The same thoughts and wishes have been entertained at the South. We have observed the and drift of Republicanism, and the least excitable wage war directly upon the Southest ownish the propose contemplated by the Rapiblican itself-war. It is to bear from them without designs, so vituperation or passionate orimination, but it is a vituperation or passionate orimination, but is the taster attack back, while such could beads as Mr. Milseon, of the Morfolk District, unanget he brainest. Whenever a unjointy at the North take the ground assouned by the New York Tribuna, the South must stand to her sume. But we hope that the Times capresses the feeling of multitudes at the Morth won baye settled with the Republicans. They begin to see, what conservative men in the South saw long ago, that sessional Rapublicaniem cannot stop short of Abolitionism. The ground it protesses to occupy is too narrow for a perunancia party to stand oppos, and it must go forward or fill-shad its organization. We loop to a geomator breaking up; we trust that the mass of the party is not prepared to plunge into the abyer of sholinionism, the lift all the to aske ground, while indicates, but will fall back to aske ground, while stand upon, and it must go not be the superior of the property of the organization. We hope for a general breaking up; we trust that the mass of the party is not propered to plunge into the abyze of abelitypism, but will fall back to aske ground, while the ultra sease among them will drift over the obsern and find their "com place" with the Garrisons and Phillipses of infusions sourcety. After the above was written we received the related from a New York correspondent, which is investitable in another solution.
