter for your wives and children. Yet when you appealed to those in authority to indemnify you for your losses, they turned a deaf ear to your distresses and heartlessly refused to comply with your just and righteous demand. They have no money to spare which it is needed for a simple act of justice to the suffering citizens of Chambersburg but to keep in office a set of incapacitated negroes they have plenty as we learn from official reports recently published.

According to these reports there are at the present time from [illegible] to [illegible] idle worthless negroes congregated at various points in the South within our military lines who are fed at the public expense.

The average expense and [illegible] a day for the accommodation of each of which at the rate a land amounts to [illegible] per day, over [illegible] per week and over [illegible] per annum. Just think of it! [illegible] a year, which only large to rebuild Chambersburg, a town and inhabitants, but can not pay for even dollar's worth of property lost.

Citizens of Franklin county, is not this facts which we have depicted your soul? Can you resist the temptation Abolitionists will offer you, when they come to your door and ask you to vote for a party which is responsible for the destruction of your property, and which is responsible for the destruction of your property, and which is responsible for the destruction of your property, and

A SOVEREIGN REMEDY.

The Republicans had another "pow-wow" in town, on Thursday night last, in front of Brewer's Hotel. By means of the excellent music of the Chambersburg Band, they succeeded in getting together an audience of tolerably respectable size.

The Hon. John Cessna, of Bedford, was the first speaker. He occupied about twenty minutes in explaining, or rather attempting to explain, how the Democratic party had been, although he said that he did not intend to take up any time in relation to his own position, as he was simply "a drop in the bucket," &c., and was of course, of no account, in which latter assertion we entirely concur.

It required "heavy waiting" for you John. You say that you and the Democratic party stand on the resolutions. Well, can you stand there now, for the Democratic party has left you. How is it, John? Do you stand there now? Didn't the resolutions of 1861 declare that the war was to be waged for the purpose of conquest, or aggression, and with no intention of interfering with the domestic institutions of the States? You know that they did. How then? Does not Lincoln, in whom you support, declare that the war must go on until he can succeed in subjugating the South? Yet you urge the prosecution of the war for the same purpose when you address your fellow-citizens. You know that the resolutions of the Republican party on that subject, is not what it was in 1861 and 1862, that the Administration has abandoned the position which it held the first two years, party held in common, and has taken up, instead, the abolition doctrine of emancipation. How comes it that you hold to a war for the Constitution, and against slavery, John? Don't think you are in exact the right way. Time was when you considered the Constitution as the foundation, and conduct that attempts to kick it out the foundation. You have no to preaching for you consider Abraham Lincoln a Democrat as the Government and that you are not supporting a man who is flagrantly violating the Constitution and its sworn guarantees.

Mr. Cessna, you know, is a good speaker, and can make harsh epithets and terse sarcasms. Hard words never convince men of a contrary opinion. The truth is, John you opposed a course which always incensed by filling their pockets, which you now propose to do to your friends, and by "ignorance" instead of "conceit" that he uses and words that are

Young men who have been the backbone of the Democratic party, and who have always voted the Democratic ticket, have left the party because of the abolitionizing of the Democratic party

Fare as low as by any other route.

For further information, apply at the Passenger Station, S. E. corner of Broad and Market Streets.

The complaints of the Press and the companies of the Pennsylvania Railroad for Change, unless this the direct route, have been so long and loud.

The connecting of tracks by the Railroad bridge at Philadelphia, avoiding all change of baggage or freight, together with the saving of time, are advantages hitherto appreciated by shippers of freight and the travelling public.

Merchants are respectfully entreating the Company not to allow freight to be diverted from this route, with confidence it will speedily transit.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company point to the West by the Pennsylvania Railroad, and at all times be favorable as the charges by other Lines, or Routes, permit.

Despatch is the watchwords of the Pennsylvania Railroad.
