MUTERING OF THE DISTRICT MILITIA.—A despatch from Washington on the 11th says:—The general excitement occasioned here yesterday by the calling out of the Volunteer Militia of the District, to be mustered into the Federal service, d has abated; and to-day four or few more companies marched to the War Department and took for the Army oath, namely—"To bear true allegt ance to the United States, and serve them hone saily and faithfully against all their numbers the opposers whomever, and observed their more states of the United States, and every them hone and proposers whomever, and observed States, and opposers whomever, and observed the trainer of the United States, and the orders appointed to them, according to the military of the United States.

Trevious to taking this oath the volunteers were informed that the obligation was for three months, unless they were sooner discharged, and to retire. But as the mer came there purposely to be mustered its, they assumed the obligation accordingly. They now understand that they cannot be ordered beyond the limits of the District of Columbia, and will not be continuously on duty as guards to the armories and public billidings, etc. Not quite two hondred were at certed yesterday, but five hundred altogether will doubless be mustered in during the day—will doubless be mustered in during the day.
