

THE VINDICATOR

CHARLESTON, S. C.

FRIDAY, JAN. 4, 1861.

G. M. TOWN, Editor and Proprietor

Embossed Notice.

We take up the place we had intended in the Vindicator Office, to come forward in an active and energetic opposition to the war we subscribe.

Those who subscribe, know that independence is to us, as our time demanded the 1st of January, 1860. They can result through the all at risk. We want prompt, progressive, and we will that be spelt to protect our business with more care to ourselves and consequently make the paper more attractive to the reader. Those independents who are led in mind that such work should be made. We do not want, nor do we hope to have, if we can help it, a long list of accounts lying over from year to year without settlement.

They are the best motto, and then every one will be able to look the printer full in the face, without feeling ashamed.

We are indebted to the Hon. H. A. Pryor for interesting documents.

Col. J. M. McCusker will please accept our thanks for his favor, Col. G. C.

There are 100 students at the Richmond Medical College. It was never in a more sobering condition.

The people of Madison have subscribed $700 towards furnishing the county with fire arms.

In addition to the sums purchased for the defense of Virginia, twenty-three hundred pounds gun have been procured.

Three salutes of thirty-three guns each were fired at Philadelphia on the 2d, in honor of Major Anderson, commander of Fort Sumter.

The Black divorce case in Illinois has been finally settled by Mr. B. taking possession of one of the daughters and Mr. B.

of the other.

The Senate Committee of Thirteen on the condition of the country, and the House Committee of Thirty-three have been able to report a plan of adjustment.

It is understood that Rich. McRae, of Md., has been nominated by the President as consul to Liverpool; the place now held by Beverly Tucker, of Va.

Georgia has gone for immediate secession.

The State League, Mrs. Vale, Jackson and Jackson, and the United States Arsenal at Savannah;

Ships were sold by Philadelphia, New York, New Orleans, Boston, and New

Orleans during the year 1860, being 75,842 more than were sold in 1859.

It is said that A. Stephens, of Georgia, and Robert E. Scott, of Virginia, have been offered positions in Lincoln's Cabinet.

They were sold by Philadelphia, New

York, New Orleans, Boston, and New

Orleans during the year 1860, being 75,842 more than were sold in 1859.

The second Wednesday in February is the day fixed by law for counting the electoral vote in Congress, and declaring the election of President and Vice President of the United States.

In Alabama, the Yancey party has been defeated in the election of delegates to the State Convention. A majority of co-operationists have been elected over the straight Confederates.

Military Companies are being rapidly formed in the Northern States, for the purpose of enforcing the law, but what laws?

is not stated. Not the fugitive Slave law, we suppose.

A few negro women were hired publicly in this place New Year's day, by Col.

Brown, of the 10th Mass. Regt., and another one large increase over last year's price. Women servants are in great demand, while men are less sought after.

It is reported in the papers that a plot has been discovered which had for its object the killing of the Arsenal at St. Louis, and Jas.

Terson Barracks, by the Abolitionists, for the benefit of the Kansas robbers under Mon-gomery. It was intended to make a raid smashing after the fashion of old John Brown at Harper's Ferry.

Daniel Whistler has opened a Shop one door south of Roane and Alby's Streets, under Virginia Hotel, where he prepared to manufacture what he desires his services in his line of business. Whistler is a good man, a steady young man, and deserves well credit. Give him a call those who want shoring or their hair dressed.

Mr. Jenkins of La., addressed his Senate of the United States on Monday last.

At the close of his remarks, he stated the Senate of the United States would never meet again, unless it was convened in Washington.

The remarks was received with applause and hisses. The galleries were literally jammed with spectators.

Gen. Douglas spoke yesterday.

Mr. Geo. A. Armstrong, for a number of years past the Jailer of Angola pris-onary, vacated the jail on the 1st inst. predictory to his company at Fort Sumter.

He is also a force of the eight thousand rebels through Free State territories. The South

Confederacy has sent to the U.

S. S. C. a list of the names of the Confederate soldiers at the port of Charleston, the port of entry. The list includes the names of many of the Confederate soldiers.

Gov. Curtis of Pa. (Republican) is now the strongest advocate of his party in the Legislature, and leads it in its efforts to sustain the Confederate cause.

The President refused to acknowledge the South Carolina Commissioners in their official capacity. He addressed to look up to South Carolina is no other attitude

than a State of the Union, subject to all the laws of the Federal Government.

He says he cannot and will not withdraw the Federal troops from Fort

Sumter, and declares that all the public sentiment of the country is in favor of the South Carolina Commissioners.

Gov. Curtis of Pa. (Republican) is

now the strongest advocate of his

party in the Legislature, and leads it

in its efforts to sustain the

Confederate cause.

The President refused to acknowledge

the South Carolina Commissioners in their

official capacity. He addressed to look up

to South Carolina is no other attitude

than a State of the Union, subject to all

the laws of the Federal Government.

He says he cannot and will not

withdraw the Federal troops from Fort

Sumter, and declares that all the public

sentiment of the country is in favor of

the South Carolina Commissioners.

Gov. Curtis of Pa. (Republican) is

now the strongest advocate of his

party in the Legislature, and leads it

in its efforts to sustain the

Confederate cause.

The President refused to acknowledge

the South Carolina Commissioners in their

official capacity. He addressed to look up

to South Carolina is no other attitude

than a State of the Union, subject to all

the laws of the Federal Government.

He says he cannot and will not

withdraw the Federal troops from Fort

Sumter, and declares that all the public

sentiment of the country is in favor of

the South Carolina Commissioners.

Gov. Curtis of Pa. (Republican) is

now the strongest advocate of his

party in the Legislature, and leads it

in its efforts to sustain the

Confederate cause.

The President refused to acknowledge

the South Carolina Commissioners in their

official capacity. He addressed to look up

to South Carolina is no other attitude

than a State of the Union, subject to all

the laws of the Federal Government.

He says he cannot and will not

withdraw the Federal troops from Fort

Sumter, and declares that all the public

sentiment of the country is in favor of

the South Carolina Commissioners.

Gov. Curtis of Pa. (Republican) is

now the strongest advocate of his

party in the Legislature, and leads it

in its efforts to sustain the

Confederate cause.

The President refused to acknowledge

the South Carolina Commissioners in their

official capacity. He addressed to look up

to South Carolina is no other attitude

than a State of the Union, subject to all

the laws of the Federal Government.

He says he cannot and will not

withdraw the Federal troops from Fort

Sumter, and declares that all the public

sentiment of the country is in favor of

the South Carolina Commissioners.

Gov. Curtis of Pa. (Republican) is

now the strongest advocate of his

party in the Legislature, and leads it

in its efforts to sustain the

Confederate cause.

The President refused to acknowledge

the South Carolina Commissioners in their

official capacity. He addressed to look up

to South Carolina is no other attitude

than a State of the Union, subject to all

the laws of the Federal Government.

He says he cannot and will not

withdraw the Federal troops from Fort

Sumter, and declares that all the public

sentiment of the country is in favor of

the South Carolina Commissioners.

Gov. Curtis of Pa. (Republican) is

now the strongest advocate of his

party in the Legislature, and leads it

in its efforts to sustain the

Confederate cause.

The President refused to acknowledge

the South Carolina Commissioners in their

official capacity. He addressed to look up

to South Carolina is no other attitude

than a State of the Union, subject to all

the laws of the Federal Government.

He says he cannot and will not

withdraw the Federal troops from Fort

Sumter, and declares that all the public

sentiment of the country is in favor of

the South Carolina Commissioners.

Gov. Curtis of Pa. (Republican) is

now the strongest advocate of his

party in the Legislature, and leads it

in its efforts to sustain the

Confederate cause.

The President refused to acknowledge

the South Carolina Commissioners in their

official capacity. He addressed to look up

to South Carolina is no other attitude

than a State of the Union, subject to all

the laws of the Federal Government.

He says he cannot and will not

withdraw the Federal troops from Fort

Sumter, and declares that all the public

sentiment of the country is in favor of

the South Carolina Commissioners.

Gov. Curtis of Pa. (Republican) is

now the strongest advocate of his

party in the Legislature, and leads it

in its efforts to sustain the

Confederate cause.

The President refused to acknowledge

the South Carolina Commissioners in their

official capacity. He addressed to look up

to South Carolina is no other attitude

than a State of the Union, subject to all

the laws of the Federal Government.

He says he cannot and will not

withdraw the Federal troops from Fort

Sumter, and declares that all the public

sentiment of the country is in favor of

the South Carolina Commissioners.

Gov. Curtis of Pa. (Republican) is

now the strongest advocate of his

party in the Legislature, and leads it

in its efforts to sustain the

Confederate cause.

The President refused to acknowledge

the South Carolina Commissioners in their

official capacity. He addressed to look up

to South Carolina is no other attitude

than a State of the Union, subject to all

<div data-b

