

FRIDAY, OCT. 22, 1860.
F. M. YATES, Editor and Proprietor
NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES
FOR PRESIDENT,
S. A. DOUGLAS,
OF ILLINOIS.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
H. V. JOHNSON,
OF GEORGIA.

DEMOCRATIC ELECTORAL TICKET.
1st Dist.—GEORGE BROWN, Norfolk City.
2d Dist.—J. H. HOPKINS, Petersburg.
3d Dist.—J. B. STOVALL, Halifax.
4th Dist.—JAMES GARLAND, Lynchburg.
5th Dist.—BENJ. RANDOLPH, Abingdon.
6th Dist.—W. H. WATTS, Roanoke.
7th Dist.—J. ALBRIGHT, Abingdon.
8th Dist.—G. E. BOWE, Spotsylvania.
9th Dist.—EDW. W. BRANT, Abingdon.
10th Dist.—ISAAC H. ROBINSON, Berkeley.
11th Dist.—J. H. HODGES, Roanoke.
12th Dist.—EDW. C. HOPKINS, Roanoke.
13th Dist.—EDW. C. HOPKINS, Washington.
14th Dist.—C. J. STUART, Dabrellings.
15th Dist.—WM. G. BROWN, Preston.

GRAND RALLY OF THE NATIONAL DEMOCRACY, AT STAUNTON, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24th, '60.

The Democracy of Augusta and adjoining counties are urgently and earnestly requested to attend a GRAND RALLY AND MASS MEETING to come off at Staunton on the 24th inst. It is confidently expected that Hon. J. E. Pugh, of Ohio; D. W. Voorhees, of Indiana; Albert Rust, of Arkansas; Timothy Rice, H. L. Hopkins, G. W. Hopkins, James Garland, A. M. Barber, G. W. Brent, of Virginia, and other distinguished speakers will be in attendance and deliver addresses. Let the true and steadfast Democracy come out in full. Let us have a strong pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether, and Virginia will be safe.

Mr. James B. Dorman, of Rockbridge, Assistant Editor for this District, will address the citizens of Staunton and vicinity to-night in behalf of Douglas and Johnson.

We earnestly request as many of our country friends as can come in, to do so. Mr. Dorman is a captivating and eloquent speaker.

The ladies are respectfully invited to attend.

W. P. Gordon, Esq., of Albemarle, and Dr. S. H. McGehee, of Rockbridge, will address the Douglas Club to-morrow (Saturday) night. Both of these gentlemen are fine speakers. Let us have a large turn-out.

The ladies are invited to be present.

We call attention to the case of Messrs. Blair & Harvie, Richmond, dealers in Hay and all kinds of country produce.

The Conservatives and Reformers have elected Mr. Brown, Mayor of Baltimore by over 8,000 majority. This puts an end to the rule of Plug-Ugliness in Baltimore.

R. H. Collier, Esq., has made some telling speeches in Shenandoah. He met Col. Massie's Woodstock on Monday last, and they had a four hours' discussion. The signs are encouraging. Roll on the ball.

See new advertisements, and especially Mrs. Kelley's card to the ladies.

Don't forget that Wm. Miller has a splendid appointment of Fall and Winter Fests and Shoes, for men, ladies and children. Give him a call.

H. H. Robertson, Esq., of Alleghany, addressed the Bell and Everett Club Wednesday night, in speech of two hours in length. We did not hear it, but those who did speak of it as a success and creditable effort.

Gen. W. H. Harman spoke in Charlottesville last night. He will address the Douglas Club of Richmond on Monday night and the Democracy of Petersburg on Tuesday night.

The Virginian says of the proposition of Jacob Baylor, Esq., which was endorsed by three-fourths of that party in this county, that it was "A PROPOSITION THAT UNIFIED ALL PARTIES, either of Squatter Sovereignty, as maintained by Douglas, or of Popular Sovereignty, as held by the Democratic party."

This is decidedly cool. In the first place, the left-handed compliment it bestows upon Esquire Baylor, T. J. Michie, W. A. Avery, W. H. Watts, A. B. Cochran, and other gentlemen who supported Mr. Baylor's proposition, is gloriously refreshing. We are much mistaken, however, if the Enquirer has not made a bad investment in that allusion. But the rarest and most original idea we have seen advanced during the canvass, is the assumption that the Breckinridge party is for "Popular Sovereignty," and Douglas for "Squatter Sovereignty." Now, the Enquirer knew full well that Judge Douglas and almost every body else is opposed to "Squatter Sovereignty" in its strict meaning, and as contradistinguished from "Popular Sovereignty." The claim for Breckinridge that he is for "Popular Sovereignty" is new and fresh. Have his friends abandoned their "intervention" plank, and do they seek now to slip away upon the "Popular Sovereignty" platform of the National Democracy, as represented by Douglas and Johnson?

The Virginian says of the proposition of Jacob Baylor, Esq., which was endorsed by three-fourths of that party in this county, that it was "A PROPOSITION THAT UNIFIED ALL PARTIES, either of Squatter Sovereignty, as maintained by Douglas, or of Popular Sovereignty, as held by the Democratic party."

This is decidedly cool. In the first place, the left-handed compliment it bestows upon Esquire Baylor, T. J. Michie, W. A. Avery, W. H. Watts, A. B. Cochran, and other gentlemen who supported Mr. Baylor's proposition, is gloriously refreshing. We are much mistaken, however, if the Enquirer has not made a bad investment in that allusion. But the rarest and most original idea we have seen advanced during the canvass, is the assumption that the Breckinridge party is for "Popular Sovereignty," and Douglas for "Squatter Sovereignty."

Now, the Enquirer knew full well that Judge Douglas and almost every body else is opposed to "Squatter Sovereignty" in its strict meaning, and as contradistinguished from "Popular Sovereignty." The claim for Breckinridge that he is for "Popular Sovereignty" is new and fresh. Have his friends abandoned their "intervention" plank, and do they seek now to slip away upon the "Popular Sovereignty" platform of the National Democracy, as represented by Douglas and Johnson?

It will be seen by the advertisement that our comrade, Jas. J. Mitchell, Esq., will sell on the 20th inst., that magnificent estate, "The Shady Dell," in Chesterfield, very extensive, well situated, and commanding a fine view of the Valley of Virginia, both for the variety of property offered and the value of it. Mr. Mitchell has displayed the good taste, too, of securing the services of our excellent Auctioneers, Messrs. Stark & Cash, who are unsurpassed in their business, in Virginia.

We, a few days since, stepped into the Cabinet ware-room of W. P. Johnson, on Gospel Hill, and were shown the neatest and most appropriate burial cases we have ever seen. It is a new style, and is called the "Maitland-Petrie Burial Case"—very light, but having all the preservative advantages of the metallic case. It is finished in beautiful style, and is fully covered by a lining, and the cost is no greater than the ordinary metallic case.

Mr. Johnson has also on hand a hand-some collection of excellent furniture, and other articles, and will be pleased to receive orders for any article required to be made to order, and to give notice, as well as either two or three weeks.

See above.

MISCELLANEOUS.

GOLD! GOLD! GOLD!
NO BLANKS!
GRAND ALL-PRIZE SCHEME.

October, 1860.
THE STATE LOTTERY
MCKINNEY & CO., MANAGERS.
Authorized by Special Act of the Legislature.

EVERY TICKET A PRIZE!
Capital Prize $60,000.

TICKETS ONLY $10.

Halves, Quarters and Eighths in proportion.

To be drawn each Saturday at 1 P.M.

In the city of SAVANNAH, GEORGIA.

Class 02, to be Drawn Oct. 6, 1860.

Class 03, to be Drawn Oct. 13, 1860.

Class 04, to be Drawn Oct. 20, 1860.

Class 05, to be Drawn Oct. 27, 1860.

MAGNIFICENT SCHEME.

HAIR RESTORER.

HAIR RESTORER.