Good Tidings.

We are truly gratified is learn that the Potomao has been eff, steally closed by powerful batteries, and the wrole weather as to Washington put under strict blockade. The reason for out duting this at an earlier period, says the Bourston, was imply that we had no available force afficient to protect our works, which would be likely to encounter such a formidable movement on the part of the enemy to destroy. The Potomac has now been abut up, and a force is there arme be to defand our batteries, and dey all comers. ole to defend our batterties and dely all comers lite river is no longer navigable to Lincoln's orafs.
