Recognition of Judge Douglas!

Two Hours to Be Awarded!

An informal meeting of the Douglas and Johnson club was held at the Vindicator office on Thursday evening. The chairman stated that authentic information had been received that Judge Douglas, our distinguished friend, had in great national contest, exhibited Statesmen on the 1st inst., and it was due both to his position and his great services to the country that some steps more than usual should be taken for his reception.

Whereas it was moved that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to proceed in the case on Saturday morning, meet Judge Douglas at Concordia, and escort him to the city.

The chair appointed the following gentlemen:

B. F. POINTS, Pres.

Aug. 31, 1860.

Speaking To-day.

Mr. Governor Smith, of Virginia, arrived in the 2 o'clock train yesterday, and will, we hear, address the people at the Court House at 2 o'clock. Of course we cannot anticipate the tenor of Gov. Smith's remarks, but if they are in the same spirit of those delivered here some weeks ago, so Democratic we object to them.

Mrs. Cora Mowatt Ritchie called for B. F. Points, Esq., purchased at public sale on Tuesday last, the large frame dwelling on Augusta street, formerly occupied by N. C. Kinney, died, for $4,775.

Hon. Kenneth Baynor desires that he be invited to support Breckinridge. Nothing was ever further from his head. This is another gun spiked.

Our friend, Hon. Dr. Doway, will please accept our thanks for a fine lot of nice tobacco and snuff. They were sent to us during the sitting of the Convention, doubtless to help feed the Douglas Democracy.

In the first, second, third and fourth Conventions of the District of Pennsylvania the Democracy have unanimously nominated Douglas and Johnson for Congress. Pennsylvania will be a vote for Douglas and Johnson.

We are indebted to our accompanying young friends, the News Agents at Blakes' Book Store, on the Railroad, for a pamphlet copy of the beautiful and able address of the Hon. D. W. Vose, delivered before the Literary Society of the University of Virginia in July last.

O. Davis, editor of the Wytheville Telegraph, shot and killed on the 26th inst., W. H. Harman, Underler of the Farmer's Bank of Wytheville. The wound was inflicted with a pistol and proved fatal in a short time. The family grew out of newspaper publications.

We beg you, we bow very low—and take the audience at Paris to the "new name of the Wytheville Register," both on behalf of the city of the hills.

Wytheville never gave less, nor did its neighbors less—McKinley, and others. The Wytheville Register is an "institution" among the two institutions, and our friends, the Wytheville Register, and the Wytheville Register, his head is black.

We bid you adieu, the friends of the Wytheville Register, who are the best of the country, and the best of the city of the hills.

We are glad to learn from the Washington papers that our friend B. F. Martin, Esq., is no more. He died at his residence in Harrisonburg on Friday last, after an

Judge Douglass and Johnson, will be seen by the following extracts copied on Wednesday last, that the Hon. S. A. Douglass, the candidate of the National Democratic party for the Presidency—the great Statesman and Patriot, who knows no better, but McKinley deserved to every power of our country, will be in Resolutions of the Virginia Democratic Party.

The following are the resolutions reported by Col. J. B. Dorman, chairman of the Committee of Freedmen appointed by that party to the Democratic Convention recently held in Richmond, and which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention of Virginia, in view of the circumstances, and their salutary purpose to manifest the principles, aims and organization of the National Democratic party, and to give a resolute and unwavering support to its nominees, is in accordance with the best interest of the National Constitution.

Resolved, That we heartily approve and endorse the platform of principles adopted by the adjourned National Convention at Baltimore in July, 1860.

Resolved, That the course of the President of the United States in supporting National Democrats for no other offense than that of supporting the regular nominees of the party, on the platform which he himself was elected, and in offering epithets to those who desert the National organization and through his officials, descendants and descendants, giving all aid and comfort to the Black Republican members of the Southern people, will, in the opinion of the Southern people of Virginia, make him justly responsible for the unhappy consequences growing out of the election of Abraham Lincoln, and that it is duty both the people and the Union.

Resolved, That Stephen A. Douglas and Herschel V. Johnson, regular nominees of the National Democracy, according to the time honored modes of the party and are as much entitled to the frank support of all men who desire to sustain the National organization of the party and thereby defeat the election of a Black Republican to the Presidency.

Resolved, That independent of all be given the fact that Stephen A. Douglas is the regular nominee of our party for the Presidency, an faithful, standid and enlightened service to the Democracy and to the country; his superior ability as a statesman; his long and varied experience in public affairs; his unshaking courage and determination in upholding the constitutional rights of the South in the struggle of abolitionists; his firm and unfaltering support of matters of practical legislation which have been intrusted to our especial benefit, as in the admission of Texas; his enlarged and catholic spirit of humanity, regarding with just and impartial eye the rights and interests of every section of the confederacy; and his devotion to the union of the States, as indispensable to the peace, prosperity and welfare of the confederacy; command him in an especial manner to the suffrages of the people to his highest office in their gift.

Resolved, That in Herschel V. Johnson we recognize a statesman of tried capacity, a true son of the South, a loyal friend to the Union, and a worthy associate of our distinguished candidate for President on our national ticket.

Resolved, That the delegates from Virginia who remained in the National Convention at Baltimore and maintained the established usages and principles of our party, are entitled to the thanks of the National Democracy, and in their name we give them the plaudits of "well done, good and faithful servants."
