

LETTER FROM M. C. EVANS, OF CHESTER COUNTY.

MR. EDITOR:—At the meeting of the Douglas Committee, held on the 12th of the present month, I was present as one of the members...

EDMUND C. EVANS. Chester County, Oct. 24, 1860. Judas Iscariot Totally Eclipsed. In the Convention at Baltimore, the Douglas delegates were supposed to excel all other men...

How can he then have the assurance to declare in his preamble that all the delegates were present, and that all assented to and ratified the nomination of Mr. Douglas?

He knows perfectly well that Mr. Douglas at no time received more than ten votes from the Pennsylvania delegation in the Douglas Convention.

Mr. Cessna knows, too, that in the packed Douglas Convention, Mr. Douglas received but 1314 votes, and failing to get two thirds of the Convention, that his friends, fearing to repeat the two-thirds rule, were compelled to nominate him by acclamation.

form upon which these nominees stand, and he is careful, however, not to say upon which platform these gentlemen, Messrs Douglas and Johnston do stand, which is upon the Constitutional platform...

Address of the Democratic State Executive Committee.

To the Democracy of Pennsylvania: The Democratic State Executive Committee deems it a duty, more so than at any other time, to address you, before the annual vote for President of the United States...

The object of the State Committee now is, to make it so that there be a clear and active support. Such a support, given to every county of the State, may reverse the defeat at the State election, and even if it does not, will save the Democracy from that integration, which an apparent abandonment of its flag would seem to threaten...

At a higher and stronger motive section, Every Democratic vote cast in November—every vote, indeed, against the Republican ticket—is a vote for the Constitution, the Union, and for the rights and property and safety of our South and Northern, and such is the great conservative policy, which, whether it be the true majority or minority, now stands as the only barrier to sectionalism and fanaticism.

No—their work is not quite finished, but it will soon be done. There is a President to be elected. To prevent a combination of all the anti-Republican elements upon one Electoral Ticket is the work these traitors are to see to. They will perform it as faithfully as ever Swiss mercenaries fought for their employer...

European News. The steamship Canadian, which has been due several days, passed Father Point yesterday morning, with advice to the 12th instant. No new movement of any importance has taken place in Naples, neither has anything happened in any of the Papal States. It is reported that Gen. Lamoriciere has engaged passage for himself and family to Civita Vecchia. Advices from Rome confirm the statement that the French would occupy Viterbo.

An Armed Sectional Party.

The Father of his country left no record his farewell warning 'to beware of sectional parties,' and Daniel Webster has declared that— 'The Constitution of the United States is a written instrument—a sacred, inviolable law, it is the bond, and the only bond of the Union of these States; it is all that gives us a national character.'

The Black Republicanism is nullification. The Black Republicanism is worse than secession—it is nullification. It declares that it will remain in the Union, but refuses to be by its laws. It claims its benefits, but refuses to bear its burdens. Doing this, it impudently charges the South with secession—Pennsylvanian.

Straight-out Douglasism. Straight-out Douglasism is every day showing more and more affluence, if not popularity, with Lincolnism. The "Polk party," as it is called, or, in other words, the public organs of this city—the Press, though that its responsible mode of attack, in our letters, protests against the withdrawal of the Straight-Douglas Ticket in this State.

The Reading Election. Duty of Democrats. The Democrats of Pennsylvania have but one ticket before them at the approaching election. So the path of duty runs plainly before them. No man who has eyes to his head can make a mistake. Whatever our preferences may be between Breckinridge and Douglas, it is the duty of all of us to vote and to work for this ticket.

Stop Thief! The rogue cries "stop thief," in order to divert suspicion from himself. So the Black Republicanism points to the South and cry "secession"—"nullification"—"disunion," while they themselves are the very people who are committing all these crimes. By this hue and cry they have deceived many honest but ignorant men at the North, but error cannot long be dangerous when truth is left free to combat it.

Go to Work.

As the signs of Southern disaffection at the threatened election of Lincoln multiply, it becomes so much the more important that conservative men in the North should redouble their efforts to thwart and defeat the Black Republican crusade. Not only does this crusade menace the slave property at the South, but it threatens to deprive at the best interests—the industrial farmers, and the commercial and the general business of the North.

Delaware and the Black Republicanism. The Black Republicans are making strong efforts to carry Delaware. The means they are resorting to are money, fraud and subterfuge. They think that by carrying Delaware for Lincoln they will relieve the sectional east and avert stamp duty upon their infamous organization. They think also that by getting a foothold in one Slave State they will have a lever with which to operate in the other slave States.

Stand Fast. Democrats of Franklin county, the enemy has triumphed in the preliminary or first battle of the campaign. But let not this dishearten you. Stand fast for your integrity, and continue boldly to advocate and contend for the detriments of the Constitution, as handed down to you by Washington, J. Brown, Jackson, and Polk.

Tennessee. Highly satisfactory evidences has been received here by the National Democratic Committee in regard to Tennessee—Pennsylvanian.

Save Us from Abolitionism. Massachusetts, the hot bed of abolitionism, is fast waging its "cool black roses" with pure white lilacs. Massachusetts can boast of its prowess in Abolitionism, in the way of marrying white girls with negroes. The Census Marshals report that seventy-two white families were married to negroes in the State of Massachusetts last year.

Some of the Fruits of Lincoln's Election.

The New York Tribune, strange as the remark may seem, has more money—perhaps the more or more made in the past, than it has since the Conference of the present century for more than the miserable financial Black Republican organs of this city. It is not afraid to express its opinions, and it publishes the opinions of its abolition friends, which its kindred paragraphs were content to keep.

As a Republican Administration will break up the whole of the South, so a Republican Administration will break up the whole of the North. A Republican Administration will break up the whole of the West. A Republican Administration will break up the whole of the Middle States. A Republican Administration will break up the whole of the Eastern States. A Republican Administration will break up the whole of the Southern States.

Following the late decision of the attorney-general, the Secretary of War is about to pay $80,000 on the Dugrook claim, which is $40,000 less than the original claim. A little son of Mr. George L. Emrick, of York, Pa., was poisoned on Thursday last by swallowing the beans of the plant known as nightshade.

The sale of the works of the late Remond Peale will take place in Philadelphia some time during November. Frederick A. Tallmadge has now been nominated by the Democrats of New York for the Judgeship made vacant by the resignation of Judge Perrotton.

On Monday the New York Board of Supervisors refused to provide boxes and ballots for the negro voters of the city. A young lady known as Mademoiselle Victoria is creating quite a sensation in New York by her mastery of the art of music and mystification.

The funeral of Col. Lunken, of the New Orleans Procureur, took place in that city on Friday last. The Court of Claims disposed of the first case of the term on Monday. Paulsen, the chess player, Morphy's strongest adversary, sailed for Europe in a few days.

Two hundred and fifty United States troops left New York for California on the steamer yesterday. There are $17,100 taxable persons in Philadelphia. Last week were 416 deaths in New York last week.

The Prospect in New York. The Republican party in this State are in a decided minority as will be seen by the following figures:

These figures show that although the aggregate vote has been less than in 1856, the Democratic vote during the last four years, and that Fall, when the whole vote of the State was 98,071 from them in 1856, the Democratic vote was 97,111 greater than in 1856.

VALLEY SPIRIT.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

Wednesday Morning, Nov. 7, 1860.

GEORGE M. KEIM, Editor and Proprietor.

OUR FIRST OBJECT.

"The main object of all good Democrats is, to defeat the election of the Republican candidates."

FOR PRESIDENT,

JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, Of Kentucky.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

GEN. JOSEPH LANE, Of Oregon.

WE have no objection as to the names of the candidates, provided they are Democrats.

ELECTORS.

- George M. Keim, Richard Vaux, Frederick A. Server, William C. Patterson, Joseph Crockett, John G. Brenner, George W. Jacoby, Charles Kelly, Oliver P. James, David Schall, Joel L. Lightner, Samuel S. Barber, Thomas H. Walker, Stephen S. Winchester, Joseph Lautbach, Isaac Reekhow, George D. Jackson, John A. Ahl, Joel B. Danner, Jesse P. Crawford, Horatio N. Lee, Joshua B. Howell, Nathaniel P. Fetterman, Samuel Marshall, William Book, Byron D. Hamlin, Gaylord Church.

County Committee.

- Geo. W. Brewer, J. W. Wright, John H. Orr, Alexander Martin, Dr. Wm. H. Boyle, Samuel Gilmore, Peter S. Deibert, Joseph H. Heston, D. M. Keim, J. H. Burr, Jacob L. Deibert, James Leckrone, Samuel Sherry, John K. Keener, Wm. D. McKinstry, Daniel Fisher, Deaton Brewer, W. S. Steger, Jacob Keener, John Shiner, Matthew Collins, John Gillet, John K. Keener, Frederick Zollinger, William Reiter, William McKee, Henry Black, M. C. Criss, Patrick McArthur, Henry Kelly, Wm. G. Garber, Daniel Fisher.

Where We Stand.

We challenge the Republicans, or any of the supporters of Judge Douglas, to produce a word, a sentence, or a speech uttered by Hon. JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE or Gen. JOSEPH LANE, at any time or in any place, advocating or countenancing disunion. Every intelligent man in the country knows, and every honest man will admit the truth, that neither Mr. BRECKINRIDGE or Mr. LANE ever uttered a word or syllable which can be tortured into a thought advocating secession or a dissolution of the Union in any manner or form. They are both warm friends of the Union and wherever they have discussed this subject they have given utterance to the most lofty and patriotic sentiments of devotion to the Union—the whole Union and nothing but the Union! Mr. BRECKINRIDGE, in his letter accepting the nomination makes use of this noble language.—"The Constitution and the equality of the States—THESE ARE THE SYMBOLS OF EVERLASTING UNION. Let these be the rallying cry of the people." Out of the RIGHT candidates now before the people BRECKINRIDGE and LANE are the only ones who have ever fought for their country—the only ones who have ever drawn a sword or risked their lives in defence of her honor—and the only ones who could be depended on to do so again if her safety or honor was threatened in any quarter. Now that the Union is in imminent danger BRECKINRIDGE and LANE are the candidates—and the only candidates—to elect that can save the country from the horrors of an impending civil war. They would promptly put down every attempt at disunion no matter whether it originated among the Abolitionists of the North or the Fire-eaters of the South. They would know nothing but the good of the whole Union—its peace, prosperity and stability. Vote for them and the Union is safe.

EMERSON DAY.—The election of President takes place on Tuesday, the sixth of November. Democrats, devote one day to the service of your country. See that every Democratic voter is brought to the polls, and don't let any man shirk.

Clergymen. There is one class of clergymen that is worthy of the highest admiration and another that is worthy only of the extreme contempt. The first class is composed of conscientious, humble, God-fearing men, who devote themselves to the eternal welfare of their fellow travelers through "this vale of tears,"—who point and lead the way to heaven, and whose righteous souls have no ambition unconnected with the Redeemer's kingdom. These men are the jewels of the earth, whose value is beyond computation; and fortunately for fallen man, the great body of the ministry of all denominations is made up of them.

The other and smaller class is composed of widely different material. Its members "are of the earth, earthy." They have "stolen the devil in." They are not at all content to preach "Christ and him crucified." Their expansive minds must raminate over a wider field than the green pastures of the gospel of God, and their thirsty souls drink from other streams than the still waters to which the Great Shepherd leads his flocks. An unobtrusive walk in the way that leads to everlasting life does not fill the measure of their ambition. Heaven would be worth nothing to them if its attainment kept them from "cutting a surluge" on earth. The dirty pool of politics has irresistible charms for them, and they wallow in it with all the unctious of a "sow wallowing in the mire."

To this latter class unquestionably belongs a "Methodist clergyman named T. M. EDDY," who, as the Transcript informs us, has addressed a letter to President BUCHANAN upon the subject of the cruelties inflicted upon members of the Methodist Church in the South. Fortunately the character of the Methodist Ministry is too high and too well established to be injured by this clerical black sheep's political bab!

If a clergyman of the better class had felt it to be his duty to address a letter to the President of the United States, he would have sent it directly to the President. This man EDDY pursued a different course. It would not have served his purpose if he had sent his letter in manuscript to the President. It was the public eye, and not the President's, that he wanted to attract, and therefore he sent his letter to a Northwestern newspaper and had it published. He wanted to cut a surluge, and therefore he rushed into print. He wanted to make Republican votes and not to save precious souls, and therefore he left the work of his sacred desk and indited a flippant catch-penny "remonstrance" to our Democratic President. The church has lost nothing by this diversion, for such a clergyman as T. M. EDDY can do no more than "daub the walls of Zion with untempered mortar."

This clerical wallawag makes certain "demands" with the majestic dignity of one of "the great powers" of the world. He tells us "what we [he and his injured friends] demand of our country." Let the whole country give ear to the demand. "We demand the protection of the courts. If any of our people offend the majesty of the law, there are courts of justice and officers of the law; let there be a full, impartial and fair trial, and we will be content." Very well, sir. If any of your people have been injured, "there are courts of justice and officers of the law" in the States where the injuries have been inflicted. Let your people do as all other people do—let them appeal to the law and the courts for protection and redress. The general government was not established for the punishment of assault and battery or petty larceny in the several States, nor is it any part of the duty of the President of the United States to scrub tar and feathers from the back of any man who may be favored with such a protection against the weather in return for his advice to slaves to cut the throats of their masters.

If Mr. EDDY should at any time hereafter become truly converted and take to preaching in earnest, we would advise him not to despair of accomplishing some good even at the South. As an evidence of what a really pious and devoted servant of God may accomplish, we call Mr. EDDY's special attention to the following, which we find printed just below his letter in the Transcript of October 31:

been often blessed to the conversion of sinners at several points in Cherokee county, Alabama. At Lanesborough thirty were added to the Protestant church during his stay; at Middleville three or thirty inquirers; at Centerville fifty hundred people came out to hear the gospel on the Sabbath, and thirty or more were added to the Presbyterian church, besides a number in other churches. At Centre he says: "From the beginning till the close, the interest increased. Our morning meetings equalled any I ever attended. Wednesday night, thirty inquirers; Thursday night, forty; Friday night, sixty. Saturday night, seventy! May the good work progress."

Who are Disunionists. It is well known that Mr. DOUGLAS and his managers denounce Mr. BRECKINRIDGE and those who support him as disunionists. This is their harp of a thousand strings which they have played upon vigorously all through the campaign. There never was a greater falsehood uttered against any man.— They cannot show that he has ever expressed a disunion sentiment in all his public or private life. On the contrary he and his supporters constitute the only true Union party in the country. The Atlanta Confederacy—the DOUGLAS organ of the South—a paper which has been waging a vigorous war upon the BRECKINRIDGE wing of the Democracy, openly advocates disunion and secession in the strongest terms. It says in an issue of recent date:—

"The inhabitants of the free States are of the belief that the South intends to wait for an 'overt act' before taking decisive steps, in the event of Lincoln's election. This is a great mistake. The Southern masses, almost to a man, regard the simple election of Lincoln as an 'overt act,' and it is the solemn determination of the eight Cotton States to secede immediately on his election."

In addition to this we have the notorious fact that all the old leaders of disunion in the South are the prominent friends of Mr. DOUGLAS. We find HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON associated with him on the ticket, and such men as PIERRE SOULE, MILES TAYLOR, H. S. FOOTE, ISAAC C. MORSE, Ex-Governor of WINSTON, and a host of others, who have preached up disunion until they have their wing of the party ripe and ready for rebellion the moment LINCOLN is elected. They will not "wait for an overt act," they go so far in their disunion doctrine as to say that they consider the "simple election of LINCOLN" as a sufficient cause for precipitating the country in a civil war. This is the quarter from whence the trouble will come. It is the DOUGLAS Fire eaters of the South who are impatient for secession, and whose "solemn determination" it is "to secede immediately on Lincoln's election." DOUGLAS has himself kept the country in a state of feverish agitation, for a number of years, and that his followers would now plunge it into war is not at all to be wondered at. That war would take place under the administration of Mr. BUCHANAN, and if they could succeed in creating a civil war in the country during his administration that would be glory enough for them, no matter what the consequences might be to the nation.

The Breckinridge wing of the party in the South, in the event of Lincoln's election, are very willing to remain in the Union unless some gross aggression is made upon their Constitutional rights. Gov. Wise says he "will not secede"—he will "not give up the Union"—he will only "fight" when an "active declaration of war is made upon their property, safety and honor." To this no northern man will object for they would take the same stand. This is the ground taken by the Breckinridge party and it is that which every true patriot must approve.

We honestly believe that the country is in greater danger of civil war at this moment than at any other period in her existence. The creeds and practices of the Republican party have prepared the way for this, while the Douglas faction would go any length to plunge the country in war if they could thereby embarrass or disgrace the administration of Mr. Buchanan. These causes combined will certainly produce war in the land. There is only one way to avert the calamity—one hope for the nation—and that is the election of Mr. Breckinridge.—His elevation to the Chief Magistracy of the Nation would satisfy and appease both the North and the South. If men would throw aside their partisan prejudices, conquer the bad passions of the hour, and regard the peace and prosperity of the whole country as paramount to the election of a sectional President the danger would be readily dispelled, and confidence and tranquility restored throughout the land. The only hope for the country is the election of Mr. BRECKINRIDGE.

"No Use to Try." Does any Democrat of Franklin county feel like saying that because we have lost the Governor's election, there is no use to try to carry our President? That would not be a proper display of pluck. The Democrats of this county were beaten for ten years straight ahead previous to 1852, yet they never stopped to inquire whether it was any use to try.

On the contrary, they kept on trying till at length they triumphed. Are the Democrats of the present day less courageous and less devoted to their principles than those of ten years ago? The result of next Tuesday's election will answer the question. If one of our farmers sows grain and it fails to come up as finely as he had expected it to come, that does not prevent him from planting corn. So far from it, the failure of his wheat to come up vigorously will lead him to plant the more corn and cultivate it the more sedulously, so that the scarcity of the smaller grain may be compensated for by the abundance of the larger.

Let all our democratic friends take a lesson from the sensible farmer. Our small political grains—Governor, members of Congress and of the Legislature, &c.—have not "come up well." The season was not good, or the ground was not properly prepared, or something else was wrong. But let not this prevent us from planting the large grain—the Presidency. The very fact that we have been beaten for the October stakes, ought to make us strain every nerve to win the great stake of November.

There is use to try. The greatest battles of the world have been won by hard trying. The tide of victory has been turned by trying. The very liberty we enjoy was won by trying, when the colonists had greater reason to be cast down in spirit than we have now. If you doubt the use of trying, just turn out on Tuesday and try. The result may surprise you.

Friends of Breckinridge.

Do not allow anything to tempt or provoke you to erase a single name from the Reading Electoral Ticket. The story that seventeen of the Electors are Douglasites has been told on purpose to induce you to strike off three-fourths of the regular ticket. Do not strike off one name. Let the straight-out Douglas men do all the political butchering. They have done it all so far. Let them do it all hereafter. It matters not how many of the Electors are for Breckinridge or how many for Douglas. All of them are Democrats—regularly chosen to serve on the Ticket; and all of them, if elected, will vote to defeat Lincoln. That is the great point—the point that all good Democrats aim at—the thing that all good Democrats will vote to accomplish.

Some of the friends of Douglas will strike off a part of the regular Electoral Ticket. In doing so they will prove to the world that they do not adhere to the Democratic organization and do not abide by the usages of the Democratic party. Let no Breckinridge man follow their example. Let every Breckinridge man vote for every man on the Reading Ticket, the Douglas men on it along with the rest. The cut tickets will then show who are the traitors and how many there are of them.

Caution to Cleanly Folks.

The Times makes use of the very original saying that our paper is taken to "cover jars of lard and apple-butter." We would caution cleanly folks not to use the Times for that purpose for the filthy thing would pollute their butters and they would lose them certain.

Grammatical Stealing.

When we are compelled to steal editorials we'll steal those written grammatically.—Times. "Has" the Times a patent on that idea? It would certainly be a most effectual contrivance to prevent any of its editorials from being stolen.

Thankful Times.

Thank fortune the Spirit has not its influence in the community.—Times. We have nothing of the kind to be thankful for towards the Times—its never had any influence in this community and never will have any.

ALL Democrats will vote the Reading Electoral Ticket on Tuesday next.

Douglas' Conspiracy with the Black Republicans.

Mr. Trumbull, of Illinois, recently made a speech in Douglas' own State. When he took the stand, A. G. Kirkpatrick, a Breckinridge Democrat, late of Pennsylvania, said: Judge Trumbull, I desire to ask you a question, for the purpose of information, and I don't wish to interrupt you while speaking; will you permit me to ask it now? Judge Trumbull.—Yes, sir.

Mr. Kirkpatrick.—I see from the speech of Judge Kellogg, that at the time of the attempted passage of the Log Cabin Constitution through Congress, Mr. Douglas called on Mr. Conde, a Republican member of Congress from Pennsylvania, and requested him to go to you and get you to agree that he, Mr. Douglas, should be returned to the Senate by the Republicans of Illinois, and in consideration thereof, he would support the Republican ticket in 1860. Was that message conveyed to you by Mr. Conde, and if any, what reply did you make thereto?

Judge Trumbull.—Mr. Conde has told me once, that he came to me at that time for the purpose of delivering the message, but before mentioning the matter to me, I had by my side the denunciations of Judge Douglas, that it was useless to make the proposition to me, and consequently it was not delivered, at that time, to me.

Mr. Kirkpatrick.—One more question. Was Judge Douglas, at that time, an applicant for admission into the Republican party, the consideration on the one side being that the Republicans of Illinois should return him to the Senate of the United States, and upon the other that he should support the Republican ticket in 1860? Judge Trumbull.—I had no intercourse with Judge Douglas at that time, and consequently can only state the reports which came to me through others. It was reported to me, at that time, that such was the fact, and one appearing to be the number of conversations among the Republicans at Washington. I will state another fact: I almost quarrelled with some of my best Republican friends in regard to this matter. I was willing to receive Judge Douglas into the Republican party upon probation, but I was not, as those Republican friends were, willing to receive him and place him at the head of our ranks.

If a straight-out Douglas man can be found who is sincere in his opposition to Black Republicanism we would earnestly ask him to read and consider well the above extract before he casts his vote against the Reading Electoral Ticket. He should know that he is not only throwing his vote away, so far as his own party is concerned, but voting directly to advance the principles of Black Republicanism. It is one of the tenets of that party that slavery is the creature of local law—the same doctrine held by Douglas and his straight out followers. The Republicans also claim that Congress has power to exclude slavery from the Territories; Douglas maintains that a Territorial Legislature—the creature of Congress can exercise that power. It will be observed that there is little or no difference between the doctrines of Douglas and the Republican party, and that he can readily go over to them on the slavery question. We would ask Democrats to pause and reflect before they are made the dupes of such a treacherous leader as STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS.

An Example for Democrats.

At the battle of Buena Vista Gen. LANE was some distance in advance of his regiment when he received a very severe wound by a musket ball, and from which he has not fully recovered to this day, he did not falter for a single moment but pressed on without a word of complaint falling from his lips, cheering his men and displaying the greatest bravery. His voice could be heard above the din of battle shouting to his regiment to—"STAND THE FIRE AND FIGHT LIKE MEN." Let the noble example of this gallant soldier animate every Democrat to once more "STAND THE FIRE" although he may fall in the action.—Press on the column—and if every Democrat in Pennsylvania will do his duty as bravely as Gen. Lane did his, at the battle of Buena Vista, a victory as glorious as was achieved on that day awaits them on the SIXTH.

The Clean Thing.

By a mistake on the part of the pressman of the Messenger office, by whom all the papers published in this place are worked off, the outside form of the Spirit was printed on a few sheets, last week, of the inside of the Transcript. It was a small matter and the Times true to its instincts had, of course, to notice it, and endeavor to make some capital for the sinking "Squatter" cause out of it. The Times may comfort itself with the assurance that such a mistake will never happen with it—it is so small, being but a half-sheet, and its pile of papers so insignificant that the pressman will never mistake it for the Transcript or Spirit. The Times was right for once when it called its production "the unclean thing."

A Democrat will spare any ticket but the Reading Electoral Ticket, pure and simple.

Spurious Electoral Tickets!

Democrat be on your guard. It appears that some restless spirits, foiled in their expectations of mischief against the Democratic party, by the withdrawal of the straight-out Douglas Ticket, have got up an Electoral Ticket of their own, which they are distributing throughout the State for the purpose of aiding in the election of Lincoln, by withdrawing Democratic votes from the regular Reading Electoral Ticket. A number of these bogus tickets have already found their way into this county, and the attempt will doubtless be made to palm them off upon unsuspecting voters as the genuine Democratic ticket. The following is a copy of one of them, which was handed to us yesterday by a friend. We publish it, in order that our readers may be forewarned against the attempted fraud. The names substituted for those upon the regular ticket, are printed in Italics.

ELECTORS.

- Richard Vaux, John Casco, John Alexander, Frederick Stover, Joseph Crockett, Edward Williams, George W. Jacoby, Joseph David, Isaac James, David Schall, John H. Orr, Samuel S. Barber, Thomas H. Walker, Stephen S. Winchester, Joseph Lautbach, Isaac Reekhow, George D. Jackson, John A. Ahl, Joel B. Danner, Jesse P. Crawford, Horatio N. Lee, Joshua B. Howell, Nathaniel P. Fetterman, Samuel Marshall, William Book, Byron D. Hamlin, Gaylord Church.

Democrats! do not be deceived by this miserable attempt to give aid and comfort to the Black Republicans. Remember, the Reading Electoral Ticket, headed with the name of GEORGE M. KEIM, IS THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC TICKET IN THE FIELD. Every vote cast for any other, will be equal to a vote against the Democracy, and help to give the State to Lincoln! No man who is truly a Democrat, will join in such a treasonable plot to betray his party.

The Grammar Critic.

The college-bred youth who edit the Times with such distinguished ability, and help along so powerfully the cause of "Squatter Sovereignty," by quoting Latin and citing Shakespeare, makes a further display of his pedantry by setting himself up as grammar critic for this community. When will he cease displaying his extraordinary accomplishments? He lets us know that he is some at grammar—that he has rubbed himself against a college—that he expects to elect DOUGLAS "grammatically" or not at all. If Shakespeare, Latin and Grammar won't elect DOUGLAS the accomplished editor of the Times would rather see him defeated. Latin and Grammar are powerful political weapons in the estimation of a college-bred boy. It is to be hoped that the staid old Democrats of the county will fully appreciate his youthful efforts to instruct them in grammar as well as enlighten them politically.—We are sorry that the feelings of young KENNEDY have been so dreadfully lacerated by discovering a grammatical error in the Spirit. We presume it would throw him into convulsions if he detected one in the Times. We are, however, in some degree consoled by the opportunity it afforded him for displaying his smartness and penchant for noticing small matters. But grammar like charity should begin at home. Will it be believed that after all the pretensions to being college-bred, made by the editor of the Times, he commits the very same blunder, in his dignified leader over which he labored so hard to polish up, and on the very same word too upon which he spreads himself so knowingly. We give the sentence grammar and all:

It was their accession from the Charleston and Baltimore Conventions, and their subsequent nomination of Breckinridge upon a slave code platform, which has distracted, demoralized, and almost destroyed the Democratic party of the North.

The editor of the Times is certainly very bright for one of his years, and it is a fortunate circumstance that the interests of the Douglas faction, in this county, have been instructed to such a sharp individual. He "has" certainly the "ammunition" and "learning" to see his "under-sore" out—he "has"—grammatically speaking!

Nonsense disputes the regularity of the Reading Electoral Ticket. Nonsense who call themselves Democrats will refuse to vote it, unless they wish Lincoln elected.
