THE NEW UNION LEAGUE BUILDING.

The Usion League of Philadelphia was organized on the 27th of December, 1-812, and it will endest organization of the kind in the United States. The condition of membership is, "uniquities thates. The condition of membership is, "uniquities and the suppression of the rebellion." The purposes of the neithful on afford appears to have been limited, and entirely local in their carneter. Organized a few days after the dissactions result at Fredericksburg, and in period and the product of the war, when by at men were depressed and despandent, and when Treason was server there becoming more boil and delinart, the rooms of the Union League when Treason was server where becoming more boil and delinart, the rooms of the Union League was the state of the three forces and the product of the state of the three forced business upon them; nor was it possible for such a body of mean, inspired by ariden lover of country, to fold their arms supin my, when our national fabric reached more described to the final, and the production of the Board bare scaled used every whore been met by the forced husiness or some about the set of the three forced business. Some first thousand daliars were subscribed to the final, and the productions of the Board bare reached used every whore been met by the forced more seeds then. Come along, gentlemen—meetin's open!

The late Judge Nill, who died child-less, by a will executed some years ago, made a liberal bequest to a relative who is a mative of this county and still resides in the State; but by his will admitted to probate on Monday last, he revokes the legacy expressly on the ground that the legates sympathises with the traitors in arms against the government. Judge Nill was a War Democrat, and he was as consistent in death as he was carnest in life, in his abhorrence of faithlessness to our sacred Nationality.

OUR WOUNDED IN WARHINGTON.

We learn from reliable sources that there are now some 6,000 Pennsylvania wounded soldiers in Washington, and from all the hemrolent associations we have calls for aid to mitigate the sufferings of these noble herrors. The following better from Hon. Jasper E. Brady is worthly of the attention of our people. The association of which he speaks has done great service to our wounded, and our ladies should forward the rapplies the desires as promptly as possible. The sireumstances were peculiarly sorrowful—way from home, so little, in charge of an older brother, accompanied by one young friend of the name age, whose unaspided, though canny efforts were powerless to save, his dying struggles witnessed almost within reaching distance by a poor weretch paralyzed by terror, his hands enstatricthed in varia entresty towards half duran ensymbly creatures who had collected from a neighboring field, fainter and fainter his exertions till the treacherous stream closed quietly over him—this, too, in five feet of wave. BROKE JALL—OR Wednedy might of best week, six prisoners effected their escape from the Jail in this place. Their names are—Mac. Hiemilton, colored a waiting frail for nurder, and John Helurg, Co. M. 22d Penna. Caralry: Wm. Van Dyke, Jacob Van Dyke, and Jacob H. Coons, of Co. B, 5th New York Artillery, Wm. Van Dyke, Jacob Van Dyke, and Jacob H. Coons, of Son B, 5th New York Artillery, and William Sissom Co. G, 120th New York Vola,—all arrested by the Provost Marshal as deserters. They had been locked inside of the Jail building in the erening, and when they suppod the Sheriff to be out, they asked for a bucket of water. When the servant girl opened the door to hand in the water, they struck the girl on the arm with a stick, and rushed out of the Jail and made their escape. On Saturdy morning last the negro returned to the Jail voluntarily and gare binnelf up. What his notice was for doing so, can scarcely be conjectured, as he is imprisoned on a charge that will demand his life if he is found guilty. He reports that he left the deserters in Amberson's Valley. Any citizen is entitled to a reward of $3J for the arrest of a deserter, and we doubt not that the eitismes of the Valley can, with a little strategy, gather most of those deserter up. We learn that Capk. Eyster has placed a special guard about the Jail to prevent the escape of deserters and millitary prisoners hereafter.
