TUMBRAY, Jan. 8 .- In the Senate, on Tuesday, the presentation of the resolutions of the Union meeting at Rochester, N. Y., epened the debate on the President's Message, when Mr. Brown, of Mississippi, expressed his dissent from the views of the message with reference to the settlement of the slavery question by the Supreme Court. It had not been settled. The Court had done what it could, and the time had now arrived for further and more effective legislation on the sub-ject. The debate was further continmed by Messrs. Doolittle, Chestnut, Toombs, and others. In the House, Mr. Boyes, of S. C., concluded his reintractors, violations of the fugitive slave law, &c. The House finally went into another ballot for Speaker, (the 23rd) which resultet in Mr. Sherman receiving 101—104 being necessary to elect; Mr. McClernand 33; Mr. Gilmer 14; Mr. Vallandigham 12; Mr. Davis, of Indiana 9; with 38 scatter-

THURSDAY, Jan. 5.—The Senate, without transacting any business of importance, adjourned till Monday. In the House, Mr. Morris, of Illinois, endeavored to introduce a resolution for the restoration of the desks and chairs in the Hall, but it was objected to. A lengthy desultory discussion followed on propositions for a temporary organisation, which met no favor Republican side, after which the ballotting for Speaker was resumed. Two ballots were had. Mr. Sherman seeiving on the first I04—107 being receiving on the first 108—107 heing necessary to elect, and on the second 103—106 being necessary to elect. Mr. Vallandigham received on the first ballot 69, and Mr. Gilmer 7, with 32 neattering; is but before the second ballot Mr. Davis of Mississippi, again placed Mr. Bocock, of Virginia, in nomination and he meaning 55 with the contraction and the cont piaced mr. Bocock, of Virginia, in no-mination, and he received 56 votes, with 53 divided among other candi-dates. A protracted discussion fol-lowed, and at times much excitement and disorder prevailed.

FRIDAY, Jan. 6 .- The House again indulged in a long and rambling disrahip, and the efforts made on either side towards effecting an organization Mesera. Miles, of S. C., Adrain, of N. J., Mallory, of Ky., Dejarnette, Coshrane and Briggs, of N. Y., Hickman, of Pa., and others seterally explained their positions. TUESDAY, Jan. 8 .- The Pennsylva-Tussday, Jan. 8.—The Pennsylva-nia Legislature met at Harrisburg on Tuseday, the 3rd inst. The Senate organized by electing W. M. Francis, of Venango, Speaker, and Russell Er-rett, of Pittaburg, Clerk. Mr. Errett is the publisher of the Pittaburg Ga-sette. In the House, W. C. A. Lawrenes, of Dauphin, was elected Speak-er. The Republicans are largely in the majority in both Houses. The Republican members of the House Republican members of the House have thrown Mr. Bes, the old Glerk, overboard, and nominated E. H. Rasch of Lehigh for that position. This er-granization lays on the shelf a large number of aspirants for positions at the hands of the Legislature. It is-Mr. Boyes, of S. C., cencluded his remarks on the slavery question, and was followed by Mr. English, of Indiana, in an able speech in reply to Mr. Hickman. A long desultory debate followed, and the House adjourned without a further ballot.

Wednesday, Mr. Wigfall, U. S. Benator from Taxas, appeared and took his seat. Mr. Powell, of Kental for himself at the cost of Mosers ancky, introduced a bill to abolish the franking privilege. Sober Second Thought.

There are indications already that the popular mind is aroused to the dangers of Black Republicanism, and that in places where, heretofore, that heresy was most prevalent, it is now an the wase. In the town of New heretofore, that Bedford, Mass., at the recent election for mayor, Issae C. Taber, democrat, was elected by 585 majority over his. Black Republican opponent, Weston wag elected by 535 majority over ms, Black Republican opponent, Weston Hawland. We have received one of the Black Republican handbills, of which the following is a true copy:
