brought to this place to be tried before Military Court, charged with murder—the one W. W. McKemy, a white man, charged with kill-ing a negro, and the other a negro, charged with killing a man by the name of Giles and his wife, and burning the house with the body of the mur an in it. We understand that Mr McKemy struck the negro with a stick whilst try-ing to get out of a part of his house which he had entered for the purpose of stealing, and that the egro died the next day from the effect of the blow thus inflicted—his skull having been fractured. We understand that he will be tried by Military Court for the purpose of introducing the testimeny of a negro girl, which would not b issible in a civil Court.

PREVENTIVE AGAINST CHOLERA.

As that terrible source, the Asiatic Cholers, has reached our shores, the people are much alarmed, and are anxious to learn the best pretive against it. The most severeign specific pre mtive, which has never been known to fail, and which we would recommend, is, "A receipt for all arranges, and a year in advance, for sub-peription to the Stauston Speciator." unton Spectator

No one has ever been known to die with the Chalers who had a receipt of that kind in his nonession. If any one should die of that disease who relies upon the efficacy of this preventive and will thereafter inform us of the fact, with evidence properly authenticated, we will frenkly acknowledge that, in that special case, the pre-ventive failed to have the desired effect.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.

The friends of temperance are preparing to re new their warfare upon the monster vice, intem-perance. The Division of this place, Charity Division, No. 6., went to work a few weeks aince, and many, we understand, are learning to "work their way" into a place of refuge from the assaults of the "perfidious destroyer." We hope that many frecruits may be obtained; that mail companies may increase to the dimensions of regiments, that regiments may increase to bri-rades, bridades to divisions, divisions to corps. to armies, and that their banners may wave in triumph over a people redeemed, reger which lures to betray, and betrays to ruin.
