

After the August election in Kentucky the DOUGLAS paper, all over the country, were rejoicing with the Republicans at the defeat of the Democratic party. They gloated and gloried over it because that State was the home of BRECKINRIDGE. No matter if a Democratic State had gone for the Republicans, what was that to them, under the lead of Douglas they had seen many a Democrat, and many a Democratic State, stricken down and had become used to it. It was only a part of Mr. DOUGLAS's plan to destroy the Democratic party and, therefore, they could rejoice with the Republicans that so much of the work had been accomplished. Here is a sample of rejoicing from a DOUGLAS paper, the Huntington Globe, and it found its counterpart in almost every DOUGLAS paper in the country.

"Old Kaintuck" True to the Union! The results of the election in Kentucky, the home of Breckinridge, has dispelled the delusion of the Yankeevites and exposed the weakness of their infatuation cause to the world!

The people of Kentucky have exposed the dissemblers to the tune of $5,000 to $6,000! Last year this State gave the Democrats a majority of nearly 12,000!

Democrats of Pennsylvania, how can you, after witnessing the overwhelming repudiation of this Voter and Dissembler in our State, longer hesitate in your course? Every vote cast for him is a vote cast to elect Lincoln to the Presidency. Breckinridge cannot carry a single State in the Union, and he is only kept in the field to distract the Democratic party and elect the Republican nominee, in order to afford the Douglassites, who are subtle tool he is an engine to DISSOLVE OUR GLORIOUS UNION!"

"Old Kaintuck" was considered "True to the Union" because it had gone for the Republicans and the Douglass party were jubilant over it! Recent events in Kentucky have furnished the key to the agency the Douglass traitors had in effecting the result of that election. LESLIE COOMBS who was elected, was the Republican candidate. CLEMENT MCCARTY, a BRECKINRIDGE man, the regular Democratic candidate, and R. R. BOLLING the Douglass candidate—a nomination made by "bolters" from the regular Democratic Convention. It was stated at the time that this was a trick of the Douglass men to give the State into the hands of the Republicans.—Few, however, believed it—they were loath to think that Judge DOUGLAS and his personal adherents, could practice such infamous treachery towards the Democratic party. It has turned out but too true. Gen. Coomes was sworn into office, on the 12th inst., and on the very same day he appointed R. R. BOLLING, the Douglass Candidate, HIS DEPUTY! Thus has another Douglass traitor been rewarded for helping to defeat and distract the Democratic party.

Douglas Against Union.

At the commencement of the campaign Judge Douglas covered up his tracks so well that many good Democrats were deceived by him. The direction in which his steps are tending are becoming more and more apparent every day. It is now evident to the dullest comprehension that his grand scheme of treason to the democratic party is in the full tide of successful experiment. While in this State he opposed, with might and main, a fusion on the Electoral Ticket when he knew that without that fusion the electoral vote of the State must go for LINCOLN. Fusion would kill LINCOLN and so Douglass determined to kill fusion! Have we the evidence of this?—There are no Democrats in Franklin County, (save some half-a-dozen in Chambersburg,) who are not favorable to the plan of compromise adopted at Cresson; they have a right to know that we make no frivolous or unfounded charges against Judge Douglas. We honestly desire to convince them of their error, if they yet pin their faith to his skirts, so that they may retrace their steps in time. To do this falsehood would be the worst and weakest means we could use—it requires point-blank evidence—and here it is: The Press, the mouthpiece of Judge Douglas, contains this astounding declaration. Issays,

"That the straight Douglass Electoral ticket not only meets the approval of Stephen A. Douglas, but was absolutely appointed at his earnest request."

Is this not sufficient to establish the fact, beyond all cavil or doubt, that it is the aim of Judge Douglas to divide and distract the great National Democratic party to secure the triumph of Black Republicanism? Will anyone say after this that Douglass is not opposed to fusion, and is not, fusion the only hope of the Democracy in this State? Let the Douglassites then be

VALLEY SPIRIT.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 14.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 10, 1860.

NUMBER 16.

true to itself despite the disorganizing schemes of DOUGLAS and FORNEY. The course to pursue is a plain one—let all Democrats, who intend to remain such, cut loose from traitors and disorganizers and stand by the men who have ever stood faithful by the Democratic party, the Constitution and the Union.

Democrats be on your Guard!

FRAUD! FRAUD! FRAUD!!!

A timely warning.

As the crisis draws near the opponents of Gen. Foster, lead by Forney, are becoming more and more desperate in their wicked efforts to defeat him. They are now convinced that he is the favorite of the people, and that his election is a sure thing unless they can concoct some story to be brought out on the eve of the election for the purpose of deceiving honest voters. We are credibly informed that a plot of this character has already been hatched by Forney and will be produced just before the election to injure Foster. The desperation of these political villains is deepening into frenzy, and we may expect the boldest rascality to be played off between this and the election. There is no fraud or falsehood too gross or diabolical for these infamous wretches to leave untried to carry their dishonest ends. They will beat Foster if fraud, falsehood and treachery can accomplish it—that is now their only hope—their only means of electioneering against him. It behooves the active and true men of the party to be on their guard and prevent any Democrat from being imposed upon by the base trickery and rascality Forney is preparing to practice upon the Democratic party.

To be fore-warned is to be fore-armed, and we once more warn all Democrats to beware of falsehood and fraud, and to trust no story, put no belief in any report that has for its object the injury of Henry D. Foster.

Henry D. Foster.

The news continues favorable to the election of our candidate for Governor. The purity of his public and private character, and the beautiful consistency of his whole career as a representative of the people, have made an impression on the popular mind and heart, which all the misrepresentations of Curtin and his next friend McClure have been unable to shake.

The people of Pennsylvania have made up their mind that they will have an honest Governor this time; and knowing that Henry D. Foster is as honest a man as there is on the face of the earth, they are fully determined to elect him. In vain does Curtin blow his own trumpet from the stump; in vain does McClure labor to make the worse appear the better reason;—the people have read the record of the public life of Henry D. Foster, and they are resolved to give it stamp of their approval.

The Democracy of Franklin will not be behind their political friends in other parts of the State, in the earnestness of their support of their glorious nominee. They responded with enthusiasm to his nomination by the Reading Convention, and they will prove at the polls that time has only strengthened their determination to do him honor.

Andrew G. Curtin,

We do not say it because he is a political opponent, but because we are firmly persuaded of its truth, that Curtin is one of the most outrageously corrupt men that ever disgraced a public office in any State of the Union. He played the disreputable part of an office broker when he held the responsible position of Secretary of the Commonwealth, and by his recklessness corruption brought dishonor on the administration of poor honest and unsuspecting Pollock.

Put Curtin in the Governor's chair, and he would surround himself with a band of public plunderers whose exploits would soon rival those of the famous "Forty Thieves." Beside his administration, that of Ritner and Stevens, with all its enormities, would rise to comparative respectability. Offices would be sold to the highest bidder, and arms would be thrust into the public treasury up to the elbow.

Curtin is not the kind of man to wait the times. Corruption in legislation has already run to an alarming height—it needs but the signature of a Governor who would sanction any of legislative infamy that might be attempted by faithless representatives.

The Douglass Bigot Game.

The annals of politics contain no parallel for the efforts of Mr. Douglass and his friends in bringing. They falsely claim that Chief Justice Tracy and all the Judges of the Supreme Court, except Mr. McLean, are his cordial supporters. They adduce no proof, however, of the truth of the assertion, for the reason that they cannot do so, because it is true. The Chief Justice and his associates do not mingle in political contests; but they, like other men, form opinions, though they seldom express them publicly. We venture to say without fear of successful contradiction, that not one of the judges believes in Mr. Douglass' quarter sovereignity doctrine or his higher law. They ruled against it unanimously in the Dred Scott decision, although Justice McLean and Curtis were of opinion that Congress had power to enact the Missouri Compromise law. Not one of them asserted anything that could be tortured into the doctrine contained in Mr. Douglass' Harper's Magazine article, while some of them are known to have ridiculed it for its historical blunders and logical weakness. The Chief Justice's relatives and friends, who have always been understood to reflect his sentiments, oppose Mr. Douglass and cordially support Mr. Breckinridge; and his son-in-law, Mr. J. Mason Campbell, president at a Breckinridge and Linn ratification meeting at Baltimore. Besides, we all know that Mr. Breckinridge stands upon the precise constitutional and legal grounds laid down by the Chief Justice and his brethren, (except McLean and Curtis,) and that he and they understand their decision to Mr. Breckinridge does, and not as Mr. Douglass gives out that he understands it.

The judges say that neither Congress nor their agent, the Territories, can destroy or nullify rights in property there; but Mr. Douglass claims his election upon the ground that the Territories can do so. No one can believe that the judges will nullify themselves by voting for a candidate whose great merit is claimed to be that he denies the correctness of their decision, and who has denied the binding effect of their adjudication upon the Territorial legislatures. The public may rest assured that every one of the Supreme Court is opposed to Mr. Douglass' quarter sovereignity doctrine. This is the universal understanding of all their friends whom we have consulted, and so prove to the contrary has been, or can be, produced.—Constitution.

The Great Uprising for Foster.

All over the State we observe a remarkable and simultaneous uprising of the people in behalf of Henry D. Foster, the Democratic candidate for Governor. As it by a common impulse, Democrats have agreed to forget their dissensions and go to work earnestly and effectively to secure the election of Mr. Foster. Everywhere Foster Clubs have been organized, and the alacrity and enthusiasm displayed in promoting the good cause, strikes even Democrats with gratifying astonishment. The masterly speech delivered by General Foster in Independence Square has electrified the dormant energies of the party, and attracted to his standard thousands who were before luke-warm or indifferent spectators of the contest. This uprising of the people is not confined to any single locality or district, but pervades every part of the State, and gives assurance that General Foster cannot be beaten.

We exhort Democrats to persevere in this good work. Devote all your spare time from this until the day of election towards promoting the election of Foster. Leave no stone unturned. See, in the first place, that the name of every Foster man is upon the assessors' lists. This must be attended to immediately. Then see that a record is made of every available vote in your ward or township, so that no man may be overlooked; and on the day of election observe that they all vote. Encourage the doubtful and attend to the laggard, who would vote right if brought to the polls, but need to be reminded of their duty. Well directed activity is of immense importance. Let not a single vote be lost from neglect. If the Democratic vote of the State is brought out, there can be no doubt about the result. From this time until the close of the polls on the 9th of October let every friend of Foster do his very best, and he is sure to be elected by a majority which will make the defeat of Lincoln certain, and send a thrill of joy throughout the whole country. Pennsylvania has but to give the word of encouragement by defeating Curtin, to set to the winds this malevolent army of anti-slavery fanatics, marshalled under the banner of Lincoln, and overthrown them in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana in November.

Pause not then in the good work. Let not the grass grow under your feet. Our sole candidate for Governor is doing his utmost to secure the people, and is redressed with moderation, whatever he goes. We would prefer to out-shout him to the country, take to the stump, if we permitted a man like Henry D. Foster to be defeated through our indifference. Let every man do his duty, and bid the 10th of October that the sun will rise upon a country rejoicing over its great deliverance.

Successful enterprises have been made upon the New Jersey General Railroad, in the application of electricity to the movement of live stock, and in the construction of a bridge across the Susquehanna River, in order to prevent the slipping away driving heavy loads up inclined planes.

from danger, and Pennsylvania have the satisfaction of hailing Henry D. Foster as her next Governor.

Congress and the County Ticket.

Too much importance cannot be attached to the election of the Ticket. The Democrats of the country have presented to them for their suffrages a ticket that is entitled to their cordial support. They adduce no proof, however, of the truth of the assertion, for the reason that they cannot do so, because it is true. The Chief Justice and his associates do not mingle in political contests; but they, like other men, form opinions, though they seldom express them publicly. We venture to say without fear of successful contradiction, that not one of the judges believes in Mr. Douglass' quarter sovereignity doctrine or his higher law. They ruled against it unanimously in the Dred Scott decision, although Justice McLean and Curtis were of opinion that Congress had power to enact the Missouri Compromise law.

The judges say that neither Congress nor their agent, the Territories, can destroy or nullify rights in property there; but Mr. Douglass claims his election upon the ground that the Territories can do so. No one can believe that the judges will nullify themselves by voting for a candidate whose great merit is claimed to be that he denies the correctness of their decision, and who has denied the binding effect of their adjudication upon the Territorial legislatures. The public may rest assured that every one of the Supreme Court is opposed to Mr. Douglass' quarter sovereignity doctrine. This is the universal understanding of all their friends whom we have consulted, and so prove to the contrary has been, or can be, produced.—Constitution.

Germans to the Rescue!

There is a deep laid scheme to trick you, if possible, in relation to your votes at this election. Will you trust the Native American Know Nothing party—they are your deadliest enemies and have ever deceived and betrayed you. Republican is but another name for the party that was bound together by horrid oaths to prevent you from enjoying equality in your adopted country. This party changes its name at every election; the one becomes so odious that they cannot fight two be the leader it and must change it for another.—The Native American, Know Nothing Abolition—Republicans-People's party are all one and the same thing. Their standing principles, and about the only ones they have got and stick to, are opposition to foreigners and love for the nigger. They prefer a nigger to a German any day, and have passed laws allowing a nigger to vote in six months where a German is kept back two years! This party is not your real friends nor do they trust them. The Democratic party has always been the true and steadfast friends to the foreigner, and whenever it has had the power have shaped our laws in the most liberal manner, careful too that your rights and privileges are safe for them are strictly guarded. Vote with the Democratic party and you will not only vote for the natural sentiments of your heart, but will sustain the party, and the only party, to which you can look in the hour of danger when another Know-Nothing crusade is made against your rights. Where would you stand to-day if Douglass had not crushed out Know-Nothing? You would have no vote at all, and will you use that vote to strike down the party that has ever proved your best friend? Can you—will you be so ungrateful?

The Legislature.

As the Republicans count largely on carrying a majority of Legislative candidates, it may be well to give the people a hint of what kind of a thing a Republican Legislature is. We had one last winter, and when it adjourned the Philadelphia Inquirer, a Lincoln paper, paid the following tribute to its meanness:

"Both Houses of the Legislature have adjourned, and for that one act we render them our hearty thanks; for never in the history of Pennsylvania has a session been marked by more corrupt, wicked intrigues than the present. Every good citizen feels the blush of honest indignation tingling his cheeks when he thinks of their proceedings. No measure, however beneficial, could stand the slightest chance of passing, unless by profuse expenditures of money. Almost every man, with some noble exceptions, had his price, and, if common rumor be true, it was an enormous sum. If it could not be paid in the hard cash, secure prospective profits were just as good."

Rally the Forces!

It is now clearly evident that Gen. Foster will be elected Governor, unless the Democrats fail to do their duty.—Within the last ten days a cheering enthusiasm has manifested itself in every corner of the State. It is a spontaneous outburst of enthusiastic feeling among the people, which, like the breaking waves, will gather until it becomes a hurricane that will overwhelm the opposition. Rally the forces Democratic! Keep the ball rolling! Make your arrangements at once to get every Democrat to the polls, and, if this is done, we promise you one of the most glorious victories on record.

Successful enterprises have been made upon the New Jersey General Railroad, in the application of electricity to the movement of live stock, and in the construction of a bridge across the Susquehanna River, in order to prevent the slipping away driving heavy loads up inclined planes.

Henry D. Foster.

Since the meeting at Cresson, which recommended an union upon the Electoral Ticket, which will secure the masses of the Democratic party and the election of Henry D. Foster as Governor, it is unusual to notice the alarm this action has given to the Black Republican press.

Previous to the meeting at Cresson the Abolition papers of the State were silent upon the subject of Governor, but now all their batteries of abuse and destruction are opened upon Henry D. Foster, but weakly, let them fire away. No man in this broad Commonwealth is more invulnerable.

Previous to the meeting at Cresson the Abolition papers of the State were silent upon the subject of Governor, but now all their batteries of abuse and destruction are opened upon Henry D. Foster, but weakly, let them fire away.

No man in this broad Commonwealth is more invulnerable.

He is so armed in truth and right that the shafts of malice will fall harmless at his feet; besides, it is too late. It is now impossible to stem the current that is now sweeping us over to victory; and at all events that current is not to be stemmed by such disreputable means as that resorted to by the Black Republican press of this State; and perhaps there is no man in the State upon whom such attacks would be more futile and ridiculous, because none could present a pure or clearer record. His life is unstained by a single act which, by any distortion, could be made discreditible to him. Where he is best known he is most regarded and esteemed. He has never done an act with a view to courting public applause; he has won substantial regard by his many high and excellent qualities; his honesty is unquestionable; his integrity above suspicion, and his kindness of heart proverbial; while as a lawyer he knows no superior. The whole Western part of the State where he is well known and appreciated, seems with his praise. He has a deep hold upon the hearts of its citizens, and no attacks from John Corvo, or little evasions made of the same calibre, can deteriorate from the high estimation in which Henry D. Foster is held by all who know him. His character is too well established to be effected by the assaults of Black Republican enemies.

Gen. Foster is the favorite of the masses of the Commonwealth, and hence, the alarm of the Republican press. They feel and know that the hearts of the people are with him; that the great conservative portion of the citizens of the Commonwealth, trusting in his decision of character, his truth, his ability and his honesty, will yield him their support.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin. They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long." An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland." Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

They are familiar with the superficial and uncertain qualifications of Col. Curtin.

They remember his actions while Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Pollock. They know that he is not reliable; that by profession, by nature, he is a politician, without fixed principles, "everything by turns, and nothing long."

An atmosphere of suspicion and distrust surrounds him, and, they know, not without cause. Hence he bears an unfavorable comparison with the honest son of "Old Westmoreland."

Hence his defeat is inevitable; and hence the assaults upon Henry D. Foster, a man who is emphatically above suspicion or reproach.

</

VALLEY SPIRIT.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

Wednesday Morning, Oct. 9, 1860.

Geo. H. BRECKINRIDGE.

Publisher and Proprietor.

OUR FIRST CANDIDATE.

"The main object of all good Democrats is, to defeat the election of the Republican candidate."

FOR PRESIDENT,
JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE,
Of Kentucky.

The Constitution and the Democracy of the South. The Constitutional Union Party of the South. BRECKINRIDGE.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GEN. JOSEPH LANE,
Of Oregon.

We know no better or better than the other, than the Constitution and the States under it, and BRECKINRIDGE.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

Electors of LargeStates.Electors of Small

1. Frederick A. Sesser, 14 Isaac Beckwith
2. Wm. C. Paterson, 15 Gen. D. Jacobson
3. Joseph Crockett, 16 J. A. Atkinson
4. J. Q. Bremer, 17 J. C. D. Danvers
5. W. G. Jacoby, 18 J. C. Crawford
6. Charles C. Collier, 19 H. N. Longfellow
7. G. P. Jones, 20 J. B. Howell
8. David Schell, 21 N. P. Fetterman
9. J. L. Lightner, 22 Samuel Marshall
10. S. S. Barber, 23 William Buck
11. T. H. Walker, 24 B. D. Hamlin
12. S. S. Winchell, 25 Gaylord Church
13. Joseph Leubach.

Resolution Adopted by the State Executive Committee, Aug. 9, 1860.

Resolved, That the Democratic Electoral ticket be headed with the name of Douglas or Breckinridge as an Elector at large, and in the event of the success of said ticket, if a greater number shall have been cast for Douglas, then the vote of the Electoral College of the State shall be cast for Douglas and Johnson, but if for Breckinridge, then for Breckinridge and Lane. If the vote of Pennsylvania cannot elect the candidates for whom the majority of votes are given, then the票 will be cast for Breckinridge, claiming to be a Democrat; then, that the vote of the Electoral College shall be cast for that candidate; if it will not elect either of the Democrats for whom it is cast, or any of the Democrats who are voted for in the State, then the vote shall be cast for the candidate who has the majority of the votes of the State, and the Chairman of this Committee be requested to obtain from the Electors their several and distinct pledges of acquiescence in the foregoing resolution, and report the result of his action at a future meeting of the Committee.

FOR GOVERNOR,

HENRY D. FOSTER,
Of Westmoreland.

FOR CONGRESS,

HON. WM. P. SCHELL, of Bedford

FOR ASSEMBLY,

D. K. WUNDERLICH, of Ch'g. g.
Dr. A. C. V. McNEAL, of Fulton

FOR PROTHONOTARY,

HIRAM C. KEYSER, of Loudon.

FOR REGISTER AND RECORDER,

GEORGE W. TOMS, of Quincy.

FOR CLERK OF THE COURTS,

B. Y. HAMSHER, of Lurgan.

FOR COMMISSIONER,

CORNELIUS LAUDERBAUGH,
of Mercersburg.

FOR DIRECTOR OF THE POOL,

S. BRECKENRIDGE, of Green.

FOR AUDITOR,

WM. JOHNSTON, of Concord.

County Committees.

Danton Brewer,	W. & Steamer,
J. Wyeth Douglas,	John F. Johnson,
Alexander Martin,	Matthew Conner,
Dr. Wm. H. Boyle,	John Gilbert,
Samuel Ulmster,	John G. Miller,
John H. Clegg,	Frederick Collings,
Joseph Dickey,	William Baker,
D. M. Reaser,	John Newell,
John E. Dickey,	Randall Black,
Simon Lockhart,	M. C. Chen,
Augustine Shober,	Parker Morris,
John E. Dickey,	Henry Kelly,
Wm. D. McKinstry,	W. Gibbons,
Daniel Stahl.

Letter of Approval.

Benson, Pa., Oct. 4, 1860.

Mr. Editor: The course of the "Spirit," is tearing down the names of the disingenuous, Douglass and Johnson, and rousing up those of Breckinridge and Lane is spoken of by the Democracy here in the highest terms of approval. We admire your manly and independent action, and it is worthy of the Democracy of Pennsylvania. The state demanded the change. Public feeling is aroused and men are looking in earnest to see what is right and what is wrong. No matter how small our Democratic favoritism the election of Douglass after the Convention, the course which both he and Johnson have pursued is one which no true democrat can endorse. They have both been educated from one end of the country to the other, and while the men they have given to the opposition, among Douglass and Johnson, have exerted power over the Hayeses of the States which give strength and security to the State.

BEDFORD.

Vote the Whole Ticket.

We would urge upon all Democrats to VOTE THE WHOLE TICKET. The ticketholders top to bottom is composed of men of the requisite ability and integrity, who will make faithful and efficient officers. Let the ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket, be your rallying cry, and victory will be certain.

McPherson and the Negro.

The everlasting love for the negro which the Republican party and its orators are professing, exhibits very clearly the use they intend to make out of the negro shortly. The same party professed the same love and admiration for the negro in Massachusetts and the upshot of the master was that they passed laws allowing him to vote. A negro will now, in that Republican State, jostle a white man from the polls with as much impudence, and all the inflated airs that a darky can put on when he is told that he is equal to a white man. In that State, just as the Republican party are doing here now, they made a great ado about the negro and wound it all up by making him a voter. The consequence is that all the negroes in Massachusetts vote with the Republican party. That is just what they are aiming at here, and if the Republican party get into power in this State, and in the Nation, we may look for nothing else than that they will pass laws allowing the negroes to vote. Who that has listened to the speeches of Mr. McPherson, over this Congressional District, will doubt for a moment that that is the grand aim of his party. The negro, and nothing but the negro, seems to occupy his mind. He makes him the burden of his electioneering speeches. There is not a darky in the county that would not go to the polls and vote for McPherson, if the Republican laws of Massachusetts existed here, so well has he earned their admiration. He preaches up, whenever he can get a crowd together by a balloon or some other show, that all the negroes should be set free in the South so that they could come swarming into the North to make voters for the Republican party. What does it matter to him if they did come in competition with the wages of the poor laboring white man. Their votes would elect him to Congress, put money in his pocket, and that is all he cares about. He makes large pretensions to being friendly to a high Tariff which he asserts would be benefit to the laboring classes, while at the same time he would supply Furnaces and Forges, and laboring hands generally, with the freed negroes of the South who would flock here in such numbers that the wages of the laboring man would be reduced to the lowest fraction. Will the intelligent voters, among the laboring class of Franklin county, be humbugged by such a shallow demagogue as McPherson has proved himself to be? He made very extensive promises about high Tariff, reducing Expenditures, and all that, if they would elect him to Congress, he was elected, and what did he accomplish? Did you ever hear of him? Did you ever feel that you received any benefit by electing him? What did he do for the Tariff? What expenditures did he reduce? Has he not helped to increase these very expenditures of Government by pocketing his enormous salary which he never earned as Congress man. He has deceived you once will you trust him again? Do you not know by this time that he is not the right kind of a man to send to Congress. He is of entirely too small a calibre—he can never be a leader—he has not the capacity to hold any other than a very low position in Congress. What credit or what benefit can such a man be to your district? Is it any wonder that he wants negroes to vote when he feels that he is despised by every intelligent white voter. The little he did do in Congress was to carry favor with the Abolitionists. Wherever he could help a Helperite there was his vote found recorded. The abominable doctrine he has endorsed by his votes should forever debar him from being sent back to Congress.

The Republican party does not attempt longer to disguise its object in regard to the negro. It makes no concealment of its intention to make voters out of them. The Boston Atlas, the acknowledged organ of the Republican party in Massachusetts, says, openly and above board, that "a negro should enjoy all the rights of a white citizen," and is indignant at the idea that, as it says, "a raw Irishman and an ignorant Dutchman should enjoy privileges denied to the negro!" The same high Republican sources furnish us the following—"negroes should dwell side by side on terms of equality with the whites," and this said Republican organ further expresses its admiration for the system of negro voting by saying—"A Black man's vote is just as good and counts as much as Mr. Winthrop's or Mr. Everett's." This is the doctrine of the Republicans party of the North and some of the results they desire to bring about.—Send McPherson to Congress and those are the principles he will advocate. Has he not said as much in every speech he has made in this campaign. You have heard him on the negro and you know all about his adoration for that "institution."

Voters of Franklin County will you support the man who would place you on a level with the negro? Can you vote for the men of a party that maintain that "the vote of a negro is as good as yours?" Remember these facts and on Tuesday next vote against the man that would thus degrade you.

Tuesday Next.

On Tuesday next, the 9th of October, the freemen of Pennsylvania will have to decide at the ballot-boxes who shall be their Chief Magistrate for the ensuing three years—whether it shall be HENRY D. FOSTER, the Democratic candidate, or ANDREW G. CURTIN, the Republican candidate.

On the one hand is presented a pure, honest and able statesman, against whose character, personal or political, we defy criticism, and challenge his enemies, if he has any, to point out to a single disreputable act in his private or public life. A devoted friend of the interests of his native State, the Democracy point with pride and pleasure to Gen. FOSTER and claim that he is worthy to receive the suffrages of all his fellow-citizens.

On the other side ANDREW G. CURTIN, than whom a more unprincipled or unscrupulous politician does not exist in the State. He was a Whig, then bitter and malignant Know Nothing, and now he professes to be a regular "high-tariff" Black Republican. During the Know Nothing administration of Governor POLLOCK, he was Secretary of the Commonwealth, and was generally considered to be the "power behind the throne, greater than the throne itself," and is justly chargeable with all the odious and obnoxious measures of that term of misrule. In point of ability and statesmanship he is below mediocrity, and as to his honesty the less that is said about it the better for himself.

Such, fellow citizens of Franklin county, are the men between whom you are to make a selection on Tuesday next. Look at them; weigh well their respective characters and qualifications for the Gubernatorial office, and then decide for yourselves which of them is most worthy of your suffrages.

Our County Ticket.

We are apprehensive that the Democracy of the county are not sufficiently aroused to the dangers that surround their excellent County ticket. We are somewhat fearful that the great popularity of our candidates have created a feeling of security that may prove fatal.

We feel it to be our duty as faithful sentinels to warn every man in the party, and we desire every man to take the warning to himself, that there is no safety to our ticket save in ANEXHORIC INDIVIDUAL EXISTENCE.

We never had a stronger ticket and the opposition never had a weaker one and in that lies our greatest danger.

It is apt to create a feeling of indifference, and while we think we are secure in its strength we may fall victim to the cunning and wiles of our foes. We must not suffer such good men as SCHELL, WUNDERLICH, MCNEAL, KEYSER, TOME, HAMMER, LAUDERBAUGH, BRACKINRIDGE and JOHNSTON to be defeated when by proper effort, on the part of each member of the party, they can be triumphantly elected. We call upon each individual in the party to make every effort that man may honorably make to secure the certain success of our candidates.

We appeal to the active men of the Democratic party, over the county, to be up and doing. Attend the polls and see that no voter is imposed upon. Wicked and infamous means may be used to harass our opponents upon the eve, or the day, of the election, when it is too late to counteract them, which may tell fearfully against us. See that every Democratic vote in your district is polled—that no illegal votes are received, and that no voter is in any way intimidated or deceived. In short, make every honorable effort to secure victory for your candidates.

Driving up the Contest.

The hearing over of the Republican party give up the election of Curtin.—Foster's majority, with a full turn out of the Democratic vote, will not be less than 15,000—and we should not be astonished if it should run up to 20,000. Foster has been gaining strength from the day he was nominated, while Curtin has been losing heavily in every county in the State. The people want a strictly honest man for Governor, and that man is honest Henry D. Foster.

Be not Deceived by Them.

Democrats, be not deceived by the stock and barrel stories circulated on the eve of election. The enemy means to sweep the country, driving voters into the support of their ticket.

The Times and its "Choice Extracts."

The Times after satisfying its numerous readers with "choice extracts" from Shakespeare now condescends to treat them to a column of "extracts" from the Spirit, as the only means its feeble capacity can devise to bolster up the wan prospects of the "little Squatter." It has somehow imbibed the silly notion that the "extracts" were never read before—that nobody knew of their existence until it was published in the Spirit. The Times is compelled by its five hundred dollar "endorse," to publish its vindictive assaults upon Democrats! The better the Democrat the worse invariably has the Louisville Journal abused him. This course of the Journal is known to every Democrat in the country, and yet, in the face of all this, the Times has the shameful audacity to republish a column of matter from this vile sheet to assist in its work of distracting the Democratic party. It must indeed be hard up for material wherewith to reproach and insult the Democracy when it will seek in the Louisville Journal to find it! Shame, shame. Why not, "oh! most consistent" Times, have the baseness to go over to the Republicans at once and not in such an under-hand way strive to injure the Democratic party by republishing the vile trash of the Louisville Journal? Won't your "endorse" permit it—is he not quite free will enough yet? Try on another article from your Republicans ally the Louisville Journal, and it may do the business for him and you both. Why not?

Stand Up.

We most do honor evidence that the Douglass wing of the party is in league with the Republicans, for the purpose of defeating the Democratic party, than the fact that their journals burst up and republish all the rabid stuff that appears in the opposition papers against Democratic candidates. Thus anti-Democratic disorganizing about the Lincoln-Douglas Times, of this place, has a fine specimen, in its last issue, of this colluding with Republicans to injure Democrats. It republishes an article from the Louisville Journal—of the paper of which the notorious Preston is editor—the man who has been all his days the bitterest and most foul-mouthed reviler of the Democratic party in the country. There has not been a man or a measure, of any note, in the party that has not received the vile abuse from the Louisville Journal, and yet the Times is compelled by its five hundred dollar "endorse," to publish its vindictive assaults upon Democrats! The better the Democrat the worse invariably has the Louisville Journal abused him. This course of the Journal is known to every Democrat in the country, and yet, in the face of all this, the Times has the shameful audacity to republish a column of matter from this vile sheet to assist in its work of distracting the Democratic party. It must indeed be hard up for material wherewith to reproach and insult the Democracy when it will seek in the Louisville Journal to find it! Shame, shame. Why not, "oh! most consistent" Times, have the baseness to go over to the Republicans at once and not in such an under-hand way strive to injure the Democratic party by republishing the vile trash of the Louisville Journal? Won't your "endorse" permit it—is he not quite free will enough yet? Try on another article from your Republicans ally the Louisville Journal, and it may do the business for him and you both. Why not?

Andrew G. Curtin.

The record of this man is not a very long one. His virtues require no extended line for their enumeration; while, although his career has been of short duration as a politician, he has managed to crowd into the brief space an amount of corruption, that would swell into volumes.

We do not say it because we are opposed to him, but because we believe, and are firmly persuaded of its truth, that he is one of the most corrupt politicians in the State.

With just head enough to invent mischief, and yet without either heart or head enough to see or feel its consequences, his political history has evinced that he is prone only to evil, and that continually.

He sprang into notoriety upon the funeral of Know-Nothingism; he grew great upon its living exortiveness, and he would fatten, if possible upon its decayed corruption.

He became the Secretary of the Commonwealth under the avaricious but negative Gov. Pollock; and, while the tendencies of that gentleman were towards what he deemed right, yet his want of decision of character—if not the imbecility of his administration—opened a field for the peculiar talents of his bold, reckless and corrupt Secretary.

While the Governor was endeavoring to pass himself safely through the ordeal of mixed Know-Nothing, Abolition, and Whig bastard politics of the "People's party" with a clear conscience and unstained veracity, Colonel Curtis was industriously engaged in every out-door piece of job work, which could by any possibility be made advantageous towards his personal emolument or elevation.

He played the disreputable and disgraceful part of an office-broker, as every seeker of an appointment or of Government patronage well knew, for it was well understood, that at the head of the stairs in his way to the Executive Chamber, he was to be met with a clear conscience and unstained veracity, Colonel Curtis was industriously engaged in every out-door piece of job work, which could by any possibility be made advantageous towards his personal emolument or elevation.

Prepare for a Rainy Day.

Let no Democrat stay away from the polls on Tuesday next, rain or shine. Remember that one vote has decided important contests, and one vote may decide the contest for Governor of Pennsylvania on Tuesday—unless let every Democratic voter feel as though the result depended on his vote, and let his vote be cast accordingly. Prepare in time for a rainy day.

Democrats be active on Tuesday next—get out and get in the whole vote of your district. The time of year is nearly past and now comes the time for action. Attend the polls all day and be vigilant. See that no voter is deceived or imposed upon by Spurious Tickets. The Republicans are now engaged in circulating such tickets over the county for the purpose of deceiving Democrats. Do a full day's work and your whole duty on Tuesday next and history is ours.

The Forney Party.

The evidence is positive, and new facts are accumulating every day, going to show that FORNEY has the sole management of the Douglass wing of the party in this State. It is no longer a Douglass party—it is a FORNEY party, controlled by him for the benefit of the Black Republicans as a reward for placing him in office, and, at the same time, take revenge on the Democratic party which would no longer trust him. He is not rebellious against the Democratic organization of the State, repudiated the action of the Reading Convention, and opposed every plan to keep the party united and insure the defeat of the Republicans! We do not believe that there is a Democrat in the State who honestly doubts this; then why be lead astray by him? Is he your master and are you his slaves? You will answer indignantly "NO." Then why trust Judge DOUGLAS any more than FORNEY? He is in the same rotten boat with FORNEY. He is opposed to fusion—he is opposed to the Democratic party, in this State, uniting on the regular Electoral ticket, which he knows, and which every Democrat feels would be the defeat of LINCOLN, and yet he joins bands with FORNEY and encourages him in his work of treason to the Democratic party in Pennsylvania. He is a worse enemy to the party than FORNEY—his position makes him more dangerous. He is attempting to do in the Nation what FORNEY has accomplished in the State—keep the Democratic party divided and thereby defeat it. We very well know that there are many honest Democrats in the Douglass wing of the party who are unwilling to believe these charges against Judge DOUGLAS. We do not wonder at it—it is difficult to bring the mind to realize that one we have held in such high estimation on whom the Democratic party has bestowed honor upon honor—could forsake, deceive and betray his party and his friends.

"whose treason like a deadly blight, Comes o'er the council of the brave, And blinds them in their hour of might."

We say it is hard to realize this—it is natural for the human mind to resist to the last the evidence of such shameful depravity. But have we not the example of HICKMAN, WILMOT, HALE and FORNEY before our eyes. Need we then hesitate to believe that one whose record is so much like theirs—that the restless, plotting, revengeful spirit of STEPHEN ARNOLD DOUGLAS may not resort to "treachery's all-conquering power" to gratify his overweening ambition, and, at the same time, wreak his vengeance on those, who for the good of their country, have found it necessary to check his demagogical career. WASHINGTON would not believe in the treachery of ARNOLD until the truth could no longer be resisted, we are, therefore not surprised to find a portion of the Democratic party slow to believe in the treachery of another ARNOLD.

The "Endorser."

Mr. Nill endorsed for five hundred dollars for Mr. Kennedy to furnish "ammunition" to keep the Times moving, and is still very active in getting it patronage so that he may be sure to get his money back, and yet the ungrateful Times taunts him every week with being "endorser." This is cruel—why not pay off the note and ease his mind and not have him hunting up patronage to meet installments? The Times has recently made several vague accusations to "endorser," in its usual sarcastic style, and we deemed this explanation necessary to let the public know its meaning.

Work Hard.

Democrats be active on Tuesday next—get out and get in the whole vote of your district. The time of year is nearly past and now comes the time for action. Attend the polls all day and be vigilant. See that no voter is deceived or imposed upon by Spurious Tickets. The Republicans are now engaged in circulating such tickets over the county for the purpose of deceiving Democrats. Do a full day's work and your whole duty on Tuesday next and history is ours.

Democrats Rally!

Rally to the support of your whole County Ticket, it is composed of honest and competent men, give them the vote they are worthy to receive. In their hands you have control the management of the business of the county, and it never was better. Men were faithfully appointed to—protect and defend them again. Go to work and effect them!

Remember It.

Voters of Franklin County remember that while Hon. W. P. SCHILLER was a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, and when almost every man in that body, was accused of venality and corruption, the character of Mr. SCHILLER was never assailed. He was not only considered scrupulously honest but above the suspicion of being engaged in any dishonorable transaction. His sterling honesty, eminent abilities, and thorough knowledge of the wants and wishes of the people, point to him as the man in whose hands the interests and welfare of Pennsylvania would be safely and faithfully guarded.

Going! Going!! Gone!!!

Honest Democrats of Franklin County can you any longer follow the fortunes of such a treacherous leader as STEPHEN ARNOLD DOUGLAS? He has said that he has his "baggage checked through for the Republican's party's headquarters," has he yours "checked" also? Will you allow him to lead you like "sheep to the shambles" into the camp of Black Republicanism? We are compelled to state, by way of warning to the rest of the party in the county, that several prominent Douglastas have already gone over to the Republicans, among them the Secretary of the DOUGLAS and JOHNSON Club, of this place, and others are preparing to follow. Much as we dislike to let these facts be known, and much as we regret to lose the valuable services these men have always, heretofore, rendered the Democratic party, the future safety of the party demands of us to point out the direction in which Douglastism is drifting that others may not be inveigled into following the same deceitful current.

All Right for Lincoln!

Forney's ally, the Times of this place, takes great pleasure in denouncing the change in the Spirit but has nary a word to say about the Secretary of the Douglas club, and several other prominent Douglastas, who have gone, "where the good Douglastas go," over to the Republicans. It is all very right in their estimation to change and go for LINCOLN, but for a Democrat to change for BRACKENRIDGE is a most heinous offence and not to be forgiven. They are opposed to fusion in their own party but are willing to fuse with any party that will defeat the Democracy. This is the course of all the Douglas papers from Forney's Press down to Nill's Times. Are they not deserving "the confidence of the party, and the respect of those with whom they deal" with a vengeance?

Slavery Agitation.

The Transcript seems disposed to screen Mr. Douglas from the responsibility of keeping alive the Slavery agitation, and attempts to palm it upon the Democratic party. It must know that the Democratic party does not now, and never did, hold itself responsible for the erratic doctrines of Mr. Douglas in regard to Slavery, and which have kept alive the agitation when it otherwise would have died out. When he was right the Democratic party was with him, but when he got wrong it was not disposed to follow him. The Transcript seems to forget that not very long ago it was putting Mr. Douglas very lovingly at the back because his Slavery notions then exactly suited them, and that the Democratic party, at that time, stood aloof from him. He has kept up the agitation, and never got right, and the Democratic party still stands aloof from him on that question.

We would like the Transcript to point out the difference between the doctrines of Douglass and those of Lincoln, Hailie, Chase, Giddings, and the whole Federal Abolition pack of agitators and mischief-makers. All of these agree in setting at defiance the decision of the Supreme Court, declared by the Constitution of the United States to be "the supreme law of the land;" they proclaim the same dangerous and infamous doctrine, that Congress, and if Congress, that the citizen also, will not be bound by the decision of the highest tribunal known to the Constitution to interpret the laws of the country.

If this is not constituting a contempt of the courts, and resistance, instead of obedience to the constituted authorities of the Government, it is senseless and devoid of the force of the English language. Such doctrine, of contempt for the laws and the courts, has been instilled into the minds of the people by Douglass and the Republicans, it has kept alive the agitation, and if not subdued will inevitably lead to a disruption of the Union. Give heed to over. If you please, to the judgment of a discriminating, honest, and upright citizen, we have, on my word,

Democrats, to your Posts!

As this is the last opportunity we shall have to address the public, through our column, before the State election, we appeal to our Democratic friends, not only in this county but throughout the State, that if they desire to elect Gen. Henry D. Foster our next Governor—had we known all the elements necessary for success—popularity at home. If the Democrats of Adams and Franklin held the State, instead of being so weak and divided, they might have had a very victory.

Meeting at Waynesboro.

WATKINSON Oct 4th.

MR. EDITOR.—Perhaps you were beginning to think by this time, that the "Democrat" of Washington township, was lost asleep. If so, allow me to rouse your mind of that impression. Never, within my recollection, has there been a more respectable and more enthusiastic meeting held in our Town, than that of last Tuesday night. We showed our Republican friends that there is still "a little of the old stuff left." I confess that I had thought there was considerable lukewarmness and indifference existing among the hitherto "unruffled," but the assemblies which met in our Hall, by its number, its earnestness and its enthusiasm, convinced me that we have not been "dead, but sleeping," and that we are now fully aroused to the importance of determining our part. The meeting was one of the largest ever held in our Town. The Hall was crowded. There was no standing room left. The stairway was completely jammed and at least one hundred were not able to gain entrance at all. After the meeting had been duly organized by the selection of President, Vice-President and Secretary, W. S. Stenger, Esq., of Chambersburg, appeared on the platform and was greeted with hearty cheers and long-continued stamping of feet.

The audience listened with unabating interest and paid attention to his speech from beginning to end.

Mr. Stenger discussed the questions at issue in the present campaign, at length. He spoke at least an hour and a quarter and sat down amid deafening applause.

George W. Welsh Esq. of our town (though living with you, we still claim him as our own) next addressed the meeting at considerable length. He made some very happy hits in relating a few capital anecdotes. He urged the Democracy and all other conservative men to rally to the support of Foster, Schell and the County ticket, with great earnestness and force. The audience testified to their appreciation of his speech by marked signs of approbation throughout.

D. Herring was then called upon repeatedly and finding the meeting would take no excuse, spoke for fifteen minutes in quite an animated strain, "Bringing down the house" frequently. The Democracy thus adjourned, strengthened in their devotion to time-honored principles and resolved to do all in our power to achieve a glorious victory.

JACKSON.

A REPUBLICAN'S PREDICTION.—The Hartford Times publishes, the following and says "is an extract of a letter from a well informed Pennsylvania Republican to a friend in Hartford:

The camp fires of the different political parties are now burning brightly. We are working like beavers for Curtin, but eandor compels me to concede Foster's election in October, by a handsome majority. The Bell men, who hold the balance of power, vote for Foster in a body, and it they can be arrayed in a coalition with the Democrats for Presidential Electors the State is lost to Lincoln."

Rally! Rally! Rally, Democrats for Foster, Schell and victory! Come from your farms and your work-shops! Come with the determination to conquer, and the day is ours!

Lying Handbills.

Look out for Lying Handbills and reports—look out for false statements in the Opposition press—pay no attention to them, Democrats, but go ahead—conquering and to CONQUER.

REMEMBER Edward McPherson admitted in his speech at Bloody Run, Bedford county, that Wm. P. Schell is a good Tariff man as himself. He is a lot better Tariff man than McPherson and will show so if elected.

Go to the Elections next Tuesday and vote the whole Democratic ticket.

LOCAL NEWS.

THE COUNTY FAIR.—The second annual exhibition of the Farmers and Mechanics Industrial Association of Franklin County closed on Friday last. The early day at which our paper is printed, the present week, precludes us from giving the extended notice it was entirely worthy to receive. We have only time and space to say that it was a success in every particular connected with the exhibition. The display of stock, farming implements, machinery, agricultural products, household articles, &c. were very extensive and creditable. The attendance was large—the receipts on the second day alone amounting to near one thousand dollars. Everything connected with the Fair passed off pleasantly, and gave the highest degree of satisfaction to exhibitors and visitors.

Lindsey's Blood-Starcher cures Cancer, Scrofula, and all cutaneous diseases. Lindsey's Blood-Starcher cures Rheumatic Diseases and Dyspepsia.

Lindsey's Blood-Starcher cures Liver Complaint, and all diseases arising from Impure Blood.

Lindsey's Blood-Starcher is sold only by Miller & Hickey in Chambersburg. Miller & Hickey sell the same style Kerosene Lamp, and the best Kerosene in the Market.

Gill & Miller's Blood-Starcher Drug, sold by the firm for anything you want in the way of personal medicine, patent medicine, &c.

Read the articles on 2d page.

MURKIN BISHOP OF BROWN.

An eminent legal Judge, and a pre-eminent judge of human nature, observed: "It is an observation I have always made, that dress has a moral effect upon the conduct of mankind. Let any gentleman find himself with a dirty pair of boots, old coat, old hat, soiled necktie, and a general negligence of disposition to dress, he will in all probability, find a corresponding negligence of address." We take the same philosophical view of the case, and think all men should dress well, and especially should they have a new Hat Cap, bought at J. L. Decker's fashionable Hat Cap and Fur Emporium, 8 hours South of the Diamond, where he has a most elegant assortment, of all descriptions at reasonable prices.

THE GENERAL LAW.

All things which live and die, love and leave; sometimes indeed, the worse, caught up by sharks, sometimes, the best, but straight red, sometimes, the red and longe, sometimes, the blue above the belt and looks on.

Sometimes, a star drops, sometimes leaves, leaves dark, and makes his mortal bier;

To calm infants. Thus each man (made as like unto his father) in his varying ways;

Die at last, and leave in quiet;

Living elegantly wrought, by A. J. WHITE,

Three hours North of Myres' store.

We note, but well Attempys are made or sold.

MAMMOTH STEVE STORE.—Go to J. Miller's Mammoth Steve and Tin-ware establishment, judge for yourself by actual proof, and not from hearsay, of the superiority of big Gloves, Tin-ware, &c. This Mammoth establishment is not surpassed in any country town out of the cities, for a large and general variety of the very best patterns of Gloves; and in the cold weather is setting in, we would call all to call and examine his assortment.

BENDI & MILLER—Walter Parke—Parke does not change men, it only unmakes them. Cockroaches have sunk more people than corkscrews will ever keep up. Many a sweetly-fascinated mouth has been disengaged and made hideous by the fiery tongue within it. Happiness is like a pig with a greased tail, which every one runs after, but nobody can hold. Sgars, Tobacco, Snuff, &c., sold by J. D. Jacobs, on the corner of Main and Queen streets are manufactured from a pure and superior article of the Wool.

J. W. PROCTOR & CO., 718 Chestnut Street, as will be seen from their advertisement, have opened their Fall Stock of Mantles, Clocks, &c. of all the latest Parisian and London Styles, in addition to a choice selection of Ladies' Fabs; to all of which we invite special attention.

MARRIED.

On the 23rd ult., by Rev. Mr. Snyder, M. A. Phillips, of Leiterkerry twp., to Miss Maria Powers of Shambamontown.

On the 27th ult., at the home of Mr. Daniel Walkers, by the Rev. M. Snyder, Mr. David Isaac to Miss Zelina Galvin, both of Penn Valley.

On the 23rd ult., at the Rev. Dr. Parsons, by the Rev. Samuel Phillips, Mr. John E. West to Mrs. Mary J. Evans both of Hamilton twp., this County.

At the same time and place there will be sold a tract of MOUNTAIN LAND, the property of John Miller, of Green Twp., Franklin County, Pa., 400 acres, 10 miles north of Greenfield, bounded by lands of Jacob Miller, Robert McKey, John Miller, and Peter Lehman, containing 320 acres, and 17 sections, four messes of timber, and 20 logs, log barn and other improvements thereto attached. There is also a good Orchard on the premises.

This is a desirable property, being situated on the Wool, Miles and Schools, persons wishing to view the premises will please call on William Utshell, living the premises.

Also, at the same time and place there will be sold a tract of MOUNTAIN LAND, the property of John Miller, Robert Wallace and John H. Cole, containing 10 acres, more or less, and a stone wall well covered with viney Oak and Chestnut timber.

Also, at the same time and place, there will be sold out of a tract of ground, bounded by lands of John Miller, Lewis and others, containing 2 acres more or less, with a thriving growth of young Chestnut trees.

Tracts of land half of the purchase money to remain in the Land, during the widow's life, the interest to be held to the use of the widow, and the remainder to be paid to the heirs on the 1st of April, 1861, when payment will be given; and the balance on the lot of April, 1862; with interest from the date of the confirmation of the sale.

LEWIS R. CLARK, Trustee.

0ctobr 10/60.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of order of Sheriff of Franklin County, and that the same will be presented to the Graphic's Court for confirmation, on Wednesday, the 2nd day of November, 1860, at 10 o'clock, in the County Courthouse, Franklin County, Pa., 400 acres, 10 miles north of Greenfield, bounded by lands of John Colburn, Melvin Calverton, Nathan Lusk, and others, with a stone wall, log building, log barn, and other improvements thereto attached. There is also a good Orchard on the premises.

This is a desirable property, being situated on the Wool, Miles and Schools, persons wishing to view the premises will please call on William Utshell, living the premises.

Also, at the same time and place there will be sold a tract of MOUNTAIN LAND, the property of John Miller, Robert Wallace and John H. Cole, containing 10 acres, more or less, and a stone wall well covered with viney Oak and Chestnut timber.

Also, at the same time and place, there will be sold out of a tract of ground, bounded by lands of John Miller, Lewis and others, containing 2 acres more or less, with a thriving growth of young Chestnut trees.

Tracts of land half of the purchase money to remain in the Land, during the widow's life, the interest to be held to the use of the widow, and the remainder to be paid to the heirs on the 1st of April, 1861, when payment will be given; and the balance on the lot of April, 1862; with interest from the date of the confirmation of the sale.

LEWIS R. CLARK, Trustee.

Octobr 10/60.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of order of Sheriff of Franklin County, and that the same will be presented to the Graphic's Court for confirmation, on Wednesday, the 2nd day of November, 1860, at 10 o'clock, in the County Courthouse, Franklin County, Pa., 400 acres, 10 miles north of Greenfield, bounded by lands of John Colburn, Melvin Calverton, Nathan Lusk, and others, with a stone wall, log building, log barn, and other improvements thereto attached. There is also a good Orchard on the premises.

This is a desirable property, being situated on the Wool, Miles and Schools, persons wishing to view the premises will please call on William Utshell, living the premises.

Also, at the same time and place there will be sold a tract of MOUNTAIN LAND, the property of John Miller, Robert Wallace and John H. Cole, containing 10 acres, more or less, and a stone wall well covered with viney Oak and Chestnut timber.

Also, at the same time and place, there will be sold out of a tract of ground, bounded by lands of John Miller, Lewis and others, containing 2 acres more or less, with a thriving growth of young Chestnut trees.

Tracts of land half of the purchase money to remain in the Land, during the widow's life, the interest to be held to the use of the widow, and the remainder to be paid to the heirs on the 1st of April, 1861, when payment will be given; and the balance on the lot of April, 1862; with interest from the date of the confirmation of the sale.

LEWIS R. CLARK, Trustee.

Octobr 10/60.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of order of Sheriff of Franklin County, and that the same will be presented to the Graphic's Court for confirmation, on Wednesday, the 2nd day of November, 1860, at 10 o'clock, in the County Courthouse, Franklin County, Pa., 400 acres, 10 miles north of Greenfield, bounded by lands of John Colburn, Melvin Calverton, Nathan Lusk, and others, with a stone wall, log building, log barn, and other improvements thereto attached. There is also a good Orchard on the premises.

This is a desirable property, being situated on the Wool, Miles and Schools, persons wishing to view the premises will please call on William Utshell, living the premises.

Also, at the same time and place there will be sold a tract of MOUNTAIN LAND, the property of John Miller, Robert Wallace and John H. Cole, containing 10 acres, more or less, and a stone wall well covered with viney Oak and Chestnut timber.

Also, at the same time and place, there will be sold out of a tract of ground, bounded by lands of John Miller, Lewis and others, containing 2 acres more or less, with a thriving growth of young Chestnut trees.

Tracts of land half of the purchase money to remain in the Land, during the widow's life, the interest to be held to the use of the widow, and the remainder to be paid to the heirs on the 1st of April, 1861, when payment will be given; and the balance on the lot of April, 1862; with interest from the date of the confirmation of the sale.

LEWIS R. CLARK, Trustee.

Octobr 10/60.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of order of Sheriff of Franklin County, and that the same will be presented to the Graphic's Court for confirmation, on Wednesday, the 2nd day of November, 1860, at 10 o'clock, in the County Courthouse, Franklin County, Pa., 400 acres, 10 miles north of Greenfield, bounded by lands of John Colburn, Melvin Calverton, Nathan Lusk, and others, with a stone wall, log building, log barn, and other improvements thereto attached. There is also a good Orchard on the premises.

This is a desirable property, being situated on the Wool, Miles and Schools, persons wishing to view the premises will please call on William Utshell, living the premises.

Also, at the same time and place there will be sold a tract of MOUNTAIN LAND, the property of John Miller, Robert Wallace and John H. Cole, containing 10 acres, more or less, and a stone wall well covered with viney Oak and Chestnut timber.

Also, at the same time and place, there will be sold out of a tract of ground, bounded by lands of John Miller, Lewis and others, containing 2 acres more or less, with a thriving growth of young Chestnut trees.

Tracts of land half of the purchase money to remain in the Land, during the widow's life, the interest to be held to the use of the widow, and the remainder to be paid to the heirs on the 1st of April, 1861, when payment will be given; and the balance on the lot of April, 1862; with interest from the date of the confirmation of the sale.

LEWIS R. CLARK, Trustee.

Octobr 10/60.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of order of Sheriff of Franklin County, and that the same will be presented to the Graphic's Court for confirmation, on Wednesday, the 2nd day of November, 1860, at 10 o'clock, in the County Courthouse, Franklin County, Pa., 400 acres, 10 miles north of Greenfield, bounded by lands of John Colburn, Melvin Calverton, Nathan Lusk, and others, with a stone wall, log building, log barn, and other improvements thereto attached. There is also a good Orchard on the premises.

This is a desirable property, being situated on the Wool, Miles and Schools, persons wishing to view the premises will please call on William Utshell, living the premises.

Also, at the same time and place there will be sold a tract of MOUNTAIN LAND, the property of John Miller, Robert Wallace and John H. Cole, containing 10 acres, more or less, and a stone wall well covered with viney Oak and Chestnut timber.

Also, at the same time and place, there will be sold out of a tract of ground, bounded by lands of John Miller, Lewis and others, containing 2 acres more or less, with a thriving growth of young Chestnut trees.

Tracts of land half of the purchase money to remain in the Land, during the widow's life, the interest to be held to the use of the widow, and the remainder to be paid to the heirs on the 1st of April, 1861, when payment will be given; and the balance on the lot of April, 1862; with interest from the date of the confirmation of the sale.

LEWIS R. CLARK, Trustee.

Octobr 10/60.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of order of Sheriff of Franklin County, and that the same will be presented to the Graphic's Court for confirmation, on Wednesday, the 2nd day of November, 1860, at 10 o'clock, in the County Courthouse, Franklin County, Pa., 400 acres, 10 miles north of Greenfield, bounded by lands of John Colburn, Melvin Calverton, Nathan Lusk, and others, with a stone wall, log building, log barn, and other improvements thereto attached. There is also a good Orchard on the premises.

This is a desirable property, being situated on the Wool, Miles and Schools, persons wishing to view the premises will please call on William Utshell, living the premises.

Also, at the same time and place there will be sold a tract of MOUNTAIN LAND, the property of John Miller, Robert Wallace and John H. Cole, containing 10 acres, more or less, and a stone wall well covered with viney Oak and Chestnut timber.

Also, at the same time and place, there will be sold out of a tract of ground, bounded by lands of John Miller, Lewis and others, containing 2 acres more or less, with a thriving growth of young Chestnut trees.

Tracts of land half of the purchase money to remain in the Land, during the widow's life, the interest to be held to the use of the widow, and the remainder to be paid to the heirs on the 1st of April, 1861, when payment will be given; and the balance on the lot of April, 1862; with interest from the date of the confirmation of the sale.

LEWIS R. CLARK, Trustee.

Octobr 10/60.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of order of Sheriff of Franklin County, and that the same will be presented to the Graphic's Court for confirmation, on Wednesday, the 2nd day of November, 1860, at 10 o'clock, in the County Courthouse, Franklin County, Pa., 400 acres, 10 miles north of Greenfield, bounded by lands of John Colburn, Melvin Calverton, Nathan Lusk, and others, with a stone wall, log building, log barn, and other improvements thereto attached. There is also a good Orchard on the premises.

This is a desirable property, being situated on the Wool, Miles and Schools, persons wishing to view the premises will please call on William Utshell, living the premises.

Also, at the same time and place there will be sold a tract of MOUNTAIN LAND, the property of John Miller, Robert Wallace and John H. Cole, containing 10 acres, more or less, and a stone wall well covered with viney Oak and Chestnut timber.

Also, at the same time and place, there will be sold out of a tract of ground, bounded by lands of John Miller, Lewis and others, containing 2 acres more or less, with a thriving growth of young Chestnut trees.

Tracts of land half of the purchase money to remain in the Land, during the widow's life, the interest to be held to the use of the widow, and the remainder to be paid to the heirs on the 1st of April, 1861, when payment will be given; and the balance on the lot of April, 1862; with interest from the date of the confirmation of the sale.

LEWIS R. CLARK, Trustee.

Octobr 10/60.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of order of Sheriff of Franklin County, and that the same will be presented to the Graphic's Court for confirmation, on Wednesday, the 2nd day of November, 1860, at 10 o'clock, in the County Courthouse, Franklin County, Pa., 400 acres, 10 miles north of Greenfield, bounded by lands of John Colburn, Melvin Calver

