

Staunton Spectator.

STAUNTON, VA.

THURSDAY, OCT. 9, 1861.

Those who desire to pay their subscription in wood can do so by sending us good logs and good wood.

No Reconstruction of the Union.

As long as the Union was a temple of freedom as those who are the devotees of Liberty might worship...

Let no one entertain a thought of reconstructing the old Union.

Let no one entertain a thought of reconstructing the old Union. The people of the North have interposed between us and them a wall of fire and a river of blood...

On the issue that formerly defined political parties among us, I shall say nothing. The occasions that gave rise to them have passed...

Grounds Charges.

We were surprised to find in the Lexington Gazette a paper recently conducted with commendable propriety and discretion...

Call for More Troops in Tennessee.

Intelligence from Nashville, says that Memphis Advertiser, advises us that Gen. Harria, in obedience to Gen. Johnson's requisition...

This is another evidence of the energy with which military matters are being pushed in the Mississippi valley under the new regime...

The Surrender of Lexington Confirmed.

The Memphis papers contain full confirmation of the reported surrender of Lexington, Missouri...

Another Victory of Southern Arms.

On Thursday last, the 3rd instant, the Federal forces which for some time past have been occupying the top of Cheat Mountain...

A Woman's Devotion.

A correspondent of the Augusta Sentinel, writing from Pennsylvania, gives the following touching example of a sister's devotion.

A woman in camp is a rare sight, a sight good for our eyes. A soldier's wife, "home and far away." However, I have several times seen one lately, and she came upon a most joyful and successful mission...

Recent Battle of Harborsville, Kentucky.

We arrived late on the 14th instant after a long and fatiguing ride from Lexington. Our Company, 1st Battalion of East Tennessee Cavalry, leading the van, and with Capt. Lewis's company, forming the vanguard of the Brigade...

Lexington Gazette.

For several months past, we have been able to put out only a half sheet. This has been owing to the loss of our printing press, which was destroyed by the enemy...

Gallop of a Virginia Boy.

One of the first prisoners taken on the field of Manassas was captured by Mr. H. Burwell, a clerk of 13 years, son of Gen. N. Burwell, of Clark county, Va.

No Money for Mr. Lincoln.

Mr. Belmont who went on a borrowing mission abroad for Mr. Lincoln, has returned empty-handed and disconsolate.

Bloody Enactment in Kentucky.

The enactments of the Legislature of Kentucky rival in barbarity and atrocity the bloody edicts of Freimont in Missouri.

Wooden Shoes.

The shoe question has come to be a consideration of much importance, since the manufacturers of wooden shoes are being driven to the wall...

The War in Kentucky.

Nashville, Oct. 4.—A gentleman, who arrived the evening from Eastern Kentucky, says that the Federal, 4,000 strong, advanced from camp Dick Robinson to Big Hill, sixty miles north of Kentucky.

The War in Missouri.

St. Louis, Oct. 4.—Col. Hardee is at Columbus with his command. Gen. Jeff. Thompson's force is now at New Madrid, about 28 miles from the purpose of joining General Price's army.
