THE CARRIER'S CHRISTMAS CAROL

TO THE PATRONS OF THE
"STAUNTON VINDICATOR"
December 25th 1880.

Good morrow, Patrons! I tell you,
I've done as you my humble bow,
What's out's afeelin' I hear you say:
Ob! something sure as I can see:
The Carols! well, and what of that!
A good deal; just hold my hat!
While I, in humble, simple verse,
My Christmas story say to you,
A year ago, I was a Jew,
As now I stand, 'tho' good here:
And you and I were full of joy,
While we enjoyed our Christmas here:
Hold as I wish to be right:
I did mean that we were tight,
No! I'd rather suffer, die,
Than hint such things of you or I:
I seeked not a Christmas Jew,
We laughed and played on days of yore,
And looked for pleasure yet in store.

With honest, abate, and draw do you,
And gayer toons, and merriments,
My rows checks and flowing curls
My grins; but I love the girls!
I'd not you marry them if you say:
THU shall you some other day,
I've got a reason, good one, too:
But what it is, I don't make you,
But I must stop my wauling pen,
And by your leave, I'll cease my strain,
The time are hard, I grieve they are,
And dear with our anniversary here,
Hold on, my friend, if you would know
The cause, I'll in a moment show.

There's a money plenty in the land,
Though I, I know now, have none on hand,
What's a matter, I should like to know,
Though gold, like flesh, should daily flow:
If you will neither give nor lend,
I can't of course, have cash to spend,
But pardon me, I would be true,
You've got to settle with the Devil,
And this you'll settle up to-day,
You'll soon be taught the Devil to pay,
And this you'll pay, my patron dear,
For weeks and months I've toiled for you,
And only claim my humble due,

Through rains and snow, mild wind and storm,
In winter cold and summer meeting,
I've trudged and trudged the whole year over,
To bring the latest news to you,
I've been most faithful, you'll agree,
I'll tell you of a fashion new,
That's the fashion of the good old times,
God bless these late of days!
I've no objections, friends, have you?
You'll be sure to have some good friends,
My friend, in your life stand,
Whom you may wish you all the way,
And please you wish you any day,
When life's sweet ties have all been riven,
May you enjoy a home in Heaven,
But don't forget my friends, oh! please,
That Peter keeps the heavenly train,
If you don't know me to sell out,
By Jove, from Heaven I'll lock you out!

Wish ruined souls you'll go away,
With fine indeed, the better to see,
PETER INDEPENDENCE KURTZ,
Idea them, though they look so neat,
When walking up and down the street;

For weeks and months I've toiled for you,
And only claim my humble due,
I'll tell you of a fashion new,
That's the fashion of the good old times,
God bless these late of days!
I've no objections, friends, have you?
