LOEB BROTHERS.

We would invite attention to the advertisated of Loob Brethers. They have removed from Bros street to their fine, new building, at No 11: Main street, Richmond. Their Besser of Cloth ing is one of the largest in the South-they keep ing is eas of the largest in the South—they keep a good stock—have hat ene price, and promise to sell at New York prices. Many of our citizens are sequalated with Mr. T. F. Bay, ferhasely with C. B. Bouse & Co., who can now be seen in this house. He would be pleased to see his friends from this section of the State. Look Brokenia have setted upon the policy of advertising liberally whereby they have been enabled to sell large amounts, and the amount of their selection of the se amounts, and the amount of their sales enable them to sell sheep. This is true of all business men who advertise liberally. Those who adver-tise, get business, and in proportion to the amount of their business they are enabled to sell cheep. It is to the interest of the purchaser to buy of these who advertise most liberally.

LAND BUYERS.

Many inquiries are now being made with a a view to the purchase of lands in the Valley of Virginia. Besides the great natural advantages of the Valley in its fertility, salubrity and soonsry, it has the peculiar recommendation now, of being, of all the South, comparatively free from the edjection of having large numbers of freed aggrees in its limits. Hence homes are sought here from both Northern and Southern land-buy ers. The capacity of the country is almost inex-haustible; and its many natural and adventilious virtues have become widely known and advertised by the soldiers of both ildes in the late war. We hope soon to see it restered in all respects, and developed in all its advantages, to become, as it ties 105.

CURIOUS RATS.

Two rats have been eaged recently in this place, which are as white as the frozen mists of heaven. Their eyes are as red as cherries, and one of them has only three legs—there being no visible sign of the the fourth. We do not know whether this rat was born with three legs, or whether the poor fellow lost his leg in a rat rebellion, but suppose the grey rats refused to allow them all their rights and a war grew out of it, and the leg lost. They attempted to leave the country, but found Bear's trap in their way. Whether their eyes were originally red, or whother they have been taking too much of Beck's Old Rye, we cannot say. They were caught by Mr. Bear, and may be seen at the Saloon of Beck & Beard.

'Freedmen's Bureau' are about establish oung (darkey) ideas how to shoot." Female achers from the North have arrived, and rooms is undirected that the nommanding general has ordered that ether rooms be precured for these interesting Schools.

FIRE STEEL ENGRAVINGS.

Mr. J. S. Hays, lase courier for Gen. Lee, is taking subscriptions for steel Engravings of Gen-srale Lee, Jackson, Grant, and the inte President Lincoln. The Engraving of Genla. THE PARMER.

We noticed the fact, in our issue of the 17th of October, that Mesers Milfort & Shields, publishers of the Richmend Whig, proposed to publish, commencing in January 1365, a monthly Journal styled "The Farmer." In this number we pub-liak their Prospectus, and would invite attention te it, and theomogned our farmers withinfulfer or te it, and theomogned our farmers withinfulfer or it without delay. COUNTY ROADS.

The public roads of the County are in wors order than ever before, purhaps, is its whole his-tory. This is owning to the impracticability of keeping them in order during the late war. But the County Court has appointed the road Com missioners, and the surveyors for each presing and made applyments of laborers. The Juries will see to their duty doubtless.

The "Test Oath."

The "test oath" for office onsoled by Congress during the height of the war, will scarcely stand the "test" itself in more peaceful times. There are already complaints from the Departments of Government, that proper, responsible and reliable officers cannot be found in many places in the South who can take this oath, and consequently the business ing a Free School, in Staunton, for "teaching of the Government is likely to suffer. If the oath contained in the "amnesty test" is not were fitted up in the jury reoms of the Court, sufficient guarantee that the people of the House for the Scheel.
