'I think not. From the very beginsing, I have made it a rule to repress, so far as lay in my power, everything disorderly and evil; to require strict e-bedience to my word on pain of certain punishment. No, annt, I do not think the foul like at my done. Ed. think the fault lies at my door. Ed-ward has a strange disposition. I don't know what to make of him somedon't know what to make of him some-times. He seems bent on doing the skings I interdict. Only half an hour-age I found him in the library with a characterist book lying upon the flow, marking some of the fine illustrations marking some of the fine illustrations with a penil. Once before I had unnished him for this very thing, and here it was again.

'And you panished him again?'
I did, sourcely.'

Union Mon of the Boath.

It gives us much pleasure to lay be-fore our readers the following letter written by Gen, COCHRANS, an able Kentucky lawyer, and a Unionist in the dark days of our country after the battle of Bull Run, when he joined the army and served his country in the army and served his country in the three months volunteers. He was al-PATPOSE Of IN WAT!

"THAT THE PROPERTY OF THE POLLOWING THE POLLOW tige of Unionsm in the South. The Union men of the South, as this letter very plainly shows, are the slaveholders, and it is these that the abolition ists would injure and drive from their loyalty. If ever this war is ended to the Union men in the South must we look to carry on the State governabolitionists are to have their way the South to save the States and re-store the Union as it was. Is it any wender that the loyal Union men of the South say they are "disgusted and enraged at the folly and madness and enraged at the folly and madness of the negro-worshiping asses in and out of Congress in the North." It is the infernal rigitation on the negro question that is prolonging the war, and while it is kept up the Union men of the South can do nothing to perstade their misguided neighbors to lay down their arms and return to their allegiance. The sleveholders know agh about the character of the negro to be convinced that he never can become the equal of the white man and consequently they have no appre-hensions on that score. The nonslaveholders, or working classes, believe that the efforts to free the negroes are intended to make them their equals and it is that that has driven them to and it is that that has driven them to arms. Under such a state of affairs, while the mad schemes for negro equality are kept up by the abolition-ists, is it possible to have a united, peaceful and happy country? The Union men of the South can rely on the Democracy of the North to aid them in consigning Abolitionism and Secessionism to one common grave." That is the end for which Democrats are now fighting and accounts for why they are called "traitors" by Aboli-tionists and Secessionists. Truly will ti nists and Secessionists. Truly will Democrate prove traitors to all such enemies of the country. A Democrat should feel proud of being called "a traitor" by an Abolitionist or a Secessionist. To the principles advocated by them will the Democracy prove training them and luvaer."

have been received concerning the operations of our army before Richmond we are led to believe that we have not been making that progress in our alvance to the robel Capital that we hoped to chronicle this week. There has been some stirring times in the manny, and any amount of heavy fighting within the past few days. The Pennsylvania Reserves have fought hard and lost largely. Rumor says that Gen McChentach have reited from White House and has his army on the James River under protection of the James River under the James River under protection of the Revention of the Sand River and the Alley Richmend entirely at his mercy. We are at 1 loan whether to believe the editor of the Disanctes, a know or the editor of the Dispatch a knave or a fool. He is certainly one or the other or he would not venture to make such a bold denial as the above. He may "deny its truth" but it is TRUTH, nevertheless, as the following extracts from the Spirit will conclusively prove. When the first gun was fired in this wicked rebellion the Valley Spirit was wicked rebellion the Valley Spirit was the first paper in the Siste to lead off, in a demand that all party predictions be given up, that Democrats and Republicans should rally unitedly around the Stars and Stripes and maintain the supremey of the Constitution and the initivability of the Union. The following is an extract from an elitorial in the Valley Spirit, April 17, 1861;—17 behavors every man in these fearful times to drop the jarman and become the patriot that a speedy peace may be conquered. We are all the spirit is the superich small waters in the size of the spirit of the spirit is the spirit of the spirit in the spirit part of the spirit is spirit that a speedy peace may be conquered. We speedy peace may be conquered. We need hardly admonish members of the Democratic party TO GIVE UP FOR TH: TIME 3, ING THEIR PARTY PREDILEC-TIME 2. INO THRIE PARTY PERDILLE-TIONS and stand by the government under which they live and which it is their bounden dust to support."— Again, on the 24th of April, 1861, may be found the following in the leading editorial of the Spirit of that date. — "To bring this war to a speedly termination, a deare which must be uppermost in the breast of every Christian and Patriot, we m at be united as one man in our determination to sustain our Country's Flag. Let us show to the world our attachment to our beloved land, and that however we may be divided, politically, when our Country's Flag is assailed, by either a foreign or domestic foe, ALL PA. TY DISTINCTIONS ARE PORGOTTEN AND WE ARE READY TO UNITE and march at a moments warning to wipe out the insult that may be offered to the emblem of our Liberty and our Glory." And again in another editorial in the Spirit of the same menth we find the followof the same menth we find the follow-ing: —"Lee every man then claiming the high privilege of an American citizen rally at once to the support in his Government. This is no time to think of party or politics, or keep up bickerings either personal, political or religious. We must be comented to gether by every tie that can insure gether by every the that can insure unity of purpose and concert of action." These generous and patriotic over-tures were rejected by the Riubli-cans and a begus Union party formed with which all who loved the Chicago platform better than the Constitution platform better than the Constitution were invited to join. So little regard was paid to our proposition, to sink party during the war, that the editor of the Dispatch seems not to know that it was ever made. When these Republicans would not agree to sink party altogether, or act with the Democratio, party, we would ast if it. party altogether, or act who the Demo-cratic party, we would ask if it was not decidedly cool to invite Democrats to abandon their time-honored organination, that has governed the co for over sixty years in prosperity and greatness, and be merged into the d s-organized mass of shoddy merchants, horse-contractors, middle-men, jobbers and public-plunderers, particularly and generally, that now go by the some-what extensive title of "Republican— Union—People's—Loyal League Ad-ministration—Wide Awake—Aboli-tion Party." With such a mongrel ministration tion Party." With such a mongrel party—such a name and such principles—could it be expected the Democracy would kindly affiliate. It is a lacky thing for the country that the Democratic party did not surrender lucky thing for the country that the Democratic party did not surrender its principles, for it is now orident that only through Democratic mon, and by Democratic measures can the Conject-tution be award and the Union restored. We know that it is idle to expect the Disputch towards a political oppo-nent. It has never displayed those manly and honorable traits and never will. It appears to gratify its fiend ish malignamy to misrepresent the Spirit on every occasion, and when its errors are corrested, and its delib-erate talsehoods pointed out, it has not the soul in it to make the 'amende honorable.' We do not look for it to honorable." We do not look for it to do the **Sprit justice, in this instance, by publishing the above extracts. That would not be in keeping with its character. Very well; if it can only direct attention from its short comings, political and otherwise, by its misrepresentations and abuse of the Spirit, it would be a lucky hit and one that the supposed editor of the Dispatch ought not to despise.
