Death of a Practitioner from Chloroform.

Caleroform.

A most painful excitement was produced in Allos recessly on its becoming known that Dr. Renwick had died during the forencon, while under the influence of chloroform. It appears that the descared had been suffering lately from the nail of his great toe having grown into the fish, and on Saturday aftersoon he had spoken to one of his professional brethren, Dr. Duncanson, to come on the forence of the following day and out sway the nail. Being an operation of a somewhat painful nature, he stated that it was his intention to take chloroform, wheesepan Dr. Druncanson suggested that another medical man should be called in to smist; but this he objected to.

On Sabbath morning, therefore, Dr. Druncanson attended, and found his friend in excellent spirins, and still resolved to take shloroform, to which course he made no further objections, having administered it to him on a previous occasion without any bad results. Having made some observations as to how he wished the operation to be performed, and charged the operator to be sure not to begin until he was perfectly insensible, a little of the chloroform was poured upon a towel, and he held it to his meath with his own hands. After a while, as it did not seem to be taking any affect, he saked for some more which Dr. Duncanson declined to give; but after a while, finding that he affect was being produced, none more was asked to breathe naturally, which he did. As it still, however, essented to be having no effect, another small quantity, at his own request, was applied to the towol, which, after a short time, produced insensibility, and his pulse being touch full and regular, the operation, which did his occupy more than a minute or two, was uncoefficity performed. He still restributed insensibility, and his pulse being touch in his breathing was regular, and all was considered right. A young man from the rural districts went to the Post office, the other day, with a bank note, for a dollar worth of stamps. He was told that paper money was not received. He went for Spanish quarters.

'We don't receive them now, said the attendant, 'for more than twenty cents spiece.

Years ago a well-known novelist, a man of great coolness and courage, was met by a stout fellow, who stopped him and demanded his purse. "Capital!" the other exclaimed; "I was just about to make the same demand on you; but come, as I find I have fallen in with one of ourselves, I'll give you a share of a prime job I have got in hand. Come along." Deceived by his confidence, the real rogue joined the counterfeiter, and they stole along tegether till they were must by a patrol, into whose hands the good natured friend unkindly lodged his associate.

FOR PRESIDENT,

JEREMIAH S. BLACK,

Ralireads.

We observe that Mr. SCHELL, of Bed-ford, has introduced in the State Senate a bill to sell the Pittsburg and Consultyille Railrad. This read is surveyed from Pittsburg to Cumberland. A portion of pleted and pare are running or it is completed and cars are running on it, but the greater part is only partially graded, and the present company do, not seem to be able to fissish it. The city of Baltimure has a heavy lavestment in the road, her design in aiding the enterprise being to seeme a portion of the trade which finds its way through Pittsburg. It is a povision of Mr. Schikli's bill, see we see by the acceptance proport of it, that if the Pennsylrania Railroad Company a shall become the purchasers of the Con-ay shall become the purchasers of the Con selsville Railroad, they shall pay one mil from dollars in addition to the purchase money of said road, and in consideration t shall be released from the payment the tunning tax.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company

have, we believe, for some time past, own-Valley Railroad stock. If Mr Schklin's proposed and they purchase the Connels-ville Railroad and finish it, it might be their advantage to build a connecting road between Chambersburg and Bridgeport.

These interests can be secured, and our Representatives must secure them or furfeit the confidence of their sonstituents.

It would be to the interest of the l'enn-It would be to the interest of the Pennaylvana Railroad Company to connect the Cumberland Valley with the Comedwille road. If this is not done, the Sherman's Valley Railroad, an improvement sate of foot by New Yorkers for the special bearfit of New York, will sooner or later be made, and trade that naturally belongs to Philadelphia will be diverted to New York. We consider this matter one of vast importance. To the people of Franklin and adjoining counties it is vitally important. It is also important to Philadelphia, and indeed the whole State is despit interested.

indeed the whole State is deeply interes in it. A Railroad leading from Cham-bersburg through the mineral and tim-bered region west of us to Cumberland and Pittaburg, would afford us manufacturing facilities which, added to our other advan-tages, would soon make Chambersburg one-of the largust island tewns in the State, and clevate Franklin to the front rank of counties. It would double the value of all the property is Falton county and largu-ly increase her population. It would add to the trade of Phihodophin, sed by in-creasing the value of property all along the road, add to the receipts of the public treasury. eh, added to our other advan

It is not for us, use is it for any one out-side of Kentucky, to undertake to deside between the conflicting representations of highly respectable journals within the State, as to the Aome popularity of Mesers GUTHRIE and BRECKINGLISHS. But as OUTHER and BESCHINELMS. But as Democrats feeling a deep interest in the ruccess of the Democratic number, we have a right to express an opinion as to the relative strength of these distinguished the relative strength of these distinguished statesmen in the whole country, and we do not hereafter to affirm our deep countries too that Mr. Brackstynich as stronger than Mr. GUTHRIE by at least one had red thousand votes. It does not necessarily follow that we are hostile to Mr. GUTHRIE or think he could not be elected. On the contrary we entertain a very high opinion of his ability and integrity, and we should by no necessarily follows the substitution of his ability and integrity, and we should by no necessarile for success with him as our standard-bearer. But he must be a poor rader of public sentiment, must be a poor reader of public sentiment, who does not know that JOHN C. BEECK-INRIDGE is the strongest Southern man in the Union.

Speaker of the House.

The lawer House of Congress came very near electing a Speaker on Friday after-noon last. Mr Suith, an old whig from their advantage to build a connecting road between Chambersharg and Bridgeport, (twenty mites beyond Badford,) the careful control of the Connelaville road. The fatted calf who presides over the columns of this journal continues to bawl at Judge Black. If the Judge had put a public teat in HEISS mouth, he would a punic test in likes mouth, he would have secoped the abuse of the Scieta. There is an impression affinit that Senator Douglas instigates these frequent and envenomed assaults upon the Altorney General, but we presume this is a mistake. If a mistake, Mr. Douglas would do well Judge Black's friends are neither few nor uninfluential, and it will do the dis-tinguished Senstor from Illinois no good to have them entertain the idea that he prompts the States'to abuse Judge BLACK.
Indiana.

Some of the papers in Indiana that pre-ferred Gen. LANE for the Presidency, asferred Gen. LANE for the Presidency, _____ sert that two-thirds of the Democracy of him to Douglas. Then that State prefer him to Douglas. Then why didn't they turn out and carry the State Convention for Lang? From the way things went in the Convention, we should think two-thirds were for Douglas and the other third for "Scattering."

Hon. S. A. Donglas.

Senator Doublas delivered a speech early last week, in the Senate of the Unit-ed States, on the Harper's Ferry subject and the duty of the general government protecting the States from such invasions as that of old Brown The speech is highly apoken of by conservative men whe have read it. We shall endeavor to find room for it before long.

The country has been deluged by the falsehoods of this odious organisation, composed of all the cast-off shreds and patches of every political party that has ever existed. Every dodge, every trick, every fraud that could possibly mislead the people and distract attention from their real purpose has been resorted to by these political jugglers. They have put up Corwin to enact the clown and jester. They have put forward Grow to do the generous friend of the mail contractor. They have employed Hickman to do the dirty work; and the stock-actors of the company have been obliged to of the company have been obliged to assume all sorts of parts, from the se-verest tragedy down to the buffoonery of the circus. Last of all John Sherof the circus. Last of all John Sherman did the chivalry, and rowed before Heaven that, sooner than disavow Helfer in the face of General Clark's resolution, he would die in his seat. The object of all these varied efforts was to persuade the people that the Helferites, animated by a disinterested desire to organize the House, were always ready to make any sacrifice in order to effect that object. We believe that the American people have never been deceived. They have seen the sublanking frauds by which these black-republicas tricksters here atusuc-repusitions tricksters here at-tempted to secrifice their best and dearest interests; and they have un-derested the motives which presented the Rutherhea, and those which have necessate the majority of their, rappy-sentialities in reasoning the historius of an approver of the most heirons eriesse of their harms.

recollection of the country. It will not be forgotten how a few of them on one occasion professed their readines to vote for Mr. Gilmer, of North Cardina, and alect him if the democrats and South Americans would unite on him; how they because of their disoid terested ardor to elect a Speaker at any cost, and villified the majority because they did not accept their proposition. But why did not the majority accept their proposition For the simple reason that they did not trust the Greeks although bearing gifts; that they were convinced that the proposition, coming from the black-republicans, was a rank imposture; and that they would not allow themselves to be tricked. That they were right, and had formed a just estimate of the honor and good faith of the Helferites, was abundantly proved by the last vote taken for Speaker. When the roll was abundantly proved by the last vote taken for Speaker. When the roll was called, Mr. Smith, of North Carolina, received thirty-six votes, five of which were from members of the so-called People's Party, namely: Joy Morris, Seranton, Junkin, and Millward, of Pennsylvania, and Nixon of New Jersey. When this was ascertained, Mr. Mallory, of Kentucky, rose and announced that if the democratic forces political ere. of their one hase.

To his honor be it spoken and remembered, that Mr. Millward of Pennsylvania refused to follow the seceders. He had voted for Mr. Smith, and he would not follow his colleagues in their ignominious retreat. He would not be a party to the fraud. The people should know and remember that Congress would have been organised and their business attended to had they and their interests not been deliberately and faithlessly betrayed by JOHN SHERMAN, EDWARD JOY MORRIS, BENJAMIN F. JUNKIN, GEORGE W. SCRANTON, and

JOHN T. NIXON.

The people should know and remember how the democracy, forgetful of personal pride and party differences, and with a view to the interest of the nation alone, availed themselves of the first chance of electing a national man to the speakership of the House. The democrats have given fresh proof of their fidelity to their country and their nollseans of purpose. They have deserved well of their flowings. They have deserved well of their flowings.
