A CHAPTER FROM THE HISTORY OF THE WAR.

General Hughes to Judge Kelly.

Chambersburg, Aug. 25, 1864.

My dear Sir: Your surprise, I understand, on hearing that I was a democrat, was not greater than I felt on hearing that you had become a republican. What could have led you to take so decided a step, I can only conjecture, as I have not seen you since you were a democrat. Perhaps the blackness of the negro, and the fanaticism of the hard-shell anti-slavery party, may have led you to the conclusion that the Democratic party is the party of secession and treason. The same power which has led you to take the step, has led many of your old friends to do the same thing. Some of them have been with us from the first, and have never allowed themselves to be deceived by the false and fanatical cry that the Democratic party is the party of treason and disloyalty.

I do not think that Democrats are more disloyal than other men. I have yet to see the man who is more disloyal to his country than Thaddeus Stevens, or more in favor of treason than Wendell Phillips. Perhaps, however, I may be mistaken in this matter. I have not been in the habit of associating with traitors, and I may be deceived in the character of those with whom I have been in the habit of associating. I know that I am not a traitor, and that I have been associating with men who are not traitors. I know that I have been associating with men who are not in favor of the negro being placed on a political equality with the white man, and who are not in favor of the negro being placed in the army to fight the battles of the white man. I know that I have been associating with men who are not in favor of the negro being placed in the army to fight the battles of the white man, because they are not in favor of the white man being placed in the army to fight the battles of the negro. I know that I have been associating with men who are not in favor of the white man being placed in the army to fight the battles of the negro, because they are not in favor of the negro being placed in the army to fight the battles of the white man. I know that I have been associating with men who are not in favor of the negro being placed in the army to fight the battles of the negro, because they are not in favor of the white man being placed in the army to fight the battles of the negro. I know that I have been associating with men who are not in favor of the negro being placed in the army to fight the battles of the white man

THE STATE VOTE.

The election is over. The result is not yet accurately known, but enough is known to outline the fact that the Democracy of the Old Keystone has won a signal triumph. The Abolitionists and their accomplices and dependents are trembling for the Union. They see the handwriting on the wall and know that their hour is sealed. The immense patronage of the Administration could not save the Republican party from defeat. Money was contributed in the most prodigal manner, all manner of corruption was practised, the basest falsehoods were circulated to the greatest truth—the minions from employment were threatened as the consequence of a refusal to support the Administration ticket, and yet in the face of all this, the honest masses, misguided by the Abolitionists, unintimidated by bribes and unseduced by lying tongues, not only unshackled the large majority of last year, but rolled up a majority of over five thousand for the Democratic ticket. The result is gratifying, for it secures the electoral vote of our grand old Commonwealth for McClellan and Pendleton.

Maryland has spoken, and asserting her ancient dignity has declared that she will be free—that she will still manage her domestic institutions in her own way. Her voice has been raised to the direction of the Administration. By her vote on Tuesday and Wednesday last, she has insured "Maryland, my Maryland" for McClellan and Pendleton.

The people of the Sixteenth Congressional district have endorsed the course of Hon. A. H. Coffroth, by a majority of seven hundred notwithstanding the slanderous statement circulated in regard to his votes and acts in Congress. Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe has been re-elected to the Legislature, so the record of his fidelity to the interests of his constituents.

Hon. Francis M. Kimmell received a majority of two hundred and twenty five on the home vote and is very probably elected.

The county ticket received a handsome majority of the home vote, but will very likely be defeated by the soldier vote.

There is an important work yet to be done. Franklin county must give a majority for McClellan and Pendleton on the whole vote.

Democrats must not slumber. There must be no lethargy. Every man must be up and doing. The times call for action.—Never before were such great issues at stake. Never before was there a nobler cause presented to the people for their adoption.—The old party of the Constitution and the Union appeals to you once more for support. You must not fail in this important struggle. The rights of freemen, the liberties of the American people hang upon the result of the November election. If the cause of the Democratic triumphant, the Union will be restored and the Constitution preserved. If the Democratic party is defeated, the Republic is in imminent danger.—Democrats of Franklin county, you have done well, but you must do better. Increased zeal, redoubled energy, one last pull, a strong pull and pull all together, will place this county forever from the control of the pernicious doctrine of the Republican party. Gird on your armor again. Spring to action again with lighter hearts, fire every man to the polls. Reason with the misguided. Convince him, by the weighty arguments of Democratic truth, that he is in the wrong and that you are in the right. Leave no stone unturned to insure the success of our ticket. Let your resolution be that if we are to be cursed with four more years of Republican mismanagement and misrule, it shall not be owing to any want of exertion on your part. Rally freemen once again, put shoulder to shoulder and move forward in solid column for McClellan and Pendleton, the Union, the Constitution and the laws.

VANDALISM.

It appears from the following official report of General Sheridan that the war is no longer to be a contest between armed men in the field, but a war after the manner of the Goths and Vandals, upon old men, women and children—a war upon property; a war of destruction; a war begun by all the civilized people of the Goths, and justified only by the code of savages Indians and Canadian scouts. The example was set by the rebels in the wanton destruction of Chambersburg, in retaliation for similar atrocities perpetrated on some of their towns, and now we have vastly improved on it by the order of Lieut. General Grant himself.—Read the report of General Sheridan:

WINCHESTER, VA., 9 P. M., Oct. 7, 1864.
Lieut. Gen. U. S. Grant:

I have the honor to report my command is this point to-night. I commenced moving back from Port Republic, Mt. Crawford, Bridgewater, and Harrisonburg yesterday morning. The grain and forage in advance of these points have previously been destroyed. In moving back to this point the whole country, from Blue Ridge to the North Mountain, has been made untenable for a rebel army. I have destroyed two thousand barns filled with wheat, hay, and farming implements; over seventy mills, filled with flour and wheat, had driven in front of the army over four herds of stock, and have killed and turned to the troops not less than three thousand sheep. This destruction embraces the Lacey Valley and Little Fort Valley, as well as the main Valley. A large number of horses have been obtained, a proper estimate of which I cannot now make.

Suppose the carrying fortunes of war should again see a rebel army in Pennsylvania, what may we expect? Our readers can answer the question for themselves.

A GLORIOUS TRIUMPH.

The result of the late election in Franklin County was a glorious triumph for the Democracy. Notwithstanding the most strenuous exertions of the Shoddy men, every man on our ticket has a majority where our opponents confidently expected to carry all before them. This result is the famous "Green Spot," is truly a cheering indication, and we can safely predict the supremacy in the county of our glorious old party for all time. The Democracy of Franklin County have at length awoke to their duty and a glorious victory is the result. Democrats you did well, but you must continue to work until the 8th day of November and roll up a majority of Five hundred for LITTLE MAC, the Hero of Antietam.

OUR OFFER.

Our new office is in the warehouse of Messrs. Wunderlich & Neff, second story; we have completed our refitting, and are prepared to execute any kind of Job Printing desired. We shall be pleased to receive a visit from any of our friends.

"WAVE OF MISFORTUNE" ETC.

The following account of the battle of Winchester and subsequent Valley fight, differs widely from the order of Gen. Sheridan, which we published last week. In the order Sheridan claims the entire rout of the rebels, the capture of guns and prisoners, and the total destruction of the rebel army. We now have a letter from a gentleman who was present and participated in the fight, and who is a Republican. We publish his letter as a correspondent. A gentleman of a good name has come from us, and some, too, when we need needed the influence of such men; and, we repeat, in every State of the national Union—in the extreme Southern and eastern of the South and of the North, will there be a genuine sorrow and sincere expression of respect for the memory.

Twenty-nine years ago Mr. Taney was elected to the Chief Justiceship, as the said friend of John Marshall, who had held the office for more than thirty years. Chief Justice Taney has survived every member of the Supreme Court, except Judge Wayne, who was on the bench at the time of his appointment. Judge Catron, Judge McLean, Baldwin, and Nelson. He administered the oath of office to seven Presidents. He has been a long career of usefulness and honor; and now, in this agony of our Political system, one fact, in recording his death, shall add to his fame. Amidst the wild, fierce, one more river turn out of the great machine of Government, and, that too, when it most needed the close cohesion which such influence gave. There was, so long as this great Democrat lived, a feeling of security, a sort of repose, a faith that there was still some anchorage, which sustained the most despondent. It is all gone now. While the horrors of violent deaths are around us, and to the very crisis of the fiercest civil strife, the mighty arm has ever seen, amid the danger or arrow, and the hideous shout of triumph, the quiet, peaceful death of this old man, close to the edge of battle, is and will be felt to be most impressive. There could have been no higher or more fit death for him. It is behind it without a continuous misery, in the hour of the dying man. But there was no reproach. He had been the fearless and nobly had he discharged it, to hold up the work of the Constitution, and though the hand had become feeble and the tongue wasted, the intellect and the mental power survived to the last moment of life, and the Chief Justice died, as he had lived, a strong, unflinching, truly "loyal" man; as was the judge before him. And then, too, let every lover of his country remember with gratitude, in this moment of national sorrow, that may be described as Chief Justice Taney's last prominent public act, his assertion in the case of the Habeas Corpus, of the right of the Judiciary to give a hearing to a prisoner held by military authority. It was a protest for the defiance of the law by the Executive allowed it to be pushing else—of the real Chief Magistrate of the Nation, and it was, too, because the initiate violation of the Constitution. Let us honor him for its whole power. Let us especially honor him for its closing act of it. Sincerely anxious to infuse no word of unkindness with these words of fellow, we still feel it our duty to be silent as to the future. Although the function of Federal Chief Justice, under existing circumstances, and, with the necessary decline of judicial independence which was in no mean degree influence evolve, will be far less important and dignified than it has been, still, as a mere matter of picture-gazing interest, we may be excused for some solicitude as to the successor of Jay, and Rutledge, and Ellsworth, and Marshall and Taney. We not be expected by Lincoln, is a question on the lips of every thoughtful man. It is beyond the scope of conjectures, except in this, that he is what may, pure judicial independence will hardly be required as a qualification. Administration has too many unadjudicated political questions to permit it to be independent itself; and we look forward to one more dismal spectacle in our day of city visions—of the Federal Judiciary tottering to the grave, which Providence to swallow up all that once was dear to us.

Thus much have we ventured to say, under an impulse which, we are not ashamed to confess, has moved us. To abler pens and more eloquent tongues, must be left the elaborate tribute which the Chief Justice's personal and official character deserves. The Philadelphia Bar has already taken the initiative. One other remark, however, we have to make. The Chief Justice was a devout, Christian man. He worshipped God humbly, according to the forms of that ancient Church, whose claims to a rebel seem to strengthen in our hours of trial, and whose undying honor it will be, that it has in an age of bloody and unnatural strife, almost alone labored for peace. To this communion he belonged, obeying its discipline, cherishing its precepts, and on the roll of honor of American Judges, and Lawyers, the Catholics of our country—may well be proud of two such names as William Gaston and Roger B. Taney.—Age

A ROW IN THE NAVY YARD—ACTION SWEEP OF McCLELLAN BEES

From the Brooklyn Eagle of Friday.

This morning a dash was made on the iron-clad shop in the yard, and the feeling of the people here, as well as the spirit of the Administration, will be seen from what followed.

There were fifty-three men working in the shop, and they were called in singly, when a fellow "dressed in a little brief authority," put to the men as they came in the following questions:

Are you a Union man?

Are you a member of a Union League?

Will you vote for Lincoln or McClellan?

To these questions fifty-one of the fifty-three men answered to the first "Yes," to the second "No," to the last "McClellan."

One man said: "I am a Union man, and I belong to no leagues, but my whole country. I have followed McClellan through mud and blood in Virginia, and I will stand by him to the last."

Another said: "I am a Union man; I belong to no leagues; I have given two sons to the army, and one of them is now lying in the hospital at Winchester. I am going to cast my vote for McClellan, and my two sons, if living, will do the same."

Of the fifty-three men, but two promised to vote for Lincoln; the others were discharged by an Administration shoddyite to know no counsel but the counsels of the country.

Let the working man mark that no man can earn a dollar under this Administration unless he is prepared to sell his principles with his labor.

PAY UP.

All persons indebted to us for Subscription, Advertising or Jobbing, are earnestly requested to PAY UP IMMEDIATELY. We have met with a very heavy loss in the destruction of our office by the late fire, and are compelled to demand immediate payment from those who owe us.

THE OLD KEYSTONE REMEMBERS AND FIRM IN LINE FOR McCLELLAN AND PENDLETON!

The Wave of Antietam and the Buckeye Blast Swept Over Pennsylvania—Democratic and Conservative Principles Triumphant!

We give the list of majorities in the different counties of our State, with the subjoined data made by the official returns, so far as these have been received. Our figures are all based on the Congressional vote. It will be seen from the table that the Democratic majorities are sustained; and we expect who is the left returns are in, to make them much larger. The Abolitionists, in their extremity, are verifying the adage, that drowning men catch at straws, by the manner in which they are endeavoring to make it appear that they have carried the State. To make their vote seem plausible, they have, besides using last year's figures, in many instances, taken the vote for some county officer, such as Sheriff, rejecting the Congressional vote because it has against them. The more respectable of them, indeed, are beginning to speak of the contest as "close," the result as "doubtful." There is nothing doubtful about it; facts and figures and the official returns, all give the popular vote of the Keystone State to the Democracy by at least five thousand majority. She is safe in November by an overwhelming majority for McCLELLAN, and PENDLETON and the Union!

In Ohio the Abolition majority of last year has been greatly reduced. The Democracy have gained 60,000. This magnificent result will fill the heart of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution with joy. The Democratic State will rend an enormous vote for McClellan and Pendleton.

The Democracy of Indiana have fought a good fight. The Abolitionists, with that peculiar skill which characterizes them in manufacturing figures and returns, announce that they have swept the State, and claim a Union majority. This is untrue. Yesterday we received a special telegram from reliable parties in Indianapolis, which gives the following result:

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 13, 1864.

We have elected Voorhees and Hibbard to Congress. There is a Democratic majority of four in the State Senate, and probably a Democratic majority in the House. The Abolitionists claim Morton's election as Governor by 3,000 majority, but we are awaiting further figures. Immense frauds were perpetrated upon us throughout the State. Indiana is good for McClellan and Pendleton in November.

Last year the Abolitionists carried the State by 12,000 majority. The result this year, even taking the Abolition figures, shows a Democratic gain of 7,000 votes. Indiana has done nobly. The most strenuous efforts were made by the Abolitionists to carry the State, but if they have not been defeated, they have barely escaped. In November the State will be found "good for McClellan and Pendleton" by an overwhelming majority.

NEXT CONGRESS—SOME RESULT.

We have the figures, as nearly correct as they can be had before the official count, to show that the table herewith contains a true result of the election for members of Congress in Pennsylvania. In 1862 we elected of the 24 representatives 9 Democrats—2 volunteers who proved to be pure shoddy, Hale (18th) and Tracy (13th)—1 Bogus, Bailey, (15th) and 12 shoddy, without the entire. Now look at the result in 1864:

Democrats.	Shoddy.
1. Samuel J. Randall,	2. Chandler Price,
3. Henry T. Ross,	4. Leonard Myers,
5. B. Markley Boyer,	6. Thomas B. Cooper,
7. E. A. Rowan,	8. John N. Dennis,
9. Hon. Hiram Ritter,	10. Thos. Williams,
11. Philip Johnson,	12. Thos. L. Cohen,
14. Charles Denniston,	15. J. B. Donnan,
16. Victor J. Fazio,	17. Thomas Williams,
18. William H. Miller,	19. Geo. V. Lawrence,
20. A. A. Glossbrenner,
21. Alex. H. Coffroth,
22. Robert L. Johnson,
23. Thaddeus Wright,
24. John Covode,
11 Democrats,	9 Abolitionists.

Total—15 Democrats, 9 Abolitionists.

Democrats of Franklin County, we congratulate you on the success which crowned your efforts of the 11th inst. Nobly have you battled for the cause of constitutional liberty. You have spurned the doctrines of the Republican party. You have rescued the "child from regal" from the control of that organization which seeks to retain power by the inoculation of principles directly antagonistic to those upon which our government is founded.

Our cause is entitled, and victory complete, and victory will be ours. Let every man remain at his post. Let not the apathy which generally follows success creep over you, but with firmer resolution and increased activity, labor until the setting down of the sun of the 8th day of November, for the triumph of the Democratic party, whose creed is the Constitution, the Union and the Laws.

W. S. STENCEL,

Chairman of Dem. Co. Ex. Com.

THERE will be a meeting of the Lincoln McClellan Club, on Friday evening the 21st inst. in Loudon. Let the Democrats and Conservatives turn out and keep the ball rolling.

Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe and W. S. Stenger, Esq., will be present to address the meeting.

SWORD PRESENTATION.—The enlisted men of Company "K," 21st Regiment Penn'a. Cavalry, manifested their appreciation of the services of their captain, Henry C. Phillips, by presenting him, on the 11th inst., with a splendid Sword, Sash and Belt, valued at not less than two hundred and fifty dollars. Orderly Sergeant Sam'l Palmer presented the sword in a neat and highly complimentary speech, which was responded to by the gallant Captain in his best style. We are sorry that want of space compels us to forego the publication of the speeches in full.

A BIG BERT.—We are indebted to Mr. Daniel Palmer, of Guilford township, for a red heat of magnificent proportions, measuring 22 inches in circumference and 21 inches in length.

Special Notices.

From Army Hospitals the Steady tide of the stars and the rich and humble shade of the poor—from the office and the second deck—from the mountain to distant valleys—and heard through the cities—come every week and every day, in a world in pouring the evidence of the amazing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. The same upon thousands of letters like the following that we seen all our office:

Rensselaer, Wm. Sept. 16, 1864.

I have been troubled with the Dyspepsia for nineteen months—sometimes and nearly blind. Also, Mr. Bitters have restored my health, and cured me. Price bottles retailed at $1. C. L. WHITE.

Sun in Water, Jan. July 20, 1864.

The people here in this place feel greatly in your debt for the benefit they have received from your Bitters. Send me a dozen more. Address JAS. S. BUTLER, Sun in Water, Lewis Co. Pa.

Office belonging to the Manager of the United Mine School for the children of Volunteers.

Philadelphia, Mayor, Sept. 20, 1864.

Dear Sir: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to many of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. Our Doctor is quite enthusiastic about the good they do. Our appetite, also, daily wasting consumption, and all medical aid had been sought, and had been entirely restored. We commenced with a half a dozen bottles, and the children are now almost entirely improved, and she is to now well in appearance. MRS. M. M. DAVIS.

Dear Sir: I have been to you for I verily believe your Bitters have saved my life.

Yours, with send me one bottle more of the Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by them. Yours, &c. ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and I have found no relief until I tried your Plantation Bitters have cured me. REV. J. CATHCART, Rochester, N. Y.

Send me another dozen of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the people of this place. SYKES, CHALMERS & CO., Proprietors, Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of my flock, and I do not know of one instance in which they have failed to give relief. G. D. ADDRESS, Pastor Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

The Plantation Bitters have cured me of inveterate complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business. H. B. KINSLEY, Cleveland, O.

The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a long standing case of the kidney and urinary organs that have distressed me for years. They act like a charm. T. L. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are a charmed nature's great reliance. They are continued with the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Winter-green, Sassafras Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure alcohol. Rum.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, incomplete impurities of the heart, lack of appetite, dizziness after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., should try either of the preceding bitters.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce no intoxicating effects whatever.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce no intoxicating effects whatever.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce no intoxicating effects whatever.

Notice.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk, or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. Bitters only put up in regular bottles. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See the very bottle has our private United States stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

THE GIRARD HOUSE.

Corner Tenth and Chestnut Sts.,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

The proprietors of the Girard House have the pleasure to offer, with the opening of the present season, the most extensive and complete accommodations to the public of any hotel in the city. Its location is the most desirable for business men, and its proximity to the principal places of amusement and public resort, and to the depots of the various railroads, renders it the most convenient hotel for the travelling public. The proprietors have added to the comfort of their guests by the introduction of a passenger elevator, and have spared no pains to render the Girard House in every respect a first-class hotel.

April 8—6m. [illegible]

COVERLY & HUTCHISON have the pleasure of announcing to their friends and the public that they have taken the Eagle Hotel, at Harrisburg, Pa., opposite the Railroad Depot at Harrisburg, formerly kept by Mr. Jonathan Fox, and lately by Mr. Eldred, and furnished throughout in the most elegant manner, with all the modern improvements, including gas, bathing rooms, and a passenger elevator. The travelling public will find this house one of the most convenient, comfortable, and elegant hotels in the State. Its proximity to the principal depots of the various railroads, bring it within easy reach of all parts of the country. Its table will be supplied with the best the markets afford, and its bar with the choicest liquors. Its stabling is large and commodious, and its hostlers will be found attentive and civil. The proprietors hope, by strict attention to business, to merit a share of the patronage of the public.
