STAUNTON, VA. TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1869.

THE STAUNTON SPECTATOR HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED AS AN ADVERTISING AGENCY IN THE STATE OF VIRGINIA.

STATE TICKETS. FOR GOVERNOR. WILLIAM L. GOGGIN, OF SEVENOKS. FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR. WAITMAN T. WILLEY, OF MONROGALIA.

Our Candidates. We place at the head of our columns to-day, the names of the able gentlemen selected by the Richmond Convention to be the standard-bearers of the Opposition in the approaching gubernatorial contest.

Mr. Goggin, the candidate for Governor, is well known as one of the most talented statesmen of the Commonwealth—a man of indomitable energy and efficiency, who will canvass the State thoroughly, and meet Mr. Letcher face to face before the people at every cross-road if he desires it.

Mr. Willey, of Monongalia, the nominee for Lieutenant Governor, is acknowledged by all who know him to be a gentleman of very superior talents—a fine speaker, and eminently qualified to discharge the duties of the office.

Mr. Preston, the candidate for Attorney General, is well known as a distinguished lawyer of Abingdon, who won for himself a national reputation as an orator by an address delivered when he was at Princeton College.

The ticket is a good and strong one and will command the cordial and enthusiastic support of the opposition throughout the State.

We publish in this paper an outline of the proceedings of the Whig and American Convention which met in Richmond last week.
