

TERMS.—The "VINDICATOR" is published every Friday morning, on Main Street, two doors below Mr. Crawford's Corner, at Two Dollars and Fifty Cents, which may be discharged by the payment of Two Dollars in advance. No subscription will be discontinued until the option of the editor, until all Arrearages are paid.

ADVERTISEMENTS for one line (or less), inserted three times for one dollar, and twenty five cents for each additional advertisement. Longer advertisements inserted in the same proportion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the year.

Professional Cards, not exceeding seven lines, will be inserted for one year for $3.00 six months for $1.00.

Business Cards.

P. W. FLETCHER, 143 Main Street, Staunton, Va., C. R. R. Richmond.

R. W. PIERCE & CO., Commission & Forwarding Merchants,

Corner of Cary and 13th Streets, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

WILL open, at the above named place, on the 1st of July, a large COMMISSION AND FORWARDING HOUSE. Their facilities for doing and shipping products of all kinds, are equal to those of any other house in Richmond City. The commission & public generally, and especially of the State of Virginia, is respectfully solicited.

Reference.

Richmond City—A. Garrett, Duke & Hutchings, Hill, Kent, Paul & Co.; Alex. Holiday; N. B. Hill, Hause—Col. E. Fontaine, Wm. D. Wickham, Charles Morris, Lomax, O'Brien, S. D. Gooch, Jno. Hunter, Gen. C. H. Colman, N. W. Harris.

Alexander—Dr. J. R. Webb, Wm. W. Webb, Rev. J. W. Goss, Judge Wm. J. Roberts, H. A. Augusta, Maj. J. W. Walker, H. L. Alexander, Dr. H. Garman, Wm. J. D. Bell, J. G. Taylor, J. M. McCue, P. N. Powell, R. J. Hops, John Randolph, T. Johnson, F. Hanger, J. D. Hobson, Gen. Wm. H. Harrison, Wm. H. Brown, Sam. B. Bowles, W. W. Wirtz, Jr., W. H. Miller, C. J. D. Hopkins, H. C. Chapman, C. H. Glazebrook, C. H. D. Darnette.

Richmond, June 1, 1860.—H. C. H.

W. MILLER.

113 opened a NEW AND FASHIONABLE

Clothing Store, on North Street, two doors above Bond, Crawford's corner. It is prepared for business, and will be ready to receive customers, as soon as the weather permits. It is better, not to mention the quality of the work offered, because he has a first class Bott and Shoe Store.

Staunton, May 11, 1860.—H. C. H.

J. W. SHEPPARD, JR.

LAW NOTICE.

The undersigned has formed a partnership in the practice of law, in the various Courts in Staunton. This will attend promptly to all business, confident to their exert. Especially valued, paid to the collection of debts in Courts of Justice, and Executive, and in the Court of Appeals.

JAS. B. BRAGGARDNER, JR.

Staunton, Jan. 15, 1860.

R. L. DOYLE

ATTORNEY AT LAW, STAUNTON, VA.

IN PRACTICE IN THE COUNTIES OF

Augusta, Rockbridge, Bath and Highland.

July 25, 1857.

J. B. WATTS,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

BRICK ROW, COURT-HOUSE SQUARE, STAUNTON.

JOHN C. MICHAEL,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

WARM SPRINGS, BATH COUNTY, VA.

W. H. PRACTICED IN THE COURTS OF ALL THE COUNTIES, AND HIGHWAYS.

Staunton, June 1, 1860.—J. B. WATTS.

B. L. BLAIR.

M. B. BLAIR & CO.

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

RICHMOND, VA.

GIVE their individual attention to the sale of

TABACCO, WHEAT, FLOUR, BACON,

etc. All Advances made on Consignments to February 10, 1860. Fin.

J. R. BROWN & CO.

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

RICHMOND, VA.

KEEP constantly on hand a well selected stock of GRISSELS, WINES, LIQUORS, &c.

which they offer low for cash, or on punctual

terms on the credit time.

P. S. Correspondence of Protests, especially sociled January 13, 1860.

CITY HOTELS,

Corner Royal and Cameron Streets,

ALEXANDRIA, VA.

SAMUEL HEELEMAN, Proprietor.

J. Roberts, Capt. J. A. W. Brown, Clerk.

There is above a good Hotel, Persons travelling to and from the South will find it a pleasant place to stop.

Observe always the rules of the hotel.

W. H. TROUT & CO.,

Wholesalers and Retail Druggists

DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS, OILS

ESTATES, FARMERS,

STAUNTON, VA.

A. D. CHANDLER,

UNDERTAKER,

STANFORD, VA.

KELPS, WETTING FLAKES, SALT, SODA,

KOOG, and MURKIN'S DEPOT, at City Prices.

Staunton, July 22, 1860.

D. R. THOMAS A. BERKELEY

HAS sold his office to the General Medical

Hospital Society, opposite the Old National Hotel, Staunton, April 13, 1860.

STAUNTON FOUNDRY. The subsequent founders handed their own existing large stock of STOVES, to Mr. Parlor, Boro, for manufacturing, which they now sell on very reasonable terms.

DR. J. H. PHILIPS, THE only physician

practicing in Staunton, has been removed to the city of

Richmond, Va.

JUST RECEIVED. A very fine

kind of SPECTACLES, plated on gold

and silver.

Price, $1.00.

RECENTLY RECEIVED. A very fine

kind of SPECTACLES, plated on gold

and silver.

Price, $1.00.

MAHON OIL COMPANY, importers of

SKIN DISORDERS SPEEDILY CURED.

Staunton Vindicator.

VOL. XVI.

STAUNTON, VIRGINIA, FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1860.

NO. 30.

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL.

DR. JOHNSTON.

THE founder of the celebrated Institution, the

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL, died yesterday

after the most certain, speedy and only certain remedy in the world for

SECRET DISEASES.

Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, Strictures, Neuralgia, Jaundice, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, and all those peculiar disorders arising from a Certain Secret Habit of Nature, which no man produces. Consider the following cases:

and in the end destroy both

BODY and MIND. Those secret and military practices more fatal to their victims than the song of the Syrens to the mariners of Ulysses,

brightening the waters of life in antiquity,

those of the State of Virginia, is especially collated.

Reference.

Richmond City—A. Garrett, Duke &amp; Hutchings,

Hill, Kent, Paul &amp; Co.; Alex. Holiday; N. B.

Hause—Col. E. Fontaine, Wm. D. Wickham,

Charles Morris, Lomax, O'Brien, S. D. Gooch, Jno. Hunter,

Gen. C. H. Colman, N. W. Harris.

Alexander—Dr. J. R. Webb, Wm. W. Webb,

Rev. J. W. Goss, Judge Wm. J. Roberts,

Augusta—Maj. J. W. Walker, H. L.

Alexander—Dr. H. Garman, Wm. J. D. Bell,

John Randolph, T. Johnson, F. Hanger, J.

Hops, John H. Harrison, Wm. H. Harrison,

D. Hobson, Gen. Wm. H. Harrison, Wm. H. Brown,

Sam. B. Bowles, W. W. Wirtz, Jr., W.

H. C. Chapman, C. J. D. Hopkins.

Alexander—Dr. H. Glazebrook, C. H. Darnette.

Richmond, June 1, 1860.—H. C. H.

The Vindicator.

FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1860.

S. M. YOST, Editor and Proprietor.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

FOR PRESIDENT,

S. A. DOUGLAS,

ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

H. V. JOHNSON,

OF GEORGIA.

Colonel Cushing of Massachusetts

Was the President of the National Convention at Charleston and at Baltimore. In both he favored the seceders; he finally resigned, joined them, and was made

President of their body. A man of great ability. His antecedents are all bad. Listen to him on the 9th of June, 1860 in the House, arguing against the admission of Arkansas into the Union because of slavery

in its limits:

"This provision of the Constitution of Arkansas is an infringement upon the rights of the minority."

I care, not whether you agree to differ with me on the point of law that have been divided us; if you should happen to be right,

and I wrong, it would not prove that you were a better Democrat than I, but that you were a better law-man than I am, so far as that branch of law is concerned. I should not have much pride of opinion on the&lt;/

The Standard.

ST. LOUIS, MO.

FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1860.

S. M. YOST, Editor and Proprietor.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES

FOR PRESIDENT,

S. A. DOUGLAS,

OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

H. V. JOHNSON,

OF GEORGIA.

Vindicators for the Campaign.

In order to give the Vindicators as wide a circulation as possible during the present

Presidential Contest, we offer it from the 1st of August to the 1st of December for city cents in advance. Let clubs be at once formed throughout Augusta, Rockingham,

Pendleton, Highland, Bath, Powhatan,

and adjoining counties.

Mrs. Elizabeth T. Hobbs has been appointed postmistress at West View, Augusta county, vice James C. Hobbs, resigned.

An immense Douglas and Johnson ratification meeting was held at Atlanta, Ga., on the 16th.

The bill of the Messrs. Willard for entreating the Japanese visitors for 23 days

Washington it is said was $24,000.

Joseph Gales, the venerable and world-renowned editor of the National Intelligencer, died Tuesday last in the 75th year of his age.

There is in the "Bear and Bull-Dog"

at the White Sulphur Springs on the 1st of August, between three bears and two bull-dogs.

The citizens of Orange Court-House have formed a Vigilance Committee, the object of which is to suppress illegal traffic with their slaves, and punish the offenders when they are detected.

Col. J. W. Davis and R. F. Dennis, Esq.

of Greenbrier, had a political discussion in Lewisburg on last Monday, the former supporting the claims of Judge Douglas, and the latter those of Mr. Breckinridge.

Hon. B. M. Samuels, of Dubuque, Iowa, has been nominated by the Democrats, for Congress. He is a son of Joel Samuels,

Esq., of Shenandoah, and a gentleman of very high order of talent, as well as a sta-teeth support of Douglas.

The Eclectic Magazine, for July, decisively one of the most useful publications of the day, has been received. It is embellished by two elegant steel engravings, one of the Prince of Wales and the other of Sir

Robert Peel.

The second quarterly meeting for this conference year, will commence in the M.

E. Church at Staunton, to-morrow, the 27th

inst. The Presiding Elder of the District

Rev. Mr. Veitch, will preach on Saturday and Sunday.

It may not be amiss to state that a number of the gentlemen whose names are published as delegates to the Charlottesville Convention, are not identified with the friends of Breckinridge. Some of them are the ardent friends of Douglas, and others

decidedly non-committal as yet.

The drought has been so excessive for four or five weeks past, that all kinds of vegetation is nearly burnt up. We had several sprinkling rains during last week,

We have never known a more distressing continuation of dry and warm weather.

Those who are desirous of procuring, each day, a daily paper either from Richmond,

Hartford, or New York, can do so in the wings of the mail, by calling at Blakes'

Boot and Shoe Store, opposite the Post Office. Periodicals and magazines, of all kinds, are also constantly kept on hand.

We noticed last week that Rankin was taking some beautiful photographs, but forgot to state that he is now turning out some of the handsomest paintings we have ever seen. We cannot exactly describe the process, and hence we advise all who have a curiosity about the matter to call at R.

Rankin's gallery.

The monthly Court for Augusta county, has been in session for several days during the present week. The only case of interest before that body, was that of E. Hunter, charged with stealing a horse from

Jno. Chapman, Esq. He was sent over for trial at the next sitting of the Circuit Court.

H. H. Peck, Esq., gave his bond, as Sheriff at this term of the Court, and the newly elected Magistrates were sworn in.

The Secession papers claim President

Pierce's letter to B. F. Butler an example of the assassination of that distinguished gentleman in their ranks. We consider something like Yancey's love of the Union to be neither for them nor against them.

We stated several weeks since that he was for Douglas. We gathered the information from the "Democratic Standard," a Brock-

ing paper, published at Concord, New Hampshire, Mr. Pierce's own town.

The Spectator is mistaken in classing Col.

Woodson of Missouri, a democratic member of Congress. He was not elected, as such. He served two terms. The first time

he was returned, it was as an out-and-out

know nothing. The second election was

decided without reference to party politics.

The Secession question being the issue.

We supported the Secession policy of the

Administration; and thus far and no farther

was he identified with the Democratic party.

His support of Bell and Everett is perfectly natural, and what might have been

so, if he had not been a member of the Democratic party.

The Spectator is mistaken in classing Col.

Woodson of Missouri, a democratic member of Congress. He was not elected, as

such. He served two terms. The first time

he was returned, it was as an out-and-out

know nothing. The second election was

decided without reference to party politics.

The Secession question being the issue.

We supported the Secession policy of the

Administration; and thus far and no farther

was he identified with the Democratic party.

His support of Bell and Everett is perfectly natural, and what might have been

so, if he had not been a member of the Democratic party.

The Spectator is mistaken in classing Col.

Woodson of Missouri, a democratic member of Congress. He was not elected, as

such. He served two terms. The first time

he was returned, it was as an out-and-out

know nothing. The second election was

decided without reference to party politics.

The Secession question being the issue.

We supported the Secession policy of the

Administration; and thus far and no farther

was he identified with the Democratic party.

His support of Bell and Everett is perfectly natural, and what might have been

so, if he had not been a member of the Democratic party.

The Spectator is mistaken in classing Col.

Woodson of Missouri, a democratic member of Congress. He was not elected, as

such. He served two terms. The first time

he was returned, it was as an out-and-out

know nothing. The second election was

decided without reference to party politics.

The Secession question being the issue.

We supported the Secession policy of the

Administration; and thus far and no farther

was he identified with the Democratic party.

His support of Bell and Everett is perfectly natural, and what might have been

so, if he had not been a member of the Democratic party.

The Spectator is mistaken in classing Col.

Woodson of Missouri, a democratic member of Congress. He was not elected, as

such. He served two terms. The first time

he was returned, it was as an out-and-out

know nothing. The second election was

decided without reference to party politics.

The Secession question being the issue.

We supported the Secession policy of the

Administration; and thus far and no farther

was he identified with the Democratic party.

His support of Bell and Everett is perfectly natural, and what might have been

so, if he had not been a member of the Democratic party.

The Spectator is mistaken in classing Col.

Woodson of Missouri, a democratic member of Congress. He was not elected, as

such. He served two terms. The first time

he was returned, it was as an out-and-out

know nothing. The second election was

decided without reference to party politics.

The Secession question being the issue.

We supported the Secession policy of the

Administration; and thus far and no farther

was he identified with the Democratic party.

His support of Bell and Everett is perfectly natural, and what might have been

so, if he had not been a member of the Democratic party.

