

Removal of office to the new building... We are prepared to do the printing...

Apprentice wanted... A young man, of good character, to learn the printing business...

WAR NEWS... The news from the front... We have very little reliable intelligence...

Following official dispatch from Gen. Lee to the War Department...

October 20, 1863... General S. Cooper, A. and General...

General S. Cooper, A. and General... The center of Gen. Bragg, from which we have received nothing of interest...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... We were last night from Col. Jackson's camp that he has got on well...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... The direction of Unionville to attract the attention of and draw out the forces of Gen. Averill...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... We have heard it said that there is great difficulty in getting supplies from the farmers who have a quantity of provisions...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... We would rather hear their grain and money... This seems unjust to the citizens of a county which has taken among the first...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... In the late fight on Bladwell we believe that Battery, from treacherous conduct, lost twenty killed and seven wounded...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... On Monday evening last when the young General temporarily in charge of the jail in this place, went into one of the cells...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... NEWS FROM THE MARKET... The market for cotton is very quiet...

Removal of office to the new building... We are prepared to do the printing...

Apprentice wanted... A young man, of good character, to learn the printing business...

WAR NEWS... The news from the front... We have very little reliable intelligence...

Following official dispatch from Gen. Lee to the War Department...

October 20, 1863... General S. Cooper, A. and General...

General S. Cooper, A. and General... The center of Gen. Bragg, from which we have received nothing of interest...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... We were last night from Col. Jackson's camp that he has got on well...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... The direction of Unionville to attract the attention of and draw out the forces of Gen. Averill...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... We have heard it said that there is great difficulty in getting supplies from the farmers who have a quantity of provisions...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... We would rather hear their grain and money... This seems unjust to the citizens of a county which has taken among the first...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... In the late fight on Bladwell we believe that Battery, from treacherous conduct, lost twenty killed and seven wounded...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... On Monday evening last when the young General temporarily in charge of the jail in this place, went into one of the cells...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... NEWS FROM THE MARKET... The market for cotton is very quiet...

Removal of office to the new building... We are prepared to do the printing...

Apprentice wanted... A young man, of good character, to learn the printing business...

WAR NEWS... The news from the front... We have very little reliable intelligence...

Following official dispatch from Gen. Lee to the War Department...

October 20, 1863... General S. Cooper, A. and General...

General S. Cooper, A. and General... The center of Gen. Bragg, from which we have received nothing of interest...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... We were last night from Col. Jackson's camp that he has got on well...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... The direction of Unionville to attract the attention of and draw out the forces of Gen. Averill...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... We have heard it said that there is great difficulty in getting supplies from the farmers who have a quantity of provisions...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... We would rather hear their grain and money... This seems unjust to the citizens of a county which has taken among the first...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... In the late fight on Bladwell we believe that Battery, from treacherous conduct, lost twenty killed and seven wounded...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... On Monday evening last when the young General temporarily in charge of the jail in this place, went into one of the cells...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... NEWS FROM THE MARKET... The market for cotton is very quiet...

Removal of office to the new building... We are prepared to do the printing...

Apprentice wanted... A young man, of good character, to learn the printing business...

WAR NEWS... The news from the front... We have very little reliable intelligence...

Following official dispatch from Gen. Lee to the War Department...

October 20, 1863... General S. Cooper, A. and General...

General S. Cooper, A. and General... The center of Gen. Bragg, from which we have received nothing of interest...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... We were last night from Col. Jackson's camp that he has got on well...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... The direction of Unionville to attract the attention of and draw out the forces of Gen. Averill...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... We have heard it said that there is great difficulty in getting supplies from the farmers who have a quantity of provisions...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... We would rather hear their grain and money... This seems unjust to the citizens of a county which has taken among the first...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... In the late fight on Bladwell we believe that Battery, from treacherous conduct, lost twenty killed and seven wounded...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... On Monday evening last when the young General temporarily in charge of the jail in this place, went into one of the cells...

Gen. Wm. L. Jackson... NEWS FROM THE MARKET... The market for cotton is very quiet...