of impression the pleasure of handling nearly as much money as a Quartaranaler. Patriotism invokes the farmess to raise a pleateon farrest; for the soldiers in the field, who are fighting for the liberty and independence of our country, must be supplied with a sufficiency of food, and for this supply they are wholly dipendent upon the farmer to speed the plough and increase his crops for widows and orph ans, whose lumbands and fathers have meriteed their lives upon the later of their country is defence, must have used and bread, and unless the farmer raises the necessary supplies, gaunt famine will cross the thresholds of many houses, and inflicts effecting inconceivable upon innocent women and children.

There is no reason why there should be even accarcity, much less want, in this country of genial clinate and productive soil. If there shall be not only a sufficiency, but an abundance, in this country, it will be the faint of the farmer whe gray the land, but fail to use the masses for make it fruitful. They will be
