

VALLEY SPIRIT.

OUR POSITION
In the days of the "No Meeting" the second election will be here. It commences on Tuesday, Oct. 10th. Remember the day and be prepared to do your duty to your country and your people. Matters of great importance for the present and the future will be decided on that day. The acts and doings of the State Administration will be censured or condemned. The flag of the good old Union-loving Democratic party will be thrown to the breeze in triumph; or will continue to trail in the dust. If it trails, sectionism, Abolitionism and fanaticism will triumph.

Fellow Democrats, the issue is upon you. It must be met, and should be met in a spirit of exalted patriotism and devotion to country; while you have given men and money without stint, to put down and rebuke the sectionalism of the South, rise in the majority of your power and rebuke at the ballot box the sectionalism of the North.

The issue is forced upon you, to decide in favor of Democracy or of Sectional Black Republicanism and Abolitionism.

The cry of "no party," is one of the most flimsy devices of the enemy, to gall the people, whilst this and other similar schemes are continually prated around by the Republican party; they are at this very time more intensely and uncompromisingly partisan than they have ever been in the past. And in the very face of these unashamed protestations of "Union" and "no party," they have offered and are now most industriously laboring and planning by all means in their power, for the election of a ticket composed entirely of partisans of the strictest sect, whose greatest recommendation is their devotion to Republicanism—their opposition to Democratic men and measures.

Is there anything in the nominees of that party to induce Democrats to support them? Is there anything in their principles or the acts of their State or National Administration, that entitles them to a preference over Democratic candidates?

We most unhesitatingly say there is not. We present to you a ticket of which any party should be proud. Men well known to you, and we believe very favorably known. Men eminently qualified for the positions for which they are offered. Men of ability and character, and the foulest enemy dare not dispute it. Men whose lives have been devoted to the good of the country and for the supremacy of the law—men, in whose hands the interests of the people will be safe.

Up and at Them!

Democrats be about on Tuesday next and show those who would break up your party that it is not dead or dying. The principles of your party are deeply imbedded in the hearts of the people—were its wise counsels followed we would not now have a civil war in the country. The people know this—feel this—and will vote with the only party that can restore an honorable and lasting peace to the whole country. Let the people begin now and take the first step towards bringing back the Union, and alaying civil strife in the land, by voting with the Democratic party. Its principles are those of truth and justice and they must triumph. The man who does not give this party his hearty support in this time of trial and need, must never expect to nestle in its bosom or be honored in its ranks again. Now is the time to act, to work. Depend on no man to do your work. Let every man be on the ground early, see that the whole vote is out, and that every man votes theright ticket.

Give one day honestly and faithfully to your party and your country, and you will be successful.

Look Out for Them.

Democrats you will be approached by men on Election Day, who will tell you that it does not make any difference which you vote for Reilly or Nill—that they are both good Democrats. Nill is no good Democrat and let no one be deceived into casting for him. He has forced himself upon the Republican party as an appendage, trying to make himself a member of the Democratic Ticket. Look him not!

Turn out—elect the people—Tuesday the eighth of October—vote the Democratic ticket.

THE JUDGEMENT OF THE DISTRICT

In time like these, it is of infinite proper, that the public concern of every citizen should be about the integrity of the government, and the safety of the Republic. No one ought to be willing to set this all absorbing interest aside the title of a hair. There is danger, however, that even this sacred feeling of patriotism may have its abuses, and may lead to still consequences. It is not unusual, now-a-days, to meet our best citizens, and to hear them express themselves so solicitous in regard to our national existence as to be entirely careless about the issue of the approaching election, and the fate of the respective candidates before the people. Such indifference is wrong, and may indeed be criminal. There is a wide difference between politics and politicians. The first is defined to be "that part of ethics, which consists in the regulation and government of a state, for the preservation of its safety, peace and prosperity." The latter, used to be those who were versed in the science of government and the art of governing. But now they are known simply, as those who have very little heads, but very big pockets; no skill in government but amazing dexterity in fanning out the revenues of the State. Whilst in times like ours, politicians may be very properly discarded by the people, it would be extremely hazardous, should they suffer the approaching election to pass away, without securing to it, that none but proper persons should be elevated to office.

A pure and able Judge is the chief corner stone of all good government, and individual safety. On the second Tuesday of October, the voters of the Sixteenth Judicial District, will be called upon to elect a Judge, to preside over their Courts for ten years. Every one knows the candidates to be Wilson Reilly and James Nill, both residents of Chambersburg.

It is not our purpose to draw inviolate distinctions between these two gentlemen. We take it for granted however, that each one of them, must be prepared to answer affirmatively the following three questions before he can expect to receive the suffrage of any intelligent voter in the District: 1st Are you a Union man? 2d. Are you an honest man? And lastly, have you legal capacity enough to make a competent Judge? It will thus be observed, that the exigencies of the times have added to the old Jeffersonian Standard of honesty and capacity, the additional quality of patriotism. Does Wilson Reilly come up to the standard of the times? Let us see. Is he simply a partisan, or is he indeed a patriot? In the long course of uninterrupted prosperity, through which our country has been passing, our ideas of true patriotism have become a little undefined and foggy. In the days of the Revolution, a patriot was he, who loved his country, and zealously supported and defended it and its interests. Between that time, and the present, there have lived many patriots, but unfortunately most of them loved their country second, themselves first. Again, we are in the midst of a stupendous and wicked Revolution, and it is high time that we should get back to the old style of patriots. Does Mr. Reilly fall within the true or patriotic class? We remember to have heard him declare in a public speech, and frequently in private conversation, at the very earliest period of our national troubles, that the government might sustain all expenses. He thus fulfilled one part of the definition of a patriot, from the very first. He loved his country better than his party. But in doing this he still did not quite come up to the Revolutionary idea of patriotism. That required the patriot not only to love his country, but also zealously to defend and protect it and its interests. Did Mr. Reilly fail short in this respect? He did not stop with patriotic emotions, but he acted out the feelings that were within him. Who does not know that he shamed his master, tendered his services to the government, and endeavored the privations of a soldier's life for three months, and a shattered constitution and shattered health, to prove that he must die if he would live. With such a record, can any one criticize either his patriotism or his "zealously to defend and protect it and its interests"? Did Mr. Reilly fall short in this respect? He did not stop with patriotic emotions, but he acted out the feelings that were within him. Who does not know that he shamed his master, tendered his services to the government, and endeavored the privations of a soldier's life for three months, and a shattered constitution and shattered health, to prove that he must die if he would live. With such a record, can any one criticize either his patriotism or his "zealously to defend and protect it and its interests"?

And is Wilson Reilly an honest man? Poverty is usually the bogy of honesty. Dishonestly means being dishonest with others—dishonesty means being dishonest with others. Does Mr. Reilly mean to say that he has no personal residence, either at Chambersburg or Franklin, or any place where he can be reached for service? Does he mean to say that he has no personal residence, either at Chambersburg or Franklin, or any place where he can be reached for service? Does he mean to say that he has no personal residence, either at Chambersburg or Franklin, or any place where he can be reached for service? Does he mean to say that he has no personal residence, either at Chambersburg or Franklin, or any place where he can be reached for service?

Democracy turns out to the election, don't make any bargains to stay at home, don't let anything that can be avoided prevent you from voting and seeing that your neighbors all vote. Now is the time to secure a democratic triumph. Your enemies will leave nothing undone. Be not deceived or disengaged, victory is certain if you do your duty.

A Marched Battery.
In order to get Democrats into voting for him, Nill says he is as good a Democrat now as he ever was! The Republicans, of course, believe him to be trying to cover his tracks, to make his services to the government, and endeavor the privations of a soldier's life for three months, and a shattered constitution and shattered health, to prove that he must die if he would live. With such a record, can any one criticize either his patriotism or his "zealously to defend and protect it and its interests"?

And is Wilson Reilly an honest man? Poverty is usually the bogy of honesty. Dishonestly means being dishonest with others—dishonesty means being dishonest with others. Does Mr. Reilly mean to say that he has no personal residence, either at Chambersburg or Franklin, or any place where he can be reached for service? Does he mean to say that he has no personal residence, either at Chambersburg or Franklin, or any place where he can be reached for service? Does he mean to say that he has no personal residence, either at Chambersburg or Franklin, or any place where he can be reached for service?

Turn out—elect the people—Tuesday the eighth of October—vote the Democratic ticket.

THING WE DO KNOW, however, that when Mr. Reilly was in Congress, he was a member of the Committee on Patents. That gentleman who obtained a Patent for the exclusive manufacture and sale of a useful invention, made application to the committee for a renewal of his patent, for an additional period of seven years. He would have given Mr. Reilly a large sum of money, for his vote in favor of his renewal. This was a question which involved no sacrifice of political standing or principle. It was simply a question of domestic economy, as to whether the patentee should no longer be deprived of the benefits of useful inventions, voted against a renewal of the patent and thus sacrificed the chance of making a handsome fortune. If he had not been honest, why did he not pocket the money? Who would have been the wiser or worse off in his doing so? There is another thing which everybody knows, and that is, that Mr. Reilly retired from Congress a poor man. This is the best commentary that can be made upon the Legislators of our day. In addition to all this, a long and unqualified life of integrity, challenges the world to cast upon him the taunt of dishonesty.

3rd Has he legal capacity to make a competent Judge? Nature has fitted him with a clear, logical and analytical mind. He argues from premises to conclusions with consummate skill and logical precision and accuracy. The very best stamp of legal mind for a Judge. His industry for many years of his early professional life, is a matter of tradition among the members of the Bar. Almost a quarter of a century passed in an extensive and varied practice, has garnered up a rich store of knowledge and experience which now places him in the front rank of the Lawyers of our State. No one who has heard him in our courts can question his competency.

If all these things be true, why should party lines be closely drawn against Mr. Reilly? Why should any one (who would otherwise vote for him) refuse to do so, merely because he happened to be the nominee of the Democratic instead of the Union Conference? We shall deprecate the day when the judicial ermine shall be dragged through the mire of Politics. Let the people see to it that candidates for the Judgeship shall not become mere political gladiators.

Stand by Your Party."

Democrats resolve: that these are the words of the old Champion of Democracy—ANDREW JACKSON.—Stand firmly by your party in this the severest trial it has ever undergone. Do your duty manfully by your party and support its ticket—the WHOLE TICKET. Let no Democrat hereafter claim to belong to that glorious old party, under whose management the country has always prospered, who will not support its ticket. They that are not for us are against us—they who cannot freely and fearlessly support the Democratic ticket now in the field in preference to the one opposing it, should never assume to call themselves Democrats, but should at once and forever sink into the embraces of Abolitionism.

Turn Out.

Democrats turn out to the election, don't make any bargains to stay at home, don't let anything that can be avoided prevent you from voting and seeing that your neighbors all vote. Now is the time to secure a democratic triumph. Your enemies will leave nothing undone. Be not deceived or disengaged, victory is certain if you do your duty.

A Marched Battery.
See that tickets are out and on the ground early, at every election district, let everyone make up his mind to take a day. Be on the ground early and stay all day. See that every man entitled gets a vote, and that no illegal vote be polled. Do nothing wrong and submit to nothing wrong.

Have Your Tickets Ready.

Democrats you will be approached by men on Election Day, who will tell you that it does not make any difference which you vote for Reilly or Nill—that they are both good Democrats.

Nill is no good Democrat and let no one be deceived into casting for him. He has forced himself upon the Republican party as an appendage, trying to make himself a member of the Democratic Ticket. Turn him not!

JUDICIAL CONFERENCE.

WE SAY THE FOLLOWING FROM THE "JOURNAL," the organ of the publican party of Bedford County which recently came into our possession:

"The proceedings turned to point in reference to the Judge question that evening."

"We publish the proceedings of the Judicial Conference, which assembled at Bedford, on the 19th inst., published in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Chambersburg, has received the regular nomination of the Democratic party of this Judicial District, for the office of President Judge.

It is with pride, as well as pleasure, that we place the name of Wilson Reilly at the head of the Democratic party.

"The choice of the Conference could not have fallen upon a more able or more worthy man. Mr. Reilly is well known to the people of this county as a brilliant orator and an able lawyer. Twice have the sturdy yeomen of Bedford, testified their appreciation of Mr. Reilly's worth and they will do it again on the second Tuesday of October.—Bedford Gazette.

PRESIDENT JUDGE.

WE SAY THE FOLLOWING:

"Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Wilton, in the paper of Franklin County, has the proceedings of the Democratic Conference which assembled at Bedford, on the 19th inst., published in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Chambersburg, has received the regular nomination of the Democratic party of this Judicial District, for the office of President Judge.

It is with pride, as well as pleasure, that we place the name of Wilson Reilly at the head of the Democratic party.

"The choice of the Conference could not have fallen upon a more able or more worthy man. Mr. Reilly is well known to the people of this county as a brilliant orator and an able lawyer. Twice have the sturdy yeomen of Bedford, testified their appreciation of Mr. Reilly's worth and they will do it again on the second Tuesday of October.—Bedford Gazette.

President Judge.

There can be no office of public trust more closely connected with the interests and welfare of the people than the office of President Judge. To wear the judicial ermine becomingly and worthily, a man must be honest, well read in the law, quick of perception, impartial, without prejudice, cool and withal qualified for the orderly and judicious discharge of business. Few men possess all these requisites, and but comparatively few are endowed with even the major part of them.

In our own district, however, a gentleman has been presented for this dignified position, who unites in himself the qualities necessary to an upright and able judge. We allude to the Hon.

WILSON REILLY, of Chambersburg.

Gifted intellectually with extraordinary powers, well-grounded in the legal science, quick to perceive and grasp the abstract point, liberal and candid in his views, and endowed with that nobleness of nature which shrinks instinctively from injustice and wrong.

Wilson Reilly is confessedly the foremost man in the district for the office for which he is named. Should he be elected, the people will have upon the bench, not only an honest minister of justice, but a man who will be able to save them thousands of dollars in expenses by having their business transacted with the proper dispatch.—Bedford Gazette.

Hon. Wilson Reilly.

The Republican paper of Bedford county, the "Inquirer," gives Mr. REILLY the handsomest endorsement. It is both liberal and honorable in the "Inquirer" to bestow such commendation on a political opponent. The "Inquirer" says:

"Hon. WILSON REILLY volunteered his services for his country, and was elected Captain of his company, and has done much good in his speeches in favor of the cause of the Union. He is well qualified for the important office of President Judge."

Somerset County.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

Prudent Vigilance.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is one of the most eloquent public speakers in the State. He is a self-made man, was a hatter by trade, and by force of his talents and industry has acquired honor and distinction which the most ambitious might honorably desire to emulate. He is about fifty years of age, in the full vigor of manhood, and if elected will make a most efficient and conscientious Judge.—Somerset Democrat.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Conference, which we publish in another column, it will be seen that the Hon. Wilson Reilly, of Franklin, was nominated for Judge of this Judicial District. Mr. Reilly is an able and experienced lawyer, has represented his district in Congress, and is

VALLEY SPIRIT.

MISCELLANEOUS.

AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY.

GOLD AND SILVER WATCHES.

JEWELRY.

JOHN A. STODDART
No. 425 Chestnut St., PHILADELPHIA, PENNA.A thousand is required for the inferior articles, and the accompanying advertisements in favor of them.

CELEBRATED AMERICAN WATCHES.

A OLD WATCH was awarded the Company the Grand Prize at the International Exhibition in Paris, and was exhibited there by the American Institute, New York City. The Company has received the highest awards from the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, 1851.

These watches have been sent to the most expert experts, during which time they have been tested for Accuracy, Durability and Strength, and have passed them to the most satisfactory trade prices ever offered.

The public can rest assured that these are safe articles.

The Company have sent these watches to the best

mathematically correct

experts, and in consequence prefer a time

over a sample article.

The Company have sent these watches to many in the United States, and have been well received.

The Company have exhibited a rate, and in regularity to the most exacting chronometers.

V. H. WEIL has just received a

NEW STYLE OF WATCH.

A new style of watch has been introduced, and is now in full use. The prices are extended.

The Company have sent these watches to the best

mathematical experts, and have passed them to the most exacting trade prices ever offered.

The following is from Mr. Peter's well known

Marine Chronometer and Watch Co.

BOSTON, Oct. 20th, 1860.

Dear Sir.—I have sold during the last year a small number of Waltham's and other watches, and have not been able to find any that have satisfied me, or have fulfilled my accuracy, durability, and strength in the purchase.

Yours very truly,

REFERENCE.—H. H. DUNN.

Hon. Thomas Hart, Wayne

Judge of Navy, Vermont.

House Committee, New York.

Franklin Institute.

CAUTION.

A new Watch is now extensively manufactured by a manufacturer, who has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

and important results, and has made a

series of experiments, during the course of which

he has obtained a number of valuable results.

He has also obtained a number of valuable

