

STAUNTON SPECTATOR AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

Staunton Spectator.

STAUNTON, V.A.

TUESDAY, JULY 26, 1863.

Gen. Price's Souls arrived in Charleston, S.C., on the 18th instant, on the 14th from Nassau.

Gen. William H. Letcher, Esq., father of Governor Letcher, died in Lexington on the 20th instant, in the 84th year of his age.

The United States steamer DeKalb, an iron clad, carrying thirteen guns, was destroyed by torpedoes on the York river, on the 18th inst.

At Port Hudson, the number of the garrison which surrendered was between 6,000 and 6,500, of whom there were not more than 2,000 effective men for duty. During the stage about 200 had been killed and 800 wounded.

By the fall of Vicksburg, we lost there Major-General, three Brigadier Generals, and twenty-three thousand men, mostly pieces of artillery, and forty thousand stand of small arms. The enemy falsely report our loss much greater, but the truth makes it bad enough.

It is not generally known, says the "Rebel," how many aids a field General is entitled to, but we have known some who had four—"Promenade, seconde, 'deade' lemonade, and gasconade."

We are gratified to learn from Northern sources that the brave and chivalrous General James L. Kemper is not dead, as reported, but that, though dangerously wounded, there is still some hope of his recovery.

Gen. Trimble is getting on remarkably well with his wound. He is at Chesapeake, Va., at a private house. His left leg has been amputated half way between the foot and knee.

Donation of Lead.—The Court Street Methodist Church, of Lynchburg, Va., has made a donation of the leaden ornaments of the iron railing around the Church to the Government, for the purpose of making balloons, with which to stay the invader of our country.

We have been presented with good matches by Mr. D. W. Blackburn, manufactured by him in this place. He sells them at the rate of $15.00 per gross.

Charlottesville.—Take a cup of grease of any kind, (lard or tallow) and put into it a glassine ball, saturate in the same, and then light it. You will have a light equivalent to two candles. One ball will last three or four nights. The expense will be about three cents a night, all usual bedtime—not more even at the present price of tallow.

Gen. C. L. Wallingham from Niagara Falls, Canada West, under date of July 14th, issued an address to the people of Ohio. In his address, he says:

"It is vain to invite the States and people of the South to return to a Union without a Constitution, and disdained and polluted by repeated and most aggravated anomalies of tyrannic power. It is here in yourselves, and treasonable to your posterity, to surrender these liberties and rights to the creatures whom your own breath created, and can destroy."

The Yankees have been committing considerable depredations in North Carolina recently, in the way of stealing negroes and destroying property. The poor negroes when taken are either sent into the army, where they are killed by Southern soldiers in the field of battle, or sent North where they are killed by "Yankee rioters." The best and safest place for the negro is in the South with his master, where he is fed and clothed, and has nothing to dread from Northern or Southern soldiers.

Mothers report the capture of Major-General in Ohio. The Head of the State says the defeat of Armistead is confirmed. The remainder of the forces which had not previously been captured were released on Monday. Monday morning news is too recently to say what matters get to the worst stage generally improve.

W. H. Letcher.—With the enemy at Petersburg, on the 18th instant, we learned the 42nd—second Virginia regiment had been killed and wounded—about 1,000. We have not been furnished with the list of casualties—Gen. M. C. Johnson, commanding provost guard regiment, furnished the following list of the enemy, as follows:

Colonel J. E. Thacker, John C. Moore, W. H. Myers, and Harry

Long. Captain A. G. Jackson, 1st Regt., Sergeant Geo. Geary, 1st Regt., Corporal E. B. Williams, 1st Regt. There were 93 killed and 200 wounded in the fight.

Colonel Drake, of the 1st regiment, of the main body of the rebels, could not state what portion of the force had been engaged in the fight.

Colonel Drake.—The army which has again been engaged in the fight, is the 1st regiment, of the main body of the rebels, could not state what portion of the force had been engaged in the fight.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.

Colonel W. T. Patterson of the 2nd regiment, Virginia Cavalry, and a State company, closed to the Virginia Legislature, but not yet organized, and numbered 100 men, had been engaged in the fight, and were heavily engaged in the rear.