

Staunton Spectator.

VOL. XXXV.

STAUNTON, VIRGINIA, TUESDAY, JULY 13, 1858.

NO. XXL

Staunton Spectator.

JOS. A. WADDELL, Proprietor.
J. WADDELL, Jr., Proprietor.
RICHARD HAUZY.

TERMS.

The "SPECTATOR" is published once a week at Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, which may be discharged by the payment of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year, for which payment the subscriber has the option of the Editor, until all arrangements are made.

ADVERTISEMENTS of less than one-half page, inserted three times a month, will be charged at the rate of $1.00 per insertion.

A liberal discount made to those who advertise by the page.

Professional Cards, not exceeding seven lines, will be inserted for one year at $5.00—6 months for $3.00.

One square, (ten lines). $1.00

Two squares, (ten lines). 1.50

Three squares, (ten lines). 2.00

Four squares, (ten lines). 2.50

Five squares, (ten lines). 3.00

Six squares, (ten lines). 3.50

Seven squares, (ten lines). 4.00

Eight squares, (ten lines). 4.50

Nine squares, (ten lines). 5.00

Ten squares, (ten lines). 5.50

Eleven squares, (ten lines). 6.00

Twelve squares, (ten lines). 6.50

Thirteen squares, (ten lines). 7.00

Fourteen squares, (ten lines). 7.50

Fifteen squares, (ten lines). 8.00

Sixteen squares, (ten lines). 8.50

Seventeen squares, (ten lines). 9.00

Eighteen squares, (ten lines). 9.50

Nineteen squares, (ten lines). 10.00

Twenty squares, (ten lines). 10.50

Twenty-one squares, (ten lines). 11.00

Twenty-two squares, (ten lines). 11.50

Twenty-three squares, (ten lines). 12.00

Twenty-four squares, (ten lines). 12.50

Twenty-five squares, (ten lines). 13.00

Twenty-six squares, (ten lines). 13.50

Twenty-seven squares, (ten lines). 14.00

Twenty-eight squares, (ten lines). 14.50

Twenty-nine squares, (ten lines). 15.00

Thirty squares, (ten lines). 15.50

Thirty-one squares, (ten lines). 16.00

Thirty-two squares, (ten lines). 16.50

Thirty-three squares, (ten lines). 17.00

Thirty-four squares, (ten lines). 17.50

Thirty-five squares, (ten lines). 18.00

Thirty-six squares, (ten lines). 18.50

Thirty-seven squares, (ten lines). 19.00

Thirty-eight squares, (ten lines). 19.50

Thirty-nine squares, (ten lines). 20.00

Forty squares, (ten lines). 20.50

Forty-one squares, (ten lines). 21.00

Forty-two squares, (ten lines). 21.50

Forty-three squares, (ten lines). 22.00

Forty-four squares, (ten lines). 22.50

Forty-five squares, (ten lines). 23.00

Forty-six squares, (ten lines). 23.50

Forty-seven squares, (ten lines). 24.00

Forty-eight squares, (ten lines). 24.50

Forty-nine squares, (ten lines). 25.00

Forty squares, (ten lines). 25.50

Forty-one squares, (ten lines). 26.00

Forty-two squares, (ten lines). 26.50

Forty-three squares, (ten lines). 27.00

Forty-four squares, (ten lines). 27.50

Forty-five squares, (ten lines). 28.00

Forty-six squares, (ten lines). 28.50

Forty-seven squares, (ten lines). 29.00

Forty-eight squares, (ten lines). 29.50

Forty-nine squares, (ten lines). 30.00

Forty squares, (ten lines). 30.50

Forty-one squares, (ten lines). 31.00

Forty-two squares, (ten lines). 31.50

Forty-three squares, (ten lines). 32.00

Forty-four squares, (ten lines). 32.50

Forty-five squares, (ten lines). 33.00

Forty-six squares, (ten lines). 33.50

Forty-seven squares, (ten lines). 34.00

Forty-eight squares, (ten lines). 34.50

Forty-nine squares, (ten lines). 35.00

Forty squares, (ten lines). 35.50

Forty-one squares, (ten lines). 36.00

Forty-two squares, (ten lines). 36.50

Forty-three squares, (ten lines). 37.00

Forty-four squares, (ten lines). 37.50

Forty-five squares, (ten lines). 38.00

Forty-six squares, (ten lines). 38.50

Forty-seven squares, (ten lines). 39.00

Forty-eight squares, (ten lines). 39.50

Forty-nine squares, (ten lines). 40.00

Forty squares, (ten lines). 40.50

Forty-one squares, (ten lines). 41.00

Forty-two squares, (ten lines). 41.50

Forty-three squares, (ten lines). 42.00

Forty-four squares, (ten lines). 42.50

Forty-five squares, (ten lines). 43.00

Forty-six squares, (ten lines). 43.50

Forty-seven squares, (ten lines). 44.00

Forty-eight squares, (ten lines). 44.50

Forty-nine squares, (ten lines). 45.00

Forty squares, (ten lines). 45.50

Forty-one squares, (ten lines). 46.00

Forty-two squares, (ten lines). 46.50

Forty-three squares, (ten lines). 47.00

Forty-four squares, (ten lines). 47.50

Forty-five squares, (ten lines). 48.00

Forty-six squares, (ten lines). 48.50

Forty-seven squares, (ten lines). 49.00

Forty-eight squares, (ten lines). 49.50

Forty-nine squares, (ten lines). 50.00

Forty squares, (ten lines). 50.50

Forty-one squares, (ten lines). 51.00

Forty-two squares, (ten lines). 51.50

Forty-three squares, (ten lines). 52.00

Forty-four squares, (ten lines). 52.50

Forty-five squares, (ten lines). 53.00

Forty-six squares, (ten lines). 53.50

Forty-seven squares, (ten lines). 54.00

Forty-eight squares, (ten lines). 54.50

Forty-nine squares, (ten lines). 55.00

Forty squares, (ten lines). 55.50

Forty-one squares, (ten lines). 56.00

Forty-two squares, (ten lines). 56.50

Forty-three squares, (ten lines). 57.00

Forty-four squares, (ten lines). 57.50

Forty-five squares, (ten lines). 58.00

Forty-six squares, (ten lines). 58.50

Forty-seven squares, (ten lines). 59.00

Forty-eight squares, (ten lines). 59.50

Forty-nine squares, (ten lines). 60.00

Forty squares, (ten lines). 60.50

Forty-one squares, (ten lines). 61.00

Forty-two squares, (ten lines). 61.50

Forty-three squares, (ten lines). 62.00

Forty-four squares, (ten lines). 62.50

Forty-five squares, (ten lines). 63.00

Forty-six squares, (ten lines). 63.50

Forty-seven squares, (ten lines). 64.00

Forty-eight squares, (ten lines). 64.50

Forty-nine squares, (ten lines). 65.00

Forty squares, (ten lines). 65.50

Forty-one squares, (ten lines). 66.00

Forty-two squares, (ten lines). 66.50

Forty-three squares, (ten lines). 67.00

Forty-four squares, (ten lines). 67.50

Forty-five squares, (ten lines). 68.00

Forty-six squares, (ten lines). 68.50

Forty-seven squares, (ten lines). 69.00

Forty-eight squares, (ten lines). 69.50

Forty-nine squares, (ten lines). 70.00

Forty squares, (ten lines). 70.50

Forty-one squares, (ten lines). 71.00

Forty-two squares, (ten lines). 71.50

Forty-three squares, (ten lines). 72.00

Forty-four squares, (ten lines). 72.50

Forty-five squares, (ten lines). 73.00

STAUNTON SPECTATOR AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

Staunton Spectator.

STAUNTON, VA.

TUESDAY, JULY 13, 1858.

Fair and Fair Notice!

The price of the Spectator is $2.00 a year, but all subscribers who pay within the year $1.00 will be received in full. The regular price of $2.00 will be rigidly and impartially exacted from all who fail to pay before the expiration of the year.

June 6, 1858.

Another Unfortunate Candidate.

Our Democratic friends are certainly most unfortunate in the selection of candidates for the next Governorship.

The records of the gentleman spoken of will not bear inspection upon the point of all others upon which the Democracy are most sensitive.

The tint of Abolition clinging to the skirts of their most prominent men to such a degree that it is becoming troublesome and serious doubts are entertained whether they will be able to find in their ranks a single individual who is above suspicion.

The Ruffner pamphlet has blighted the fair prospects of our friend Leitcher, whose feet seemed already on the threshold of the tributary mansion.

We used scarcely repeat that we are very sorry that things have taken this unfortunate turn up on him, and more especially in view of the fact that Mr. Leitcher's fallen fortune are supposed to advance the interests of Mr. Charles James Faulkner.

Doubtless it adds fuel to the flame of that insatiable politician's aspirations, and he will strain every nerve to secure the nomination. But if Mr. Leitcher is to be ostracized out of the person of his endowment, Dr. Ruffner's anti-slavery sentiments, what will the Democracy think of the hon. Charles James?

We have in possession a most old document covered all over with the accumulated dust of twenty years' repose in a wooden chest. It is an interesting paper just now, attesting the profound wisdom of the proverb—put not your trust in politicians, and adding increased weight of testimony to the fact that—murder will out.

We shall turn over the pages of this old "Dixie Almanac" of a document, and make a few selections, merely to give the reader some idea of its character:

"While the proposition was now submitted to this body to prohibit the introduction of slaves West of the Blue Ridge, think you the proposal would meet the concurrence of the gentle man from Mecklenburg and those who act with him? I am sure it would not sit. And why? Because you thus deprive the East of the only market now open to them for the disposal of their surplus slaves."

An era of commercial intercourse is now between the East and West. Human life is to be the staple of that trade, having lost the cement of that connection, and in return for the rich products of our allies, are we to receive the nicely graduated limbs of our species? Sir, a suggestion of political remarks to me—Why? Because the men of the West, suffer themselves to be drawn into such a tempest of passion, when the subject of Slavery is introduced in the house.

The time will come, and that before long, we shall all equally represent a slaveholding interest."

Sir, it is to avert any such consequence to our country that I, one of the humblest, but not the least determined of the Western delegates, have raised my voice for emancipation."

That was speaking, and pretty energetic speaking, when Ruffner began on pages 9 and 10, of his speech, James Faulkner's "Speech in the House of Delegates of Virginia, on the policy of the South with respect to Slave population—and when he had got again the introduction of slaves into Western Virginia, and prated about "trading in human flesh" as indignantly as Giddings, or Hale, or Seward himself has ever done!

But that is not a tithe of the bitterness, which

Mr. Charles James Faulkner poured out upon slavery from the "vile of his wrath!" He went in for emancipation "at all hazards, and to the last extremity"—whether the owners were com-

passated or not:

"Sir, he exclaims, 'we can accomplish nothing by scholastic disputation about right.'

The Gordon knot must be untied—if it is by the sword. Asia must be ring-axed—the mother of the destroying angel!

That was speaking, and pretty energetic speaking, when Ruffner began on pages 9 and 10, of his speech, James Faulkner's "Speech in the House of Delegates of Virginia, on the policy of the South with respect to Slave population—

and when he had got again the introduction of slaves into Western Virginia, and prated about "trading in human flesh" as indignantly as Giddings, or Hale, or Seward himself has ever done!

But that is not a tithe of the bitterness, which

Mr. Charles James Faulkner poured out upon slavery from the "vile of his wrath!" He went in for emancipation "at all hazards, and to the last extremity"—whether the owners were com-

passated or not:

"To what, Sir, is all this ascribable? To the withering and blasting effects of slavery."

To that rise in the organization of society, by which one-half of its inhabitants are arrayed in interest and feeling against the other half."

* * * to that condition of things in which half a million of your population can feel no attachment to a government, at whose hands they receive nothing but injustice."

That was speaking, and pretty energetic speaking, when Ruffner began on pages 9 and 10, of his speech, James Faulkner's "Speech in the House of Delegates of Virginia, on the policy of the South with respect to Slave population—

and when he had got again the introduction of

slaves into Western Virginia, and prated about "trading in human flesh" as indignantly as Giddings, or Hale, or Seward himself has ever done!

But that is not a tithe of the bitterness, which

Mr. Charles James Faulkner poured out upon slavery from the "vile of his wrath!" He went in for emancipation "at all hazards, and to the last extremity"—whether the owners were com-

passated or not:

"Sir, he exclaims, 'we can accomplish nothing by scholastic disputation about right.'

The Gordon knot must be untied—if it is by the sword. Asia must be ring-axed—the mother of the destroying angel!

That was speaking, and pretty energetic speaking, when Ruffner began on pages 9 and 10, of his speech, James Faulkner's "Speech in the House of Delegates of Virginia, on the policy of the South with respect to Slave population—

and when he had got again the introduction of

slaves into Western Virginia, and prated about "trading in human flesh" as indignantly as Giddings, or Hale, or Seward himself has ever done!

But that is not a tithe of the bitterness, which

Mr. Charles James Faulkner poured out upon slavery from the "vile of his wrath!" He went in for emancipation "at all hazards, and to the last extremity"—whether the owners were com-

passated or not:

"To what, Sir, is all this ascribable? To the withering and blasting effects of slavery."

To that rise in the organization of society, by which one-half of its inhabitants are arrayed in interest and feeling against the other half."

* * * to that condition of things in which half a million of your population can feel no attachment to a government, at whose hands they receive nothing but injustice."

That was speaking, and pretty energetic speaking, when Ruffner began on pages 9 and 10, of his speech, James Faulkner's "Speech in the House of Delegates of Virginia, on the policy of the South with respect to Slave population—

and when he had got again the introduction of

slaves into Western Virginia, and prated about "trading in human flesh" as indignantly as Giddings, or Hale, or Seward himself has ever done!

But that is not a tithe of the bitterness, which

Mr. Charles James Faulkner poured out upon slavery from the "vile of his wrath!" He went in for emancipation "at all hazards, and to the last extremity"—whether the owners were com-

passated or not:

"Sir, he exclaims, 'we can accomplish nothing by scholastic disputation about right.'

The Gordon knot must be untied—if it is by the sword. Asia must be ring-axed—the mother of the destroying angel!

That was speaking, and pretty energetic speaking, when Ruffner began on pages 9 and 10, of his speech, James Faulkner's "Speech in the House of Delegates of Virginia, on the policy of the South with respect to Slave population—

and when he had got again the introduction of

slaves into Western Virginia, and prated about "trading in human flesh" as indignantly as Giddings, or Hale, or Seward himself has ever done!

But that is not a tithe of the bitterness, which

Mr. Charles James Faulkner poured out upon slavery from the "vile of his wrath!" He went in for emancipation "at all hazards, and to the last extremity"—whether the owners were com-

passated or not:

"Sir, he exclaims, 'we can accomplish nothing by scholastic disputation about right.'

The Gordon knot must be untied—if it is by the sword. Asia must be ring-axed—the mother of the destroying angel!

That was speaking, and pretty energetic speaking, when Ruffner began on pages 9 and 10, of his speech, James Faulkner's "Speech in the House of Delegates of Virginia, on the policy of the South with respect to Slave population—

and when he had got again the introduction of

slaves into Western Virginia, and prated about "trading in human flesh" as indignantly as Giddings, or Hale, or Seward himself has ever done!

But that is not a tithe of the bitterness, which

Mr. Charles James Faulkner poured out upon slavery from the "vile of his wrath!" He went in for emancipation "at all hazards, and to the last extremity"—whether the owners were com-

passated or not:

"Sir, he exclaims, 'we can accomplish nothing by scholastic disputation about right.'

The Gordon knot must be untied—if it is by the sword. Asia must be ring-axed—the mother of the destroying angel!

That was speaking, and pretty energetic speaking, when Ruffner began on pages 9 and 10, of his speech, James Faulkner's "Speech in the House of Delegates of Virginia, on the policy of the South with respect to Slave population—

and when he had got again the introduction of

slaves into Western Virginia, and prated about "trading in human flesh" as indignantly as Giddings, or Hale, or Seward himself has ever done!

But that is not a tithe of the bitterness, which

Mr. Charles James Faulkner poured out upon slavery from the "vile of his wrath!" He went in for emancipation "at all hazards, and to the last extremity"—whether the owners were com-

passated or not:

"Sir, he exclaims, 'we can accomplish nothing by scholastic disputation about right.'

The Gordon knot must be untied—if it is by the sword. Asia must be ring-axed—the mother of the destroying angel!

That was speaking, and pretty energetic speaking, when Ruffner began on pages 9 and 10, of his speech, James Faulkner's "Speech in the House of Delegates of Virginia, on the policy of the South with respect to Slave population—

and when he had got again the introduction of

slaves into Western Virginia, and prated about "trading in human flesh" as indignantly as Giddings, or Hale, or Seward himself has ever done!

But that is not a tithe of the bitterness, which

Mr. Charles James Faulkner poured out upon slavery from the "vile of his wrath!" He went in for emancipation "at all hazards, and to the last extremity"—whether the owners were com-

passated or not:

"Sir, he exclaims, 'we can accomplish nothing by scholastic disputation about right.'

The Gordon knot must be untied—if it is by the sword. Asia must be ring-axed—the mother of the destroying angel!

That was speaking, and pretty energetic speaking, when Ruffner began on pages 9 and 10, of his speech, James Faulkner's "Speech in the House of Delegates of Virginia, on the policy of the South with respect to Slave population—

and when he had got again the introduction of

slaves into Western Virginia, and prated about "trading in human flesh" as indignantly as Giddings, or Hale, or Seward himself has ever done!

But that is not a tithe of the bitterness, which

Mr. Charles James Faulkner poured out upon slavery from the "vile of his wrath!" He went in for emancipation "at all hazards, and to the last extremity"—whether the owners were com-

passated or not:

"Sir, he exclaims, 'we can accomplish nothing by scholastic disputation about right.'

The Gordon knot must be untied—if it is by the sword. Asia must be ring-axed—the mother of the destroying angel!

That was speaking, and pretty energetic speaking, when Ruffner began on pages 9 and 10, of his speech, James Faulkner's "Speech in the House of Delegates of Virginia, on the policy of the South with respect to Slave population—

and when he had got again the introduction of

slaves into Western Virginia, and prated about "trading in human flesh" as indignantly as Giddings, or Hale, or Seward himself has ever done!

But that is not a tithe of the bitterness, which

Mr. Charles James Faulkner poured out upon slavery from the "vile of his wrath!" He went in for emancipation "at all hazards, and to the last extremity"—whether the owners were com-

passated or not:

"Sir, he exclaims, 'we can accomplish nothing by scholastic disputation about right.'

The Gordon knot must be untied—if it is by the sword. Asia must be ring-axed—the mother of the destroying angel!

That was speaking, and pretty energetic speaking, when Ruffner began on pages 9 and 10, of his speech, James Faulkner's "Speech in the House of Delegates of Virginia, on the policy of the South with respect to Slave population—

STAUNTON SPECTATOR AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

LOCAL MATTERS.

The County Less.—We stated last week that the amount $3,760 allowed by the County Court of Augusta for the support of the poor, was an increase of $730 over that allowed in former years. A member of the Board of Overseers informs us that the statement is incorrect. Since the year 1848 the amount of the expenses of the Poor has varied from $1,250 to $3,827, which sum it reached in the year 1854. It was afterwards rapidly reduced below the present allowance, because the overseers expected to obtain the amount due from M. H. McKey, late Sheriff, who died in the body, would cause enough for the wants of the Parish that year. The levy in 1857, as in 1858, was $3,600, and the assessment in each tithe has been about the same for many years past. It thus appears that the great increase in county expenditures cannot be saddled upon the poor, but must be otherwise accounted for. The matter is worth looking into.

Umbrella Found.

An umbrella was found in a public street in Staunton, on Thursday last, by one of the editors of its papers. As much of our readers know, as are in the streets, or other places, we have no time to give to such matters of application as this. We give no other option than to return the umbrella to the owner. We will do so, if the owner can be found. If he can't be found, we will sell it at auction, and the proceeds will go to the poor.

Hastings' Court.

The Hastings' court, in the two cases, was in session during the latter part of the last week, and disposed of a large amount of very important cases, that had accumulated upon the dockets. The Grand Jury returned on Thursday afternoon after a most laborious and interesting session. Quite a number of presentations were made, and true bills were found against different persons for stealing, malicious mischief, &c.

The attention of the Grand Jury was called to the dangerous condition of the side-walks in various parts of the town, and a presentation was made against the town authorities. The matter, however, was subsequently dropped.

Beautiful Pictures.

Messrs. Peet & Webber, whose rooms are on Main street, adjoining the store of Mr. R. G. Buckley, are taking beautiful ambrotypes and photographs. Mr. Peet is an artist of considerable merit, and his colored photographs are equal to the best paintings. The painted portraits of our Post master, Capt. Stephen, is admirable. The pictures of other well-known citizens equally like may be seen at the rooms.

Killed.

A negro boy, belonging to Dr. H. J. Churchman, was killed by a kick from the Doctor's horse, yesterday evening. He had started to lead the horse to water, by a long halter, and it is supposed that the horse was rearing and kicking in a playful mood, as there was nothing vicious about him. The boy was kicked in the stomach and died in three quarters of an hour.

Good Sale.

The Ayer farm in this county, which contains 209 acres, was sold last week by Messrs. Watts and Trout, Trustees, at $1,000 per acre. Mr. George Sherman, of Rockingham, was the purchaser.

Dividends.

The Bank of the Valley, on Friday, declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent., payable to the stockholders, the Central Bank $1 1/4, and the Bank of Winchester, 3.

Political.

We invite attention to the few political articles from the Return of White, which are added to the first page of this paper.

Intelligence from Northern Mex.

Southern intelligence from our political columnists in the New Orleans papers, contain details of Mexican news. The seat of government of Tamaulipas has been moved to Monterrey. Another victory had been gained by the Constitutionalists under General Alvarado, in San Luis de los Lagos. Bustos took one hundred prisoners and the camp equipped for the campaign, which had been left at Laredo, and the party, after being dispersed, had made its way to Monterrey. The spectacle of the army, split up into fragments, and reported to have dispersed in the hills, and placed the activities of the Spanish Council. The State of Tamaulipas has a considerable force in the field under Garza and others. General Garza and staff arrived at Matamoros, where they were welcomed by salutes and public manifestations. The news from the city of Mexico is uncertain, as to the capitals to Monterrey, Mex. Its arms and ammunition valued at $100,000 in Brownsville, and asks a sum for six months to pay for them. An express from Monterrey states that General Zuloaga is progressing finely. There were rumors that the Zuloaga faction had made overtures for peace.

The PILLAGE OF LUCKNOW.—We heard that a lady residing at Chilton, the wife of a gallant Major at present serving in India, has received a letter from her husband, which gives a glowing account of the treasure seized by our troops at Lucknow. An account of the same, she has sent her son, an officer of colonial police, and some friends, one of whom is believed to be of large means. The sum are, in comparison, the smallest having been largely, and we had almost said, mercilessly, rifled through. The letter speaks of a corporal in the gallant officer's regiment, having got a bracelet which will probably be worth from £100 to £200,000. Another from a young officer received at Chilton states that the writer has got three superb embroidered gloves of rare workmanship and great price.—Bristol Evening Mercury.

LATEST PERFUME-KING-ME-IF-YOU-—Extracted from the well known perfume house No. 10, New York.

WANTED FOR THE U. S. ARMY.

Wanted—A good, strong, well educated, and experienced soldier, to be engaged to serve in the Cavalry, for five years, at $1,200 per month. Name not given, but will be accepted. Apply to Lt. Col. T. H. & J. C. KINNEY, Staunton, July 1, 1858.

WANTED FOR THE U. S. ARMY.
—A good, strong, well educated, and experienced soldier, to be engaged to serve in the Cavalry, for five years, at $1,200 per month. Name not given, but will be accepted. Apply to Lt. Col. T. H. & J. C. KINNEY, Staunton, July 1, 1858.

SKELETON SKIRT-LADIES ATTIRE.
—We are now receiving large quantities of new and improved ladies' clothing, and
FITTER & FURNISHER,
Staunton, July 1, 1858.

NEW CONSTRUCTED COAL OIL LAMP, which burns better, and longer, than the old style. For the slender lamp,
Fitter & Furnisher,
Staunton, July 1, 1858.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ROUGH SKINS, CHAPPED HANDS &c.
—Incident to the season, and caused by the use of "Portuguese Cedar Oil," it is medicated to prevent chapping of hands, and the skin. It is a native of Brazil, and is effective against scalding hands, and the skin. It is sold by Dr. W. A. Young,
Staunton, Va.

DENTAL FLUID.—Tinct. of instant
Dental Fluid, compounded
by Dr. D. W. Young, Staunton, Va.

IMPROVED SINGER Machine.

For Manufacturing, Public Exhibition, &c. in EXHIBITION ROOMS,

No. 105 Baltimore Street,

BALTIMORE.

W. E. BRODRICK, Agent.

Baltimore, Maryland.

FOR WOMEN Infants and Children.

Wool Felt, Superior to all prints, soap, ointments, hair washes, &c. &c. &c. &c. &c.

For Infants, &c. &

