SAVE YOUR COUNTRY!

BY VOTING FOR

Bell and Everett!

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1860.

WEEKLY.

This day, which has been looked for by some months with such deep anxiety by all patriots, has now arrived.

The day for which they have been so long preparing this day arrives upon them.

The hour is at hand when the people should decide the terrible issue which agitates

the whole country from sea to circumference.

This day is pregnant with the fate of our country for weal or woe.

This day will mark as speed in the history of this country. The time for argument, appeal, and exasperation has passed, and the time for action, energetic and vigorous action, has arrived.

Speakers and Editors have performed their duty, it is now for the people to perform theirs. The momentous issues have been clearly presented, and ably and faithfully argued, and are now referred to the great jury of the people for their decision.

A very great and heavy responsibility rests upon them.

Our confidence in the intelligence and patriotism of the great body of the people assures us that they will render a proper decision.

We appeal from Alexander drunk to Alexander sober—we appeal from the frenzied and hysterical politicians to the calm and sober masses of the people. We have the utmost and most implicit confidence that the great heart of the people palpitates in favor of the Union, and that they will express through the ballot-box, a strong and powerful voice in favor of the Union.

"AGAIN WE RALLY—MT. SIDNEY!"

"CONSTITUTION, UNION AND ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS!"

"HERE WE COME MT. SIDNEY BOYS!"

"MT. SIDNEY—STILL WE COME!"

"THE UNION BELL-RINGERS!"

"MAKE WAY FOR MINT SPRING!"

"JOHN BELL AND EDWARD EVERETT!"

"IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH!"

There was a beautifully decorated banner inscribed with "BELL" beneath as arch from which pealed eight ringing bells. There was another "excessor" banner inscribed with the "strange device."

"THE BELLES ARE FOR UNION TO A MAN!"

This banner contained a beautiful wreath enclosing the word "UNION," which was painted in the national colors—red, white and blue.

Mr. Sidney, Greenville, and Mint Spring, are anxious and somewhat apprehensive because we fear that the people, honest and patriotic themselves, suspect not others of evil and traitorous purposes, and may not be able to realize the fact that the country is really in a perilous crisis. We call upon them, in the most earnest manner, to awake to a proper sense of the great dangers which now impend over the destinies of the beloved country. Do all you can, our countrymen, from sunrise to the setting of the sun, on this eventful day, for the preservation of the Union, by securing votes for the Union ticket. The sun will rise to-day and shed his genial beams on a free, happy, united and prosperous country—if you do not your duty, he may rise to-morrow and reveal the broken and dismembered fragments of a once glorious Union, with States disunited, discordant, belligerent; on a land still with civil strife and drenched with fraternal blood."

GIVE ONE DAY TO YOUR COUNTRY—VOTE FOR BELL AND EVERETT.

DOWN WITH DISSENTERS.

Truly, the soul of the patriot is wrong with anguish, while he contemplates the sad gloom that pervades the future. All hearts should be united to avert the awful destiny which we fear await our country. Every patriot must be ready to stay the tide of destruction which we fear.

Every patriot must be ready to stand by his friends and kindred, and to defend them.

Every patriot must be ready to stand by his friends and kindred, and to defend them.
